WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 9, 1864.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Allegheny County Election.

The election for President passed off very quietly in this county. There was not the slightest disturbance anywhere, so far as we have been able to learn. The result has been eminently gratifying to the friends of the Union. Allegheny county has done her duty nobly—yet nobly.

The returns are not so full as we could desire, but they are sufficient to base a close calculation upon. Forty-eight districts give a Union majority of 8,176, and a Union gain of about 1,500. This leaves twenty-eight districts yet to hear from, which will doubtless swell the Union majority to 8,500.

The following is the vote in the districts heard from:

	Congress.		President.
	Union.	Cop.	Lincoln.	McClellan.

Receiving the Returns—Scenes at Union Headquarters—A Gay Time.

The Union Headquarters, Concert Hall, was opened to the public at seven o'clock, last evening, and filled to its utmost capacity in a few minutes.

Col. Thomas M. Bigham soon after made his appearance as Stage Manager, and was greeted with tremendous cheers. Dr. McCook opened the ball, and after making a few remarks was followed by Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., who was in fine voice about making a speech, professing that all amid they were "out of the wood." Mr. McCandless announced the returns from the 4th ward, and wound up by singing "Yankee Doodle," during which Mr. Bigham and Dr. McCook stepped in, and "Old Abe Lincoln" was received with roars of laughter. Prof. Pope was loudly called, and favored the audience with a variety of political, comic and national songs. The Union General Glee Club, under the leadership of Mr. Carey, next assisted in the proceedings with a number of songs, the pieces among which was "Old John Brown" with the hallelujah chorus, in which the audience joined. Mr. Shanbourn sang a couple of Irish songs, which were well received. "Rally Round the Flag, Boys," was sung with fine effect by the Glee Club—the crowd joining in the chorus. Addresses were delivered by Dr. James Pentley, Hon. P. C. Shannon, Hon. Charles Naile, Esq., and Hon. P. C. Shannon.

Three rousing cheers were then given for Lincoln and Johnson, the Army and Navy. The "Star Spangled Banner" was then sung, with Prof. Pope as leader, followed by the "Red, White and Blue," led by Mr. Cargo. These national anthems were received with unbounded enthusiasm. "Auld Lang Syne" was sung in a solemn mood. Speeches followed by Dr. Fraser, Mr. Marshall, (who now felt himself comfortably "out of the woods,") Rev. T. N. Boyle, Jas. L. Graham, "Hughey" Donaldson, and several other gentlemen. Mr. Bigham announced that Mr. Marshall would turn a somersault on the evening, but this acrobatic feat did not come off. Prof. W. H. Slack, and the Allegheny Glee Club were repeatedly called, but did not appear as a club. The Professor was to the hall at a late hour, and sang several songs. The jubilee was kept up till after eight, and the performances which we have endeavored to give interspersed with the reading of the returns from our county, and from other sections. Returns from Philadelphia, Baltimore, Missouri and other points, were hailed with the wildest demonstrations of applause, and both old and young shouted until they were hoarse. The announcement, made about eleven o'clock, that Pennsylvania had gone, by a majority of 30,000, for Lincoln and Johnson, and that the melancholy gainsay had adjourned, bearing the News from New York, was received by shouts of victory which we never equaled. It would be impossible to describe the enthusiasm, the merriment, the jolly good humor which prevailed throughout the evening. It was a scene which will long be shared by the thousands who witnessed it.

Meeting at Wellsville.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in the Brick Church" (O. S. Pres.,) Wellsville, on Monday evening last.

Rev. Mr. Dickson, of Madison, was called to the chair, and William Mackintosh, Esq., was elected Secretary. Prayer was offered up by the Rev. James Swan, pastor of the church. After which the Rev. John Douglas, D. D., of this city, according to previous invitation, proceeded to deliver a lecture on "The Present Aspect and Future Prospects of the Nation." This lecture was on the whole range of topics that are at present discussed as bearing upon the destiny of the nation. Its delivery occupied more than two hours, and elicited frequent demonstrations of applause.

At the close of the meeting, a vote of thanks was passed to the Reverend gentleman for his interesting and patriotic lecture, and, on motion, he was invited unanimously to deliver another lecture in the same place, at his own convenience, on a subject of his own selection.

The following dispatch has been received by Dr. Douglas from James Graham, Esq., of Adelphia:

"Hurrah, you dwellers in the smoke,
The neck of Lincoln Mac is broke;
The loyal city of old Penn
Again rolls up her thousands ten.
The Union's safe, and freedom too,
Says Yankee Doodle, dipdle doo.

A majority, excluding the soldiers vote, is secured at least.

TUESDAY, Cough, Cold, and similar troubles, if suffered to progress, result in serious and very affections, oftentimes incurable. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES are compounded so as to reach directly the seat of the disease and almost instant relief.

Difficulty at the Polls.

Yesterday morning a young man, named Charles Spyder, appeared before Mayor Alexander, of Allegheny, and entered a charge against J. B. Cornelius for assault and battery. It appears a difficulty sprung up between the parties at the First ward polls, during which, it is alleged, the assault was committed. Cornelius was arrested and held to bail for his appearance to day to answer.

A charge of interfering with the election has also been preferred against him by Snyder. This, we believe, was the only difficulty that occurred at the polls in Allegheny yesterday.

In this city three men were arrested at the Eighth ward polls, and one in the First ward for disorderly conduct. They were taken to the Mayor's office and locked up for a hearing.

Melancholy Accident.

Intelligence was received in this city yesterday of the accidental death of Mr. Robert Sturgeon, a well-known citizen of North Fayette township, and proprietor of "Sturgeon's Flouring Mill," on the Noblestown road. We learn that Mr. Sturgeon was killed at his mill, but we have been unable to ascertain the particulars. The deceased was about seventy years of age, and leaves a large family. Two of his sons reside in this city. Mr. Sturgeon has been proprietor of the mill for nearly half a century, and this, we understand, is the only fatal accident that has ever occurred at it.

THEATER.—Miss Major Pauline Cushman, who rendered very efficient service to the army of the Cumberland, under Gen. Rosecrans, is playing a very successful engagement at the Theatre. During her stay amongst us a number of new pieces will be produced. The romantic Irish drama of "Colleen Bawn" has had a very successful run for the past few nights, and will be performed again this evening. Miss Cushman is an excellent actress and deserves the success she is meeting with here.

THE restoring influence of Osgood's India Cholagogue upon constitutions impaired and injured by a residence in bilious climates, is one of its most valuable qualities. There are many constitutions that become gradually undermined by miasmal causes, without even a day's actual confinement. In such cases, the Cholagogue acts like a charm—the sallow complexion, loss of appetite, languor, weariness and depression of spirits, with other unpleasant symptoms which render life a burden,—all yield to this remedy if only faithfully used according to the directions of the pamphlet which accompanies each bottle. Sold by all druggists and medicine dealers.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The attention of our readers is directed to the brilliant assortment of Fall and Winter Goods just received by our friend Mr. John Weier, No. 126 Federal street, Allegheny. His stock comprises a great variety of Fancy French, English, Scotch and American Cassimeres and Cloths, and fine Silk and Cassimere Vestings,—all of which will be made up to order in the latest styles and in the best manner. A choice selection of Furnishing Goods also on hand and for sale, together with a full stock of Ready Made Clothing, well and fashionably made.

LIVER COMPLAINTS of bilious climates arise from the same causes which produce Fever and Ague, and are cured with the same certainty by OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. Even after the liver has become very much enlarged and tender upon pressure, it is in a few weeks restored to its natural size; soreness and pain in the side relieved, with such general improvement as denotes returning health.

Sold by all druggists and medicine dealers.

DIED:

ATKINSON.—In memoriam of THOMAS A. ATKINSON, killed in the engagement at Cedar Creek, October 19th, 1864.

"Thou hast left us to mourn thy early death;
Left us in the opening bud of manhood,
Her honor to save, or with it fall."

But just sixteen years old; young, ardent, full of life and hope, at the first call for troops he left home and all that was near and dear, joining the Old Thirteenth, (now the One Hundred and Second,) and participated in all the battles in which that gallant Regiment was engaged. His term of service having expired, he re-enlisted for three years more, seeking a higher value on freedom and its blessings than upon his own life. He felt that liberty was too sacred a boon to be ruthlessly trampled in the dust by a haughty Rebel foe; and while we mourn his early death, we know that he could not have given up his life in a nobler and better cause than for liberty and his country.

Farewell, dear boy, thou hast no mother to mourn thee; very, dear father, weep, but thy son bravely the net. No more shall thy voice, no more awake at thy call. Wreathe his coffin with immortelles; drape it with the flag of his beloved country which he has fallen to defend; with arms reversed and amidst the suppressed sobs of his friends, carry the hero to his last resting place.

When two months ago we gathered,
Joy was in his mild beams eye,
But a golden chord is severed,
And one angel more in the sky.

At our fireside and in our duty,
O, he will our bosom swell,
In remembrance of the story,
How our noble Count fell.

Sleep to-day, oh, early fallen,
In thy green and narrow bed;
Dirges by the pine and cypress,
Mingle with the tears we shed.
