SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 12, 1864.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Trial of Martin Brawdy for the Murder of James Fagan.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER.—Before Judges Sterrett, Mellon, Stowe and Brown.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Court re-assembled at two o'clock, and proceeded with the examination of witnesses for the defense.

Robert Hague, police officer, testified that he had searched to find John Walls, a witness in this case, but had been unsuccessful in the search.

Mrs. Nelly Connoway testified that she never saw James Fagan until the evening of the 16th of July; met him on the road while coming down from the pic nic; witness went up to the pic nic to endeavor to get Martin Brawdy to go home; when witness got up, Martin was at the bar drinking; Martha Brawdy told him to come home; he said "wait till I get my change," and started back to the bar; the crowd then got around him, and some one struck him on the left side of the face; Martha started up towards him, when some one struck him on the right side of the face; Martha said: "For God's sake don't kill my brother; I will take him down home;" we started down the hill, when a man named Walls came up and said, Martin was too drunk to walk, and offered to take him home; we gave him in charge of Walls, and started down the hill; when the crowd saw Martin going, they followed, and some one cried out: "There goes Martin Brawdy, the s— of a b— with the white coat on; catch him and kill him;" the crowd then commenced throwing stones at him; Walls said "run for your lives;" Martha said, "do not all leave me;" a man called Fagan then went up to Martha and struck her on the right side of the face; she started to run from him, when he caught hold of witness and struck her on the mouth; witness called for Martha, when he hit her again, and knocked two teeth loose; she then called for Martin, when Fagan said, "Will you call for that s— of a b—; if we catch him we will make chicken pie of him;" he then put his arm around witness' neck, and tried to choke her; put his hand up her clothes, and when Martin came up had her against a stone pile; Martin said "D— not do that;" when he struck her again; Gust Voke took hold of witness and asked Fagan if he could not let the girl alone, and took her down the hill; witness' face was bloody, and her skirts torn. Two of her teeth were knocked loose, and had to have them pulled out afterwards; when witness overtook Martha she took hold of her arm, and left the stranger. After proceeding a short distance met Mr. and Mrs. Brawdy; Mrs. Brawdy said she would give fifty dollars if some one would show her the man that struck her daughter; Martin said it was some of the d—d Dew Drops; some one then stepped out from the crowd and said "I am the Dew Drop that struck your sister, and you s— of a b— I'll strike you too." This was the person they called Jim Fagan; Fagan stepped out the crowd and threw his hands at Martin, staggering him; I then caught hold of Martin and asked him to come home; Fagan struck the defendant a second time, and I then heard the report of a pistol, twice; after the pistol had been fired heard some one say "There's a man shot;" Martin, his father, and Walls, then started down Josephine street; witness followed them to Brawdy's yard, when Martin fell; he was taken into the dining room, where his face was bathed, and carried him up stairs to bed, and put a court-plaster upon his cuts; Martin had not received the wounds when he met his mother on the road; after he came home a large crowd gathered around the house, and called upon him to come out; they then assailed the house, broke everything in it, and carried off clothing; Martin went out the back way to escape them, and went to the hill side; two children went with him, the family also left the house; next saw Martin on the hill road, took him a pair of boots, and told him not to come back, as the fellows were lurking around, and would catch him; he then left on a horse. This was about four o'clock in the morning.

Cross-examined.—Never lived at Brawdy's; when Martin went to jail I visited him frequently. Am not intimate with the Brawdy's; live in Duquesne borough; went to Brawdy's on the week previous to the occurrence; went up the hill to the pic nic about seven o'clock; the man who brought Martha Brawdy down the hill was not Fagan; I do not know who he was.

Dr. John Dickson testified that after Brawdy's arrest, and while confined in the county jail, he was called upon to attend him. Went to the jail in company with Dr. McCook; Brawdy had two wounds on the head, one on the side of the nose and the other on the forehead; the hemorrhage of the wound on the nose was very severe; it bled for about a week; the wounds appeared to have been inflicted with a knife, but might have been given with a knuckler; such wounds might be made by falling upon a sharp stone, but I have never met with such a case.

Dr. George McCook testified that he was sent for on the 19th of July last to attend upon Brawdy, who was confined in jail; the wound on the nose bled very freely for seven days; succeeded in stopping the hemorrhage; have never known an injury of that kind to result from an ordinary fall; have been a practicing physician for forty-eight years.

Miss Jane Morrison testified that she knew Martin Brawdy, did not know James Fagan; was at the pic nic at M'Clurg's Grove; a young man stepped up to Martin and said: "You got me whipped, and I will have revenge." Martin said he was only in fun, and then asked him to go to the bar and take a drink; witness left them and went to the platform; left the pic nic grounds about eight o'clock, and went to Brawdy's house; Martin had been drinking, but was not intoxicated when I saw him.

Cross-examination.—Reside in the Sixth ward. Am acquainted with the Brawdy family.

Mrs. Margaret Brawdy testified that she was the mother of the defendant; he will be seventeen years old on the 4th of May next; was at home on the evening of the pic nic; about eight o'clock was told by James Morrison that a plot had been made to murder my son; Maggie Manning told me that I had better go after him, as the Dew Drops were going to kill him; could not go, and asked Martha Jane and Maggy Manning to go after him; Maggy Manning came back in a short time and told witness that the crowd was killing Margaret Jane and Mrs. Conneway; witness and her husband then started for the hill; when we got to the end of Rose alley saw Martin running up the street, and overtook us; he called for his father, asked him what he wanted; said the crowd was killing Martha Jane and Nelly on the hill; passed up McClurg street and met a crowd coming down; saw Martha Jane; her eye was blackened and swollen; saw Mrs. Connoway; her face was bloody and her skirts torn; asked Martha Jane who did it; she said "Do not say any thing now;" witness said she would give fifty dollars if she knew who struck her daughter; Martin said it was one of the Dew Drops; a man jumped out and said "I am a Dew Drop; I struck your sister, and can lick you;" as he said this he struck at Martin twice; as he struck the second time some person shot; Martin staggered back as he was struck the second time and exclaimed, "My God, I am killed." The man who struck Martin said, "I am shot;" told Mr. Brawdy to take Martin home, as he was cut; he was then led away; he fell while in the yard, and was carried into the house, and put in his bed, he said he was sick, and believed he would die; after we had done washing his wound, the crowd came running to the house, and broke in; all the family left except Mr. Brawdy, who remained.

Cross-examined—Did not hear Martin ask his father for the pistol; saw Martin struck twice; as he was struck the second time he staggered.

By Mr. Kirkpatrick—Have you ever at any time informed any one, outside of the counsel for the defense, who fired these shots? (Objected to by defendant's counsel, and objection sustained.)

Have talked frequently about the shooting; do not remember who I talked with.

By Mr. Kirkpatrick—Have you not told Martin Christ, within the last ten days, either in the passenger railway cars, or at his house in Birmingham, who did the shooting? Objected to. As it was past the hour of adjournment, the Court reserved its decision on the question until this morning. The court then adjourned.

FACTS WORTH KNOWING.—The Metropolitan Gift Book-store, No. 63 Fifth street, opposite Concert Hall, which has but lately opened in our city, has already taken its place among our first class business enterprises. To sell books at the rate as other book-stores, and at the same time, with each purchase, give an article worth from 50c to $100, certainly requires more than ordinary business tact. An examination of the immense stock of books, bibles and photograph albums, now on hand at the "Metropolitan," will amply repay a visit. Many have already been lucky with their investments. As proof, we give the following: Mr. J. McKeer, with a $1.50 book, received a silver rotary castor; Mr. T. J. Parker, with family bible, an elegant silver card receiver; Mr. John Griffith, with $3.00 photograph album, received as a gift accompanying, a beautiful silver ice pitcher, worth $1,300; Mr. Peter Rutan, with his book, a silver five bottled rotary castor; Miss Hattie Fisher, with the purchase of prayer book, received a silver card-basket; Mrs. Sanford, (Allegheny City,) with copy of Byron's works, a silver cake basket, worth $1,350; Mr. R. G. Duncan, with book, received an elegant silver butter dish, worth $1,000. Many others were fortunate, receiving setts of silver spoons, forks, gold-lined salt castors, goblets, call bells, cups, &c, &c. A handsome present, worth from 50c to $100 accompanies each book sold.

ALBUMS.—Pittock, has received a great supply of Albums, which will make his present stock fully larger than at any other time, since these parlor ornaments were invented, and those wanting them, will now have the advantage of procuring them. Persons will bear this in mind and not forget the place, Pittock's, opposite the Post Office.

U. S. A. GENERAL HOSPITAL, PITTSBURGH, Nov. 11, 1864.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The Post of to-day claims to have a correspondent, Henry McCollough, at this hospital, who writes in regard to some terrible villainy committed by one named Bolen, of the 116th Penn'a. Regiment, from Fayette county, but an inmate of this hospital. Bolen, is charged with having circulated some McClellan comments, with Lincoln tickets enclosed, among Democrats, so that many were deceived and voted the tickets; that some of the boys tried to get hold of Bolen, but he has not shown himself and thinks he had better not.

Now, Mr. Editor, the Post is grossly imposed upon or else has made the matter out of whole cloth. No such man as "Henry McCollough, 55th P. V.," is found on the Register of this hospital, or as being there for any purpose whatever. No votes were cast for Mr. Lincoln through such deception. Bolen was not here on the day of the election at all, nor is he now. There are not now, nor have there been any enraged boys here who would have harmed him, because of such fraud. The few McClellan men here, may well feel insulted at this intimation that they were so ignorant as not to know their own ticket when they saw it. Before the election the Post announced a Democratic meeting, to be held here, and expressed the hope that the officers in charge of the hospital would afford satisfaction, etc. If the Post has manufactured both of these bricks without any straw given it. As to the meeting I cannot learn that it was even talked of by any one here until after it was published in the Post. I would not notice either of these productions were they not calculated to intimate that party politics largely influenced the hospital management, and thereby injured its reputation as a well conducted institution.

RICHARD M. SEAR, Hospital Chaplain.

WANTED A KISS.—Mrs. Ann Padden, a widow, appeared before Alderman Donaldson, on Thursday, and made a complaint against John H. Sanders, charging him with attempting to kiss her. Mrs. Padden alleges that on the morning of the 10th inst. she went into defendant's store, on Smithfield street, to make some purchases, and while there he reached over the counter and endeavored to kiss her. She further states in the information that he would have succeeded in his purpose, but for the timely arrival of another customer. At the hearing of the case Mr. Sanders denied the charge, and entered bail for his appearance at Court.

COL. MOODY ON THE MUSCLE.—Col. Moody, who recently visited this city to discuss politics, had quite an encounter with a noted secessionist not long since. He was returning from Catlettsburg, Ky., and met on the boat a ferocious gentleman, who began to vilify him, and ended by drawing a revolver, with a threat to shoot. In the twinkling of an eye he was pitched into a corner of the boat, and the revolver wrested from his grasp. The Colonel retains the captured property, but expresses a desire to give it up should a manly apology be made.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.—Wm. H. Scott was arrested in Allegheny yesterday, for throwing stones at some colored persons on Water street. One of the stones thrown passed in close proximity to two ladies, who were walking along the street at the time. Mayor Alexander fined him ten dollars and cost, which he paid and was discharged.

Leonard Snyder was arrested on Thursday night for crying the hour, in imitation of the night watch. The Mayor assessed a fine of five dollars upon him, which he payed.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—Chas. McKnight, Esq., proprietor of the Chronicle, has disposed of an interest in that establishment to Mr. Joseph G. Siebenick, who, for several years past, has had charge of the business management of the paper. Mr. Siebenick is a worthy, industrious young man, and we wish him abundant success in his new enterprise.

A LADIES' HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—The ladies of the several Methodist Episcopal churches of Pittsburgh, Allegheny city and vicinity, are requested to meet at the Smithfield church on next Tuesday, November 15, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of organizing a Ladies' Home Missionary Society.

PROF. S. J. WILSON, D.D.—The Dr., by special request, will preach a sermon to-morrow (Sabbath) evening, at 7 o'clock, in his church on Franklin street, 5th ward. Subject: The State of the Soul between Death and the Resurrection.

BONDS APPROVED.—The official bond of Mr. W. W. Clawson, the Coroner elect, was filed in court yesterday. Mr. Clawson will enter upon the discharge of the duties of his new position in a few days.

CARD PHOTOGRAPHS.—Go to Pittocks, opposite the Post Office, and see his new stock. He has at the hour of writing, some 5,000 on hand. Hurry up if you wish to get any.

BOOKS, Magazines and Papers at Pittock's.

POCKET Books and Pocket Albums at Pittock's.

PITTOCK has a few Medals and Pins left.

BALLOU and Harper for December. Call at Pittock's.

THE ELECTION.—Pittsburgh weekly papers can be had at Frank Case's News Depot, in wrappers for mailing as desired.

Central Board of Education.

The Central Board of Education met Thursday evening, November 10th, 1864.

Present—Messrs. Brush, Duncan, Littell, Lowe, M'Auley, Sergeant, Singerly and Negley, President.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The monthly report of the Principal of the High School was received and filed.

The monthly report of the Secretary was received and filed.

Mr. Brush, from the Committee on Teachers and Salaries presented a communication from a Committee of the Pittsburgh Teachers' Union Institute, requesting an increase of the salaries now paid to the teachers of our city schools, accompanied with a statistical table of the salaries paid teachers in the cities of Boston, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Baltimore. Received and filed.

The resolution increasing teachers' salaries ten per cent., during the ensuing three months, was, on motion of Mr. Singerly, postponed until next meeting.

Mr. Littel, from the Committee on Text Books and Grades, reported that Messrs. Ginn and Harrison, agents for Payson, Dunton & Scribner's system of penmanship, had met with the Committee and proposed teaching penmanship in the city schools on condition that their system should be adopted; and that they recommend that the proposition be accepted. On motion the report was received.

Mr. Littell moved that Messrs. Harrison, and Cowley be admitted and requested to explain their respective systems of penmanship. Agreed to.

Mr. Harrison being introduced, explained the system of Payson, Dunton and Scribner, and proposed, if their books should be adopted, to give a sufficient number of lessons in the school, so that all the teachers may be qualified to teach the system.

Mr. Cowley then explained his system, and proposed to teach the teachers of this city at any place they may designate, penmanship, as written in his system, until they understand it thoroughly.

On motion of Mr. M'Auley, the further consideration of the matter was postponed until a special meeting to be held Wednesday, the 16th, inst., at 7 p. m.

The monthly report of the Principal of the Colored School, was received, containing a statement that several colored persons have suggested that a Colored Night School would be well attended.

On motion of Mr. Singerly, the report was received, and the Committee on Colored Schools empowered to open a Night School, if in their opinion, a necessity exists for one.

On motion adjourned.

Musical Novelties.

By reference to advertisement in another column, it will be seen that several interesting musical novelties have been brought to this city by H. Kleber, who has just returned from a visit to the East. In addition to a choice stock of the renowned Steinway Pianos, personally selected for this market, Messrs. Kleber & Bro. will exhibit Piano Fortes on the principle of the violin, with double sounding board, and said to possess a tone similar to that instrument in brilliancy and clearness. Again, a Piano forte with a separate, complete and full toned Melodeon attached thereto, which latter when closed up, is altogether unseen, and leave the piano in its original shape. A new style of Piano of semi circular shape, with only three legs, will be on exhibition. Its appearance is very graceful, and the inventors claim for it more power of tone and far greater durability than is possessed by the ordinary square Piano Forte. All these attractions, added to the unusually large and expressly selected fall stock of Pianos, will, no doubt, attract large crowds of visitors to the ware rooms of the Messrs. Kleber & Bro. during the coming few weeks.

Bishop Simpson in New York.

On Thursday last, at the request of the Young Men's Christian Association, Bishop Simpson repeated, at the Academy of Music in New York, his patriotic address on "The Future of Our Country." Nearly five thousand persons crowded the vast audience-room, which was filled more than an hour before the time of commencing, and many hundreds went away unable to get within the doors. The Bishop was greeted with enthusiastic applause; and the excitement of the audience was kept up to the close of the address, although it occupied two hours and a half in the delivery.

A CHANGE OF BASE.—The well known firm of Patterson & Hay, Allegheny, having secured the room lately occupied by John Brown, jr., corner of Federal street and Diamond, have refitted it in the most tasty manner, and are now prepared to supply their old friends and patrons, as well as the trade generally, with everything desirable in the way of boots, shoes, congress gaiters, balmorals and over shoes. The policy of this firm has always been to purchase nothing but the very best of goods, and in their own manufacturing, to use nothing but the best materials. Hence, any one wishing a good article, cannot fail to obtain it by calling at No. 142, Federal street.

TWENTY-FOUR YEARS HAVE NOW ELAPSED since the introduction of OSGOOD'S INDIAN CHOLAGOGUE in the United States. During this period it has saved the lives and restored the health of thousands, who had become the victims of bilious disease. Have you a sallow complexion, loss of appetite, depression of spirits? Are you a sufferer from Jaundice? Has your liver become inactive and your system deranged by residence in a sickly climate, or traveling through infected localities? Lose no time in procuring the Cholagogue. Its faithful use will move the burden and restore you to health. Sold by all druggists and medicine dealers.

PRISON DISCIPLINE SOCIETY.—In the presentment of the late Grand Jury, which we published in full in our columns, the organization of a Prison Discipline Society was suggested, as a remedy for existing evils in connection with the county jail.

Accordingly, this body, before their separation, appointed the following persons a committee to call a public meeting, when advisable, to take action in reference to the organization of such a society: Wm. Frew, Chairman, (who was foreman of the Grand Jury); Thos. H. Lane, John Hunt, Collin Adams, Wm. Smith, John K. Brown.

SELECT SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.—Mrs. J. E. Bogg's School will open on Tuesday, November 15th, corner of Lacock and Sandusky streets, Allegheny. In connection with this school, a separate department will be opened for the accommodation of small boys. For particulars address the principal, No. 43 Sandusky street, Allegheny.

RECOVERING.—Frank R. Ott, who was wounded during the riot at the Iron City Hotel, on Saturday night last, is recovering, and his physician pronounces him out of danger.

POCKET BOOKS, blank, memorandum and pass books, a full assortment, for sale at low prices at Frank Case's Book and News Depot, Chronicle building.

PHOTOGRAPH albums and diaries for 1865, for sale cheap at Frank Case's Book and News Depot Chronicle building, Fifth street.

GENTS Negligee Shirts, Paper and Linen Collars, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c., at McClelland's Shoe and Auction House, 55 Fifth street.

DIED:

McTIGHE.—On Thursday morning, November the 10th, ANTHONY McTIGHE, in the 47th year of his age.

His friends and the friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend his funeral on SATURDAY MORNING, November 12th, at 9 o'clock a. m., from his late residence, No. 81 Grant street.

WOODS.—The remains of JOSEPH W. WOODS, a Member of Co. F, 102d Penna. Vols, who was killed in the late battle at Cedar Creek, arrived in this city on Wednesday.

The deceased, who was aged twenty-three years and three months, was a son of Mr. Charles Wood, of this city, and had served in the Regiment two years and two months, and upon every occasion in which the Regiment was engaged, or in the performance of duty on the march or in camp, he was alike faithful in the discharge of his duty and was highly complimented by the officers of the Regiment for his bravery, and esteemed by his comrades as a true and faithful friend and soldier.

McCLUSG.—At Alexandria, Va., on Saturday, Oct. 29th, 1864, JOHN McCLUSG, Co. L, 5th Regiment Penna. Heavy Artillery.

The funeral will take place to-morrow (SATURDAY) AFTERNOON, Nov. 12th, at 2 o'clock, from the residence of his mother, Mrs. G. Adams, Lower St. Clair township. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend. Carriages will leave R. Willis' Rooms 4th street, at 1 o'clock.

GALWAY.—On Friday morning at half past one Col. ROBERT GALWAY, in the 75th year of his age.

Funeral, THIS (Saturday) MORNING, at 10 o'clock, from the residence of C. B. Shea, Fayette street near Bidwell street, Allegheny. The friends are invited to attend.

OFFICE AMERICAN MINING COMPANY, Pittsburgh, October 17, 1864.

THE PRESIDENT AND DIRECTORS of the AMERICAN MINING COMPANY have this day levied an assessment of One Dollar per share on the Capital Stock, as the same may be recorded at the close of business on SATURDAY, the 19th day of November next, payable to the Treasurer on WEDNESDAY, the 23d day of November, with interest added after that date. Eastern stockholders will make payment to HENRY A. JOHNSON, Esq., Boston, Mass.

POSTAL MONEY ORDER SYSTEM.

Expenses of the Louisiana State Convention.

&c., &c., &c.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Commercial Advertiser says: The latest returns from the counties in the State, nearly all which are official, show a majority of 83,000 for Lincoln and over 9,000 for Fenton.

The Tribune this p. m. announces the majority for Lincoln at 8486 and that for Fenton at 9,000.

The Commercial Advertiser's Washington special says: General Sherman has started on a daring expedition and may next be heard from near the Atlantic. He has a large and well provided force with good supplies of provisions and ammunition, and the staff of paymasters are amply supplied with funds.

The Times says the postal money order system is working very successfully, and gives promise of a large business.

The Guiding Star arrived this morning from New Orleans.

The New Orleans papers of the 5th make complaint over the expenses of the Louisiana State Convention. The total amount, aside from the pay of members, was $46,000, of which $9,000 were for liquor and cigars.

The Herald's army of the James special says: The impression was a common one throughout the army operating against Richmond, that Lee would order an attack on the day of the election, indulging in the belief that our lines would be weakened and could be penetrated and held by the rebel force. On the contrary the day was exceedingly quiet, and scarcely a gun was fired anywhere throughout the lines, by either side. On the left the cavalry horses were saddled and ready to move at any moment. No alarm occurred. Military matters are represented to be at a stand still, with no prospect of a change.

An advertisement appears in the Columbia, S. C., papers giving the members of the legislature the privilege of paying their bills in produce. The Charleston papers advise the members from Charleston to go to Columbia with a sufficient supply of turkies and chickens to pay their board for the session.

THE NATIONAL SAILOR'S FAIR.

No News from Gen. Sheridan.

PIRATE CHASED BY A GUNBOAT.

The Italian Government and the Empire of Mexico.

CONVENING OF THE REBEL CONGRESS.

&c., &c., &c.

Special Western Associate Press Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The National Sailors Fair opened at Boston on Wednesday evening, and promises great success. A considerable amount has already been realized.

There is no news from Sheridan's army, beyond what has been already telegraphed.

The Herald's Fortress Monroe special, gives additional particulars of the pursuit of a pirate steamer by the gunboat Sassacus. The pirate was twice sighted, and was swiftly followed by the Sassacus, which one time was within two miles of her, when darkness set in, and all advantages gained, were lost.

During the chase, the privateer threw over guns and other weighty matter, supposed to be ammunition and stores. She was steering apparently for Wilmington. When last seen by the Sassacus, on Sunday evening, she was inside the line of blockaders off North Carolina coast. She is supposed to be either the Tallahassee or Olustee, and is probably the same steamer reported by the Osage.

The Herald's Florence letter says: Political considerations have induced the Italian Government to recognize the Empire of Mexico. There are but very few who would not hear with pleasure that the French and Emperor Maximilian have been driven out of Mexico, and its former Government restored.

It is ascertained that the Electric Spark sunk after the prisoners were sent away, and not run into the cove as reported.

The rebel Congress has convened, and the following Senators have answered to their names: Barnwell, Orr, South Carolina; D. Graham, N. C.; B. H. Hill, Ga.; H. Caperton, Va.; S. Barrow, La.; Maxwell, Fla.; Johnson, Mo., and S. Simms, Ky.

The Herald's Washington special says: Hon. Robt. Walker has arrived. He has as yet no official information of the desire of the Government to assume charge of the Treasury portfolio. No doubt is entertained that Mr. Walker's return is precursory to his introduction to the Treasury Department. He has expressed the opinion that our finances can be so managed as to bring our currency nearer to par than it has been during the war.

Among other things recaptured on the Florida, was an official copy of a vote of thanks by Congress to Lieut. Col. Joseph Bailey, Acting Engineer of the 19th army corps for his skill and services in rescuing the flotilla from Red river, on Gen. Banks' expedition, which was taken by the Florida from the Electric Spark, captured on her passage to New Orleans last summer.

The President's Message was received and read; also the proceedings of the recent meeting of rebel Governors in the House. Sixty-two members were present. Among them were Wilkes, Bread, Clark, Conrow, Vest, and Hatchey of Missouri; Machen, Triplett, Read, Ewing, Christman, Barnett, H. W. Bruce, E. M. Bruce, Marshall, Moore. Bills to raise additional forces for the rebel armies, one to abolish promotion by seniority, and to make merit the basis more. Both were referred to the Military Committee.

The resolution offered by Murray, of Tenn., declaring that the Confederate States will give neither sympathy nor aid to the establishment of a monarchy in Mexico was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. Swan, of Tenn., offered a resolution declaring that no exigency exists or is likely to occur requiring the placing of negroes in the army. He also introduced a resolution to recall all commissioners from foreign nations. The discussion upon the resolution was brief.

Mr. Miles, of S. C., opposed the proposition to arm slaves.

Foote, of Miss., favored it, but said he desired waiting the decision of the enemy on the question of employing negroes. This decision would appear in the result of the present election. If Lincoln was elected he would favor giving the President full power to employ slaves. He was ready for the black flag, or anything, before submission.

The bill to raise more men for the rebel army places all resident white males, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five in the army, revokes all exemptions and details, and authorizes the President to make details when necessary.

Nothing else of importance occurred before the adjournment.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S ANNUAL MESSAGE.

It will Recommend an Abolishment of Slavery in Every State.

RUMORED CHANGE OF CABINET OFFICERS.

Special Western Associate Press Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A Washington dispatch to the Commercial Advertiser says: The President has already commenced the preparation of his message. An abstract of the reports of various bureaus has been furnished him. Nothing has transpired respecting the views it will take, but it is understood the President will recommend the enactment of a law abolishing slavery everywhere in the United States immediately and forever. It is rumored there will be a change in the Cabinet before the next session of Congress.

If Mr. Fessenden is re-elected Senator a new Secretary of the Treasury must be selected, and possibly after changes may be made. Among these may be the removal of Mr. Stanton.

Reported Attack on Morganzea.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 11.—A gentleman in this city pronounces the attack on Morganzea, and the capture of 19,00 prisoners, as reported by the N. Y. World's, correspondent, as false. He was at Morganzea a few days after the reported capture should have occurred, and heard nothing of it, and the steamer from New Orleans as late as the 1st instant, brings no such report.

THE ENEMY ROUTED IN EAST TENNESSEE.

They are Driven Forty-four Miles.

GOVERNMENT PROPERTY DESTROYED AT JOHNSONVILLE EXAGGERATED.

East Tennessee Unanimous for Lincoln.

GOOD NEWS SOON EXPECTED

NASHVILLE, Nov. 10.—Gen. Gillem has utterly routed the enemy in East Tennessee, driving him in great confusion forty-four miles. The advance is ninety miles east. The rebels are at Bristol, being strengthened by Virginia militia.

The reports concerning the destruction of Government property, at Johnsonville, is greatly exaggerated. No apprehensions are entertained in regard to its safety.

The destruction of Government and private property on the river is complete, involving immense loss.

The election in East Tenn was unanimous for Lincoln.

The following is the vote of the Ohio and Pennsylvania soldiers at Atlanta: Pennsylvania soldiers, Lincoln, 1273; McClellan, 389. Ohio soldiers, Lincoln, 910; McClellan, 236.

Our entire railroad and telegraphic communications are complete and secure.

Hood's exact whereabouts is known to the authorities.

The Federal movements will be developed at the proper time, and will electrify the nation.

FROM THE POTOMAC ARMY.

GENERAL ORDER ISSUED.

Special Western Associate Press Dispatch.

HDS. QRS. ARMY OF POTOMAC, November 10, 1864.

The following order has been issued from these headquarters:

1st. That the 8th New York Heavy Artillery, the 164th New York Vols. and the 36th Wisconsin Vols, having been reported showing distinguished bravery during the engagement of October, 1864, on Hatcher's Run, takes pleasure in restoring to those gallant regiments the right to carry the colors of which they were deprived, by his general order, No. 37, of September 22d, 1864.

2d. It having been reported to the Major General Commanding, that the colors of the following mentioned regiments recently lost in battle, were lost under circumstances that reflected no dishonor upon those regiments but they are hereby permitted to carry other colors, viz: 9th New Hampshire Vols., 57th New York Vols., 45th Pennsylvania Vols. and 105th Pennsylvania Vols. By command of

Maj. Gen. MEADE.

QUOTATIONS OF GOLD.

Resignation of Gen. McClellan.

REBEL SECRETARY OF TREASURY REPORT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Gold has advanced from the decline last night, opening at 243, and afterwards going down to 239½. The fluctuations are attributed to speculative operations.

The Commercial Advertiser's Washington special insists that Gen. McClellan has resigned his commission in the army, and that the resignation was received at the War Department yesterday. His letter is brief.

The report of the rebel Secretary of the Treasury is very doleful. He says he can only obtain $135 in currency, equal to $6 in specie, for $1,600 Confederate bonds.

New York Gold and Stock Market.

Special Western Associated Press Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The stock market is more buoyant than yesterday, after sales to realize profits there is again a disposition to buy! Prices are slightly better. Outsiders coming into market operate cautiously, declining long ventures. Brokers are cautious in offer of margins, which checks the speculation of outsiders: Goods continue firm; especially 5 20's for which purchases are being made on foreign account; Railroad bonds and bank stock more active and quite firm: There were large transactions in Erie, Michigan Southern and Rock Island: Gold advanced from the decline of last night, opening at 243, and afterwards touching 234½. The usual speculative irregularity wholly accounts for changes in quotations, there being no outside causes effecting the market. The money market is without material change: There is a good demand for stock speculation and considerable activity in gold stocks: Some extraordinary samples of gold have been shown, from Canada East, one specimen weighing nearly a pound.

The Election in Illinois.

CHICAGO, Nov 11—The reported majorities in 81 counties give Lincoln 48,341 and McClellan 14,812, with some democratic counties to hear from. Republican members of Congress have been elected in the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th Districts. The 9th, 10th and 11th Districts elect Democrats. The 12th and 13th are yet in doubt. Mr. Moulton, Republican candidate at large is elected. The Times Springfield correspondent says that the Republicans have a majority of one in the Senate and nine in the House.

Ohio Soldier's Vote.

CINCINNATI Nov. 12.—The Soldier's vote has elected Delano, Union to Congress in the thirteenth District of Ohio. This gives the Union party seventeen out of nineteen Congressmen.

Home Vote of Pennsylvania.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 11—A careful estimate was made here on the basis of the October election, which places the State on the home vote at between 4000 and 5000.

Arming Southern Negroes.

The Southern newspapers do not keep up a very free discussion of the question of converting the slaves into soldiers. It is a delicate and ticklish subject, and perhaps the Government at Richmond does not allow it to be talked about in a very open way, until its decision concerning it is made. But that there is some agitation of the question is shown by the following, which we find in the advertising columns of the Richmond Examiner of November 5th:

"AN ANONYMOUS CARD.—It is bad policy in a slaveholding country, of a mixed population of whites and blacks, to have a law for inflicting stripes on a white person for any offence. The reason is that the lash is the most suitable punishment for the negro, and to subject the white man to the lash is to reduce him to a level with the negro. Yet, there is one offence for which, it seems to me, a white man, as the only conceivable exception to that most manifest general rule might, with toleration, be subjected to stripes. That offence is an expressed willingness by any man to put the able bodied negroes in these States in the army as soldiers armed and drilled. I would vote for a law to subject such a white man to stripes on his naked back. "PUBLIUS."

Here we have one specimen of "the chivalry," who ventures anonymously to advertise his views on the proposed arming of the negroes. He considers those who advocate it as deserving of a more ignominious punishment than is inflicted for any other crime. There are a good many people at the South who think like him, and it will only be under a feeling of absolute necessity that the Richmond authorities will ever consent to arm their negroes. The unpopularity of the measure, and the fear that during or after the war the trained negro soldiers, who have been made free, will turn upon their masters, must make them hesitate about resorting to such a measure. But the South is getting exhausted of white fighting men, and now that the reelection of President Lincoln shows the determination of the North to carry on the war, it will soon be compelled to arm its negroes or give up the contest. The Richmond gentleman who wants those who suggest it tied up to the whipping post and lashed, will probably have to begin with Jefferson Davis.—Phila Eve Bulletin.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

The river rose considerably during Thursday night and yesterday and was still rising slowly last evening, with full eleven feet in the channel by the pier marks. The weather continues cool but pleasant, and all that could possibly be desired for out-door operations.

There was considerable activity manifested at the landing yesterday, and with usually large receipts, there was also a decided improvement in the shipments.

The arrivals include the Minerva from Wheeling; Julia, from Zanesville; Golden Era, and Jonas Powell, from Portsmouth, and the Wm Butler, from Cincinnati. The Golden Era and Powell were loaded principally with pig metal—the former having brought up 325 tons.

The Minerva cleared for Wheeling, on time, and the Jonas Powell was getting ready to leave last evening for Portsmouth. The Ina Ross and Echo both left for Oil City, with fair trips.

The "Champion," Capt. Frank Marratta's new packet, is about finished, and will probably be hauled up to the landing to-day.

There are several boats due from below, and among others the Glide and Anna may be expected to-day.

The Onward, in command of Capt James Mellon, will positively leave for Cincinnati and Louisville this evening. She has excellent accommodations for passengers, and is in charge of careful and gentlemanly officers.

The Armenia, Capt. A. C. McCallum, is filling up rapidly for St. Louis, and will be the first boat to leave for that point.

The Wm. Butler, as will be seen by card is announced to leave for Cincinnati to-day without fail, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. Messrs. James Collins, Co. are her agents.

The new iron boat Tamaulipas, Captain Brown, is announced to leave for New Orleans, and all intermediate points this evening.

The new steamer Aleck Speer, Captain Richmond is advertised to leave for Nashville on Wednesday next.

The Julia, Captain Wm. Coulson, is the regular packet for Zanesville to day, leaving at 4 p. m.

The Louisville Press learns from Colonel Hay, who had arrived there from Johnsonville, that the destruction of the steamboats on the Tennessee river at Johnsonville was complete, together with several thousand tons of freight, including the lower or warehouse, and all the freight on the wharf in the vicinity of the burning boats. The boats destroyed were the Arcola, J. H. Doane, No. 2, Mountaineer, Aurora, Venus, Duke, Goody Friends, and J. B. Ford, all transports, together with the gunboats No. 29, No. 32, and No. 32. The rebels had already captured the J. W. Cheeseman, and another gunboat, the Undine, and the latter was destroyed by them. The boats were all burnt on Friday, as the rebels had completely blockaded the river both above and below the boats, and as the gunboats could not run the gauntlet of the batteries, it was folly for the transports to attempt.

Some 200 tons of the freight of the Arcola and the J. H. Doane were saved, as well as the new warehouse above the railroad. General Schofield, with ample reinforcements, had reached Johnsonville on Saturday, and the place was safe. The rebels had three batteries of 20-pound Parrots planted on the other side of the river, opposite Johnsonville, and several heavy batteries above and below that point.

A couple of the Cheeseman's deck hands arrived at Cincinnati on Monday. They report that the rebels burned the Cheeseman, after she was captured, but paroled Captain Thad. Wirthlin, who had his wife and daughter with him. The balance of the crew were "pressed" on one of the gunboats, when the rebels, fearing that our strongly congregating forces would recapture the gunboat, removed the crew and blew up the boat. The two deck hands escaped during the excitement, while the balance of the crew were prisoners at last accounts.

MEDICAL.

DR. LIGHTHILL, OF THE FIRM OF DRS. LIGHTHILL, 34 St. Mark's Place, New York, IS NOW IN PITTSBURGH, AND WILL REMAIN AT THE St. Charles Hotel, Where he can be consulted until Saturday Evening, November 12th, ON DEAFNESS, CATARRH, Discharges from the Ear, NOISES IN THE HEAD, AND ALL THE VARIOUS ACUTE AND CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE EAR AND THROAT.

DR. LIGHTHILL

Is induced to make this visit on account of numerous applications from parties residing in Pittsburgh and vicinity, who are unable to come to New York for the indispensable personal examination rendered necessary from the impossibility of prescribing with benefit to the patient without it.

DR LIGHTHILL will revisit Pittsburgh at regular intervals, according to the requirements of the patients under his charge. The business in New York does not suffer any interruption from this visit, as one of the firm is there in constant attendance.

TESTIMONIALS.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Nov. 5, 1864.
This will certify that I have been under the care of Dr. Lighthill for the cure of Catarrh, and that, although he has attended me for a little over one week, I feel that a permanent cure is to be effected, and am so much better in all respects as to warrant me in giving publicity to these facts and recommending Dr. Lighthill to any one affected with Catarrh.
JACOB FORSYTH, Forsyth Bros. & Co., 74 Water street.

[From the Home Journal, June 4th.]
In every business of profession, indeed in every department of science or skill, there is always some acknowledged head—some one who stands out in bold relief among his fellows, as a sort of leader. In the study and treatment of deafness and catarrh, as special diseases, Dr. E. B. LIGHTHILL, of this city, occupies just the position above described. He has devoted years of labor to this speciality, and is now reaping the reward of his industry. The editorial column of the Tribune, of a recent date, bear witness to the Doctor's success in this department of medicine. We quote the paragraph:
"CURE OF A DEAF MUTE.—Louis Loewingstein, aged fourteen years of age, born in Germany, came to this city when he was about two years old. Soon after arriving here he was taken sick and lost his hearing. By degrees he became first deaf and then dumb. For nearly ten years he was a mute, unable to hear the loudest voice, or to articulate a word. About one year ago he was placed by his parents in the hands of Dr. LIGHTHILL, who has so far succeeded in restoring to him his lost powers of hearing and utterance that he can converse with those who speak to him distinctly and deliberately. During the past four or five months he has been under the tuition of Mr. Bannecke, and has made considerable progress in reading and arithmetic."
Having been supplied with the lad's address, we further investigated the matter, and discovered that previous to calling on Dr. Lighthill, the youth's case was considered hopeless, and he was for two years an inmate of a Deaf and Dumb Asylum. The Rev. John Nott, D. D., Professor in Union College, Schenectady, in a published letter, tenders his gratitude to Dr. Lighthill for treating successfully his case of deafness. Rev. Fred. S. Jewell, Professor of the State Normal School at Albany, also testifies to having been cured of catarrh. Dr. Lighthill possesses other testimonials and tributes to his talent from some of the wealthiest and most prominent and respected citizens, which may be seen on application. It would be difficult to speak in any but terms of praise of his treatment, in the face of these many proofs and facts testifying to his success.

From Rev. Fred. S. Jewell, Professor of the State Normal School, Albany, New York.
DR. SIR: Under date of March 14, I sent you a careful statement of my case, its former treatment, my failure to obtain relief in that direction, my resort to your treatment and its beneficial results.
I have been from, the Winter of the year 1844, subject to violent periodical attacks of Catarrh, marked by strong forcible symptoms, violent inflammation of the lining membrane of the cavities of the head, accompanied in the first stages, by a watery discharge from the nose, subsequently becoming acrid and yellow, and toward the close of the attack, purulent and bloody. These attacks produced a most distressing species of headache, occurring periodically each day for a period varying from one to three weeks, sometimes so violent as to incapacitate me for business and confine me to my bed. At times the attendant inflammation would extend to the teeth, producing toothache; or to the throat, occasioning hoarseness and partial loss of voice; and twice within the last few years it has so effected the left eye as to confine me, for weeks, to a darkened room.
I had tried medicines and applications of various kinds, snuffs and other catarrhal preparations of some half a dozen kinds; applications to the head of camphor, ginger and hot combinations of different kinds; and in connection with these the usual emetics or cathartics employed to induce counter action. But none of these had produced any permanent improvement, and these few instances in which temporal relief was afforded it was the expense of so much strength as to leave me greatly exhausted. Under these circumstances I was led, though with reluctance, from the supposed incurability of the disease, to make a trial of your treatment. I found it soon beyond even my hopes, reaching the disease as it had never been reached before, and alleviating its symptoms to an extent which I had supposed impossible. At the time I gave you my former certificate, while I did not feel assured of a complete cure, I had obtained a material relief which amply repaid me for my trial of your treatment, and which satisfied me that that treatment was as effective as it was simple and philosophical. A substantial escape from my old attacks of catarrh, for the unprecedented period of nearly half a year, and that in spite of severe occurrences of illness which would have formerly rendered such an attack inevitable, was, to me, proof of an important success. It is now six months since I sent you that statement, and while it is unpleasant to appear thus constantly, and in this guise, before the public, it seems to me a matter of simple justice to yourself and to those who may be suffering as I was, to add that I am not only as fully satisfied as to the utility and efficacy of your method of treating catarrh as I was six months ago, but I am now of the belief that if there is such a thing as a cure for chronic catarrh, in my case a substantial cure has been effected.
Yours, respectfully, FREDERICK S. JEWELL.
ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 1, 1864.

ALBANY, Jan. 25th, 1864.
DR. LIGHTHILL:—It is with great satisfaction that I communicate to you the effects of the medicines you gave me, on my application to you, for defective hearing. I followed your directions, and am happy to state that I am now so far recovered after the first few applications as to feel quite confident that I am well and shall not need to proceed further.
Be assured, my dear sir, if necessity should require, I should not hesitate to place myself under your magic hands. Yours with respect,
D. B. COLE, Albion, Orleans county, N. Y.
