The Great Western Conspiracy. We have, published from time to time brief telegraphic reports of the testimony elicited at the trial of the conspirators at Indianapolls. We have now before us a full report of th testimony of J. J. Binguam and Felix G. We subjoin a copious extract from the report of the testimony of the latter witness. These conspirators sometimes mat and operatad in secret lodges as "Knights," as "Sons of Liberty," &s., at other times openly, as "domo cratic conventions." These are the men who controlled the Chicago Convention, and such as these will control the Government should M'CLELLAS be elected.

Oil on the Clarien.

There is at this time (says the Clatico Bunner,) sofisiderable excitament slong the Giarion river in regard to the cil prospect. Strangers from all parts of the country are poaring in and sites are being purchased every day. It is grat fying to as to know that at last there is somethin; to start our people and endourage them to make investments with a prospect of a speedy return. From the mouth of the Clarion to Bidgway, land is repidly o hanging hands and purchasors ans preparing to put down wells. Biyron's Run, a short distance above, has afready become famous, and its windnity is en-tirely taken up. The next place of note is Missor's run, where it is said an oil spring has been discovered, and which, has been sequents "Bun" is on what is no well known as the "Bank Lands," the general appearance of which is full of promise. This hand is about ninb miles from this place, and within a 'few day's tract adjoining of about 300 acres was sought for and an offer of $0,000 made in greenbacks for it. The Maxon Ban property was owned by Mesers. G. S. & B. W. Incor, but 'they have dis-posed of it, reserving to themelores a small la-larest. This preperty is now fairly in the and, as purchasers are plenty and good sites are growing scarce. are preparing to put down wells,
