The Hour of Danger.

The friends of the Union are at this moment encompassed with danger. The very air seems burdened with news of Fraud—Fraud in Baltimore and Washington, Fraud in New York, Fraud in Ohio, Fraud in Pennsylvania, Fraud everywhere—Fraud so abundant that the soul grows sick at contemplating it.

The resort of the McCLELLAN men to wholesale fraud, at all points, is evidence that they have no hope except in the success of their frauds. They know the public will is against them. Their only trust is in subverting it.

The plentifulness of these warnings concerning these villainies should remind every one that the great crisis is approaching. The interests of the country require that every man who loves it should be at his post, prepared to do his duty. The danger which now threatens is not in the front, but in the rear. The object of the enemies of the government is to carry the Presidential election. To accomplish this purpose they are bending every effort. And while they forge soldiers' votes in New York by the tens of thousands, their rebel friends in front are aiming to so arrange matters as to prevent soldiers of Pennsylvania and Ohio, who are required to vote on the day of the election at their respective camps, from exercising that right.

Of the frauds and forgeries already resorted to, for the purpose of carrying New York, our readers are fully aware. But, not content with this, they have, as we are apprised by an official order issued by Gen. DIX, arranged for a foray into New York, on election day, of the rebels, refugees and deserters in Canada. In Ohio, a grand scheme of double voting has also been organized, and in Pennsylvania, wherever they can control a majority of the Return Judges, they intend to throw out the Soldi-rs' vote.

All these things admonish us to watchfulness and a resolution to guard against all these desperate resorts of a desperate enemy.

Sleepless vigilance is required of every Union man from now until the election. It is an old saying that "Cheating never prospers," and we can make it true by promptly exposing and guarding against the cheats and cheaters.

Frauds in Pennsylvania.

The McCLELLAN men in Pennsylvania are not a whit behind the r cheating, swindling brethren in New York.

They voted in a body to deny the soldier the right to vote; and they are determined, now that he has the right, that he shall not be permitted to exercise it.

When the return Judges met in Bedford county on Friday last, they threw out forty-five soldiers' votes for KOONTZ, the Union candidate for Congress, and in Adams county, the board threw out 128 army votes for the same candidate.

The reason given for this procedure is "informality" in the returns. It is not pretended that the returns were not genuine, nor that the votes were not legally cast; nor that there was any fraud or wrong in receiving the votes; but the returns themselves looked some trifling formality, and they were thrown out.

The object of this act simply was to elect CESSNA, the Copperhead candidate for Congress, by depriving nearly two hundred soldiers of their votes, legally cast. It is a barefaced swindle, and we trust that the Governor, who has the final canvassing of the votes, will show these swindlers that they cannot succeed in their villainous purposes. KOONTZ is legally, fairly elected, AND HE MUST NOT BE CHEATED out of his seat.

The New York Fraud.

GOV. SEYMOUR, instead of repudiating the forgeries perpetrated by his State agents for the purpose of polling 60,000 fraudulent votes in New York, makes the fraud his own and gives his official sanction to it. The Albany Argus of Friday morning, which may be supposed to speak the sentiments of Gov. SEYMOUR, says: "Gov. SEYMOUR is absent, but he will demand of President LINCOLN the release of those agents of the State, and the return of soldiers' ballots to their destination, and if the Administration refuses, it must accept the alternative."

So the Governor will "demand the return" of the forged ballots, will he? We advise him to try it.

As to the alternative threatened, if the forged votes are not given up to the base villains who organized this appalling scheme of wickedness, the government is undoubtedly prepared for it. If GOV. SEYMOUR threatens there will be no alternative for the administration but to arrest the scoundrel, and put him out of the reach of temptation. Fort Warren is not yet full.

Intended Frauds in Ohio.

The Ohio Union State Executive Committee has been advised through trustworthy sources that the Copperheads in several sections of the State, where they are in majority, intend to perpetrate immense frauds at the coming election. Their plan is to vote early in the day in citizens' dress and then at a later hour don a soldiers' uniform and smuggle into the ballot box another vote, either at the same or some adjoining poll, under the control of their friends. This information comes from parties who have been in the enemy's camp and heard the modus operandi explained and discussed. The soldiers are known to be so unanimously for LINCOLN that they anticipate no interference with their plans from Union challengers at the polls.

How To Get out Every Vote.

Each election district should be blocked out, and some stirring Union man made responsible for every vote within his section. This can be easily done if earnestly undertaken. Where a district is thus blocked out, every man should be urged to vote early. If this duty shall be thoroughly attended to, the State will be carried before 12 o'clock! There is never any trouble to vote early in the morning. The most boisterous are generally reasonably orderly in the forenoon. Those, therefore, who are annoyed by a crowd, by voting early can avoid it.

The Rebel's Candidate

"McClellan's election on the Chicago platform," says the Charleston Mercury, "must lead to peace and our independence."

"Our success in battle," says the Charleston Courier "insures the success of M'Clellan; our failure leads to his defeat."

We commend these two brief quotations, from two leading organs of the rebellion, to the attention of any loyal Democrats, if any there be, who still think of voting the McCLELLAN ticket. What the Mercury says is true, for it will be utterly impossible to restore the Union, if the people endorse the Chicago platform by electing McCLELLAN. It is independence, and not a restored Union; independence, and not a restored Union; independence, and not fresh guarantees for slavery; it dependence, and not a compromise of any kind, however humiliating and degrading to the North, that will alone satisfy the South; and it is independence and nothing short of it, that they expect to result from McCLELLAN's election. And if he is elected they will get it; for it would instantly paralyze the arm of the nation, now uplifted to give the finishing blow to the rebellion.

Now look at the second paragraph. There is a great deal of truth in that, too, although we would not endorse it altogether; for we could beat McCLELLAN even if the Rebels were to gain a battle or two; still we know that a few victories won by them would help him very much. We all—rebels, copperheads and friends of the Union—know that. Now look here, you men who are hurrahing for McCLELLAN, and intend to vote for him, are you not ashamed of yourselves? Well, perhaps not; but we tell you that if you are not ashamed now, you will be; and your children, to the third and fourth generation, will be ashamed of you. What! voting and doing all you can for a man whose election is all that is needed to enable the rebels to break up this Union, and still pretend to be a democrat! You, who pretend to be followers of JACKSON, who swore that the Union should be preserved, trotting to aid the disciples of JOHN C. CALHOUN in doing that which JACKSON would not allow their master to do! Out upon such baseness and hypocrisy!

Official Returns.

We have a few official returns of the election as added up by the Return Judges on Friday last. The total vote, home, and soldiers', is given in the first two columns, and the soldiers' vote alone in the other two:

County.	Union.	Cop	Union.	Cop
Dauphin	4671	3756	442	324
Lancaster	12991	141	Lost	none
Allegheny	17137	9769	1045	124
Bucks	6-76	6968	131	0
Lancaster	11806	1544	700	0
Blair	576		250
Philadelphia	43503	40161	1607	701

Gov. SEYMOUR, it will be seen, has sent a commission to Washington to demand the surrender of the forged soldiers' ballots, so that they can be voted. The impudence thus evinced, in thus openly taking sides with fraud, is astounding. The claim that the ballots are genuine, is admitted by those who got them up, to be forgeries, could only be set up by the man who was degraded enough to preside over the Chicago Convention.

Mr. JOHN J. CISCO, BUCHANAN'S Assistant U. S. Treasurer at New York, and who was kept in office by Mr. LINCOLN until a few weeks since, heads a call for a McCLELLAN meeting in that city, in which he speaks of the "ERRORS committed by President LINCOLN." One of his greatest errors was in keeping such men as CISCO in office.

Bear this in mind now, although the election is eight days off, and let it become a fixed resolve: Vote at the earliest possible hour on the morning of election, and then be prepared to work all day for the cause.

Not for steady, systematic work in behalf of the Union cause. Only eight days more. Close up the ranks, prepare the line of battle, and be ready for the grand charge on the 8th of November.

The Indiana Treason Trial.

The most extraordinary development in the course of the Indiana Treason Trial, occurred yesterday by the appearance on the stand, as a witness, of J. J. Bingham. This Mr. Bingham had been a prisoner at the bar. He was a member of the Sons of Liberty. He was also Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee. He was, at the same time chief editor of the Indianapolis Sentinel, the central organ of Democratic party. He was arrested at the same time with Bowles, Balliet, Milligan, and others. Concluding that martyrdom would not pay, he followed the example of Harrison, Secretary of the Order, and turned State's evidence. Yesterday he testified, and in another place we print his statement. He fully confirms the testimony of other witnesses, as to the treasonable purpose of the Sons of Liberty, and puts it beyond the power of the copperhead press no longer deceive the people on the subject. BINGHAM tells all about the revolutionary plot which was to be carried out in August; the plan to assassinate Governor MORTON; to liberate rebel prisoners; to seize Government property at Louisville etc. And, it will be observed, that this plot was known to the leaders of the Democratic party, including McDONALD, before the assembling of the Chicago Convention. And yet DODD, the Chief Commander, an active man in the conspiracy, was sent to that Convention; was an important person there, and was in full fellowship with the men who nominated McCLELLAN.

In view of these facts, it is well for the people to remember the positive denials, spoken and published, by prominent members of the Democratic party, of the existence of this conspiracy; the bitter denunciations by the representatives of the Democratic party of the arrest of the conspirators, and the seizure of the arms imported into Indiana for the use of the traitors. These arrests and seizures were denounced as a violation of the Constitutional rights of citizens, and the "military despotism" is one of the principal points in the Chicago Platform against the Administration. Yet the leaders knew the character and object of the conspiracy: they knew the intention of those men to inaugurate civil war, by an attempt to overthrow the Government, and to aid the Southern rebellion.

And now, in view of all this, we ask the sober, thinking men who have been supporting the Democratic party, what they can expect for their country, if this party, which is in the hands of conspirators, should succeed in the approaching election? The object of these leaders is, clearly enough, to make the rebellion a success. Their sympathies are entirely with the South, and against their country. Bingham's testimony takes away every inch of ground upon which an honest man could base even a doubt upon this subject. The case thus presented, in its blackest form, by the Chairman of the Indiana Democratic Central Committee, is now before the people for their verdict. It can no longer be crushed aside as a Republican lie, or an Administration fiction. It does not rest upon the evidence of detectives, of Union men, or of spies; but upon the testimony of the trusted leader of the Indiana Democracy.—Cin. Gazette.

Call The Rolls Instantly.

The following from the New York Tribune is just as applicable to Pennsylvania as to New York:

"Men like BELMONT don't bet, as he is said to have been betting on McCLELLAN for three weeks past, without being in possession of information which gives them assurance of winning. Until the sacrilegious and treasonable fraud which McClellan managers are exposed their hopes is fully developed, the Unionists throughout New York must double their guards. Without the loss of another day, the duty of canvassing the towns and wards MUST be performed.

Vigilance Committees, composed of men of nerve and familiar with their District, must be immediately organized all over the State. WE MUST BE PREPARED TO SUPPRESS FRAUDS.

Friends, we may be reposing in fancied security on a mine. Turn out—double your guards. Call the rolls—summon the absent—demand the sick—galvanize the careless—get every voter into the racks, and then drive this Party of Forgery and Perjury into their last ditch.

Astounding Frauds.

Of all the frauds ever attempted in the United States, this just directed at the office of the New York State agent in Baltimore is by a city, by all odds, the most startling. All previous efforts in this line sink into insignificance before this gigantic swindle, for the number of votes forged is estimated even as high as sixty thousand. For some time past we have been puzzled to account for the extraordinary confidence with which the copperheads spoke of the prospect of their carrying the State of New York. But at length the murder is out. They bragged high because they trusted to these stupendous frauds. It seems that the wretches who were engaged in this nefarious attempt to cheat the soldiers of their votes, had gone to their original muster rolls and copied off the names of all the New York soldiers, dead or alive, and forged papers for them as well as votes. Thousands of the gallant men who now sleep in far away battle fields; thousands of others who languish in Southern prisons and thousands more who have been discharged ill health or crippled, have had votes for McClellan pulled grandiloquently for them by these New York agents, who have diligently forged all the papers to match. The men who did this were appointed by Governor Seymour, who is himself a candidate at this election. The frauds on votes are now in New York State and his newspapers, in sheer desperation, seek to force these votes into the account for the State of New York by representing that the exposure is an effort to suppress the soldiers' votes because they are for McClellan! Can it be possible that men claiming credit for integrity and honesty intend to patronize these terrible outrages upon the right of suffrage, and seek to profit by them? Surely there ought to be virtue enough in the Democratic party to shake itself loose from such villainies. In any event we trust our friends in New York will take every step open to them to protect their rights.

"A FAILURE!" "Bible was a failure!" They lie. There has been no failure—except at the polls in November! What voter connected with the army by the dead or alive—but in the fields—connected with the army by the living, suffering, fighting, but never flinching patriots in the trenches, dare risk by his inactivity or his neglect, the responsibility of failure in the November part of the great fight for Freedom?

THE Concord Monitor says that the New Hampshire Republican State Central Committee announces the following figures as the result of their returns from all parts of that State, with those not included the soldiers' vote:

Union majority	34,597
McClellan	32,671
Union Majority	2,926
Doubtful returns report a	701

The number of New Hampshire soldiers in the field must be almost ten thousand, one half of whom are voters, and will be sure to vote ten to one for Lincoln.
