The Pittsburgh Gazette.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.....NOV. 16, 1864.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

McClelland's Auction House.

Among the numerous mercantile establishments of our city, we know of none more flourishing nor more useful to the community, than the Auction House of our enterprising and indefatigable friend, Thos. A. McCLELLAND, No. 55 Fifth street. Four years only have elapsed since he embarked in business, but during that time he has succeeded in securing an immense run of custom. Merchants from the country visiting the city to procure goods, appear to consider that their mission will be unsuccessful if they neglect to call at 55 Fifth street, and examine the large stock of goods with which the capacious shelves are always provided. His transactions being upon the ready cash basis, (the truly economical and only advantageous manner of conducting business,) he can afford to dispose of his stock without taxing the honorable and honest purchaser to make up losses entailed through others less scrupulous. In an establishment where business is conducted in this manner, purchases can be made without fear of being charged exorbitant prices.

Mr. McClelland has just arrived from the Eastern cities, where he has purchased an unusual large stock, and is now dispensing of it at prices which cannot fail to please his customers. His assortment in the boot and shoe line embraces every style heretofore introduced in this city, together with many new and beautiful patterns. His assortment of dry goods, comprises all articles sold in houses which make this branch a specialty, and as the purchases were effected during the money panic, he can afford to sell at one and one cent is a sufficient profit. "Quick sales and small profits" is the motto of McClelland's Auction House, and parties visiting it will be convinced of the truth of our assertions. Remember 55 Fifth street.

Union Jollification in Manchester.

Last evening the Union citizens of Manchester celebrated the glorious victories achieved at the ballot box by a grand jubilee. At seven o'clock, a large meeting convened at the Union Headquarters, and was organized by Wm. B. Rose, Esq., taking the chair. After stating the object of the meeting, the President introduced Capt. Bruce Murray, who delivered a patriotic and spirited address, which was received with great applause. Mr. John B. Kennedy also made a few excellent and well timed remarks. Prof. Cairns, by request, then sang, "Rally Round the Flag, Boys," the audience joining in the chorus.

At this stage of proceedings the audience formed in procession and marched to the School House, where a sumptuous entertainment had been provided, and to which ample justice was done. The company then adjourned to another room, where speeches were delivered by Messrs. Nelson, Macbrell, and others. The proceedings throughout were extremely harmonious, and everything passed off pleasantly.

Death of a Pittsburgher.

A correspondent writing from the army, makes the following mention of the death of a Pittsburgh soldier, a member of the First Pennsylvania Cavalry:

"A very sad affair occurred yesterday in the shooting, by guerrillas, of one of our best men. He was watching his horse, and in the vicinity of the picket line, when three men, armed with six shooters, appeared from the woods and demanded him to surrender, adding that if he did so he would not be hurt. He complied at once to their request, and was shot in the side. He died from the effects of the wound in a few hours afterwards. His name was John Brown, of Greensburg, First Pa. Cavalry. He was an exemplary soldier, and respected by every one that knew him. Before his death he stated that he had friends living in Pittsburgh, and if any of them should see this and desire information concerning him, they can obtain it by addressing a line to the writer or to Capt. T. U. McGregor, Co. L, First Pa. Cavalry, Washington, D. C."

Complimentary Supper.

Last evening the officers and attaches of the Enrolment Board of the 23d District, together with a number of special guests, upon invitation of Josiah Copley, Esq., Commissioner of the Board, partook of a splendid supper at the new Dining Saloon of Mr. K. Blair, corner of Federal street and Stockton avenue, Allegheny. The table was most tastefully prepared and bountifully supplied, and the feast was enjoyed by all with a peculiar zest. It will be remembered that Mr. Copley was recently made the recipient of a costly gold-headed cane, by the officers and others in the Provost Marshal's office, and the supper was gotten up in acknowledgment of that compliment. The occasion was one of the most pleasing and agreeable character, and was creditable alike to Mr. Copley and the excellent caterer whose services he called into requisition on this occasion.

The Miniature Monitor.

Our readers doubtless recollect the miniature monitor exhibited at the late Sanitary Fair, here and the interest it created. It is now in Boston, and promises to be a great feature of the Fair shortly to be held in that city. Alluding to it the Transcript says:—"This curious little work was executed at the great establishment of Charles Knap, Esq., of Pittsburgh, under the superintendence of his foreman, Mr. Joseph Reis. It was, we believe, originally constructed for exhibition at some of the Western fairs held in aid of the Sanitary Commission. At the Pittsburgh exhibition it netted about $10,000 for that object. It was then purchased by Charles Knap, Esq., and presented to Capt. Chas. H. Wise, Chief of the Bureau of the Naval Ordnance, to be exhibited for the benefit of the Sailor's Fair in Boston."

Disorderly Conduct.

Nancy Dunniddy, a character well-known to the Allegheny police, was arrested yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct. The complainant, Mrs. Isabella Brady, alleged, at the hearing of the case, that Nancy visited her house, in Gay alley, Allegheny, and acted in a most outrageous manner, greatly annoying her son, who is an invalid. The Mayor adjudged guilty, and imposed a fine of ten dollars and costs upon her, but not being able to raise the amount, she was committed to jail for ten days. A witness in the case, Samuel Davis, was arrested by the police on a charge of being a deserter from the army, and handed over to Provost Marshal Ecker, but as the charge could not be sustained, he was released.

THEATER.—Mr. and Miss Buchanan are attracting immense audiences, composed of the elite and fashion of our city. Their acting is chaste, finished and forcible, proving to us conclusively, that in England, Australia and America, they had a right to the title of being among the great artists of the age. To-night they appear in a new version of Schiller's grand romantic tragedy of The Robbers, or the Parricide's Doom, arranged and adapted by Mr. Buchanan.

CAVALRY HORSES.—Horses suitable for cheese are exceedingly scarce just now, and we learn that the contractors for the army find it impossible to supply enough of the right kind at the prices now allowed. The country around here has been completely cleaned out, and horses of the kind wanted, are not to be had at any price. Seventy five dollars was the standard price for cavalry horses the first year of the war, but the beginning of the next year will probably see it $125.

SEMINARY ENDOWMENT.—A meeting will be held in the Second U. P. Church, Allegheny, on next Sunday evening, the 20th inst., at seven o'clock, for the purpose of furthering the endowment of the Seminary. The ministers and members of the churches in Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity are respectfully invited to be present.

Book Notices.

"TWICE-TOLD TALES." By Nathaniel Hawthorne. A New Edition. One plate in 2 vols. Boston: Ticknor & Fields.

The lovers of good and pleasant reading will hail this edition with delight. It is in blue and gold, and just the right size to carry in the pocket. The volumes form so neat and attractive that they almost make the mouth water to look at them.

There is no need to praise Hawthorne. His reputation as an author is established. "The Twice-told Tales" have always been favorites with the reading public and will ever remain so. We know of no books containing pleasanter reading.

The present edition contains the "Snow Image," and all the fugitive pieces of the author known under the general name of "Twice-told Tales."

"FAMILIAR LETTERS FROM EUROPE." By C. C. Felton, late President of Harvard University. Boston: Ticknor & Fields.

Prof. Felton, in this volume, has his views on his impressions of Europe, not in the ambitious style of most travelers, but in the off-hand familiar way which any educated man would use in writing to a friend. The book is made up of letters, and gives his experience of travel, what he saw, and how he felt, in the most agreeable, chit-chat-ish manner. It is a volume, notwithstanding, replete with thought, and shows us Europe as it appears to one of the foremost of our educated men. It must prove a popular work.

"THE GENIUS OF THE DAVIS'S DEEN. A story of Hedge-side life in England in the year 1855. Boston: Ticknor & Fields.

This is a reprint of an Hegira work, which has attracted much attention in England. The author says that although the characters, landlords and actors represented in it are for the most part fictitious, the book may be accepted as a literal relics of rayside life in England. He tells us, in the preface, that he spent two years, living in bank, among the Gypsies of Yorkshire, and thus got his insight into Gypsy life. Borrow gave us something of the same kind before, but this is a much more thorough work than any of Borrow's, and has high literary merit as a novel. The plot and its incidents are exciting, and the reader will peruse the book with deep interest.

"LOVE AND PUTT." By Mrs. Hubbach. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Bros. 1 Vol. Paper covers. Price $1 50.

Mrs. Hubbach is a popular authoress, and in her previous works has earned an excellent reputation which she maintains in this volume. The characters of the story are kept sustained with great power and truthfulness, and the book must not be classed among the trashy novels of the day. The lovers of light reading will find it an attractive and interesting work, and worthy of their approval.

All of the foregoing works for sale by Henry Miner, Fifth st., next door to Post Office.

UNCLE HAY; or Dealings with Governed Frank had. By Alfred Old Fellow. New York. D. Appleton & Co.

This is a book for children exclusively, and is written by one who knows how to write for the young. It is not flashy, sensational, or exciting; but is a genial story of a pleasant trip to the country, and boys will find it a most entertaining and instructive volume.

For sale by Davis, Clark & Co., Wood st.

THE LATEST NEWS
BY TELEGRAPH.

SECRETARY STANTON APPOINTED CHIEF JUSTICE.

Gen. Banks to be Secretary of War.

EUROPEAN INTELLIGENCE.

The Arrest of Jacobs, of Kentucky.

ARRIVAL OF THE PRIZE STEAMER LUCY.

The Will of A. J. Butler.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—A dispatch to the Postmaster (Kelley) was posted on the Postoffice bulletin last night announcing the appointment of Secretary Stanton to the vacant Chief Justiceship, and the appointment of Gen. Banks to the War Department. No confirmation of the news has been received from any other quarter.

The London Morning Post says: According to accounts from the continent an idea of a European Congress is again on the tapis. The principal object is stated to be the question of Rome and Italy. France, Russia and Prussia have agreed upon the subject. Emperor Napoleon calculates on the adhesion of Italy and King Leopold of Belgium. It is reported he has nearly overcome the objections of England and Austria. Should all this be accomplished a general disagreement will be the result of a Congress and secure the peace of Europe.

The Post's Washington letter says that the arrest of Lieut. Gov. Jacobs, of Kentucky, will lead to important discoveries. There are rumors of a wide spread conspiracy in that State, not to take it over to the rebel Confederacy, but to inaugurate a second revolution, the object of which is to make Kentucky independant of the the General Government.

The prize steamer Lucy, which arrived and was announced this afternoon, was captured 160 miles off Wilmington by the gunboat, Santiago De Cuba, after a chase of an hour and a half, during which she threw overboard fifty-four bales of cotton. The vessel is a side-wheel steamer, built of iron, 215 feet long, 30 feet beam, 192 tons burthen, one year old. This was her tenth blockade-running trip.

The will of A. J. Butler was admitted to probate yesterday. It is estimated that $300,000 is given to Gen. Butler. The attachment asked for by New Orleans bankers was granted.

THE REBEL PIRATE FLORIDA.

Capt. Collins to be Sustained,

SECRETARY STANTON STILL INDISPOSED.

Illness of Maj. Gen. Meigs.

RUMORED EVAUOATION OF PETERSBURG

&c., &c., &c.

Special Western Associated Press Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Tribune has the following Washington special: The action of Capt. Collins, in the capture of the Florida, will be sustained by the Government. Foreign powers may designate these pirates as belligerents, but the United States will take the position that to be such they must belong to some recognized and organized government.

Rhett commanded a great battery at Fort Sumter, and all the fugitive pieces of the author known under the general name of "Twice-told Tales."

Sir Edward Thornton, the British Minister, has left Washington on a visit to Canada.

Major Anderson, Brazilian Minister of Foreign Affairs, confesses that the Alabama had her orders and recruitments upon islands which were dependencies of Brazil.

Gen. Wessels received orders to relieve Gen. Hoffman from the general care of prisoners. Gen. Wessels is to have charge of all prisoners east of the Mississippi. Gen. Hoffman is ordered to the West, and will have charge of all prisoners West of the Mississippi.

Secretary Stanton is still unable to be at the War Office.

Maj. Gen. Meigs is also confined to his house by indisposition.

A rumor from the army of the Potomac, pretty well authenticated, says that the rebels are about evacuating Petersburg.

The greatest interest attaches to Sherman's movement. The last news from him is looked for via Richmond.

PEACE RUMORS IN NEW YORK.

GEN. BUTLER'S SPEECH.

Meeting of the Leading Men of Georgia.

SHERMAN'S GRAND MOVEMENT.

Rumored Capture of Augusta.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Express has the following: There have been mysterious rumors of peace lately, on the street, and the speech of General Butler, last evening, is regarded as very significant.

In some quarters there is really romething on foot. The movements of Sherman's army is supposed to have something to do with it. The Virginia Legislature.

Some time since, there was a convivial in Macon of the leading men of Georgia, including Gov. Brown, and Vice President Stevens, at which an embassador was sent to Washington. This gentleman was authorized to assure the President that Georgia would secede from the Confederacy if Sherman would march through Georgia and take possession of Charleston and Savannah. The response of Mr. Lincoln to this request, about three weeks since, was, that he was not going to ready to visit Georgia before the election. It is contended that this is the real secret of Sherman's movements, and that is done with a view of not only bringing back Georgia, but North Carolina and Alabama. In connection with this, it is rumored on the streets this afternoon that Augusta had been captured.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

Another Movement in Contemplation.

GEN. BUTLER AGAIN TO TAKE THE FIELD.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Commercial's Washington special says: From the fact that officers and soldiers on furloughs were expected yesterday, it is thought Grant contemplates another movement in a few days. The object is to make another effort before going into winter quarters, which, however, will depend on Sherman's movements.

At the entertainment given Gen. Butler at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last evening, he announced that he would leave for his army in the field today. In his speech he urged that the olive branch be once more extended to the rebels, and if again refused, he said a steady, vigorous war, and thought that the bounties given to our soldiers should consist of the lands conquered from the rebels, which should be equally divided, and their owners driven from the country forever.

THE PIRATE FLORIDA SEIZURE.

Rumored Cabinet Changes Unfounded.

GOLD QUOTATIONS AT GALLAGHER'S BOARD.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The subject of the seizure of the Florida, in the harbor of Bahia, has not been presented to the United States Government by that of Brazil.

After careful inquiry it is ascertained that there is nothing whatever to sustain the reported rumors and assertions of cabinet changes. The indications are directly contrary. This statement, however, excludes Secretary Fessenden, who it is known merely accepted the post tion at the head of the Treasury Department for the Congressional recess. Reports continue to prevail that Robert J. Walker will be his successor.

Gold closed at Gallagher's board at 236¾.

Raiders of St. Albans.

MONTREAL, Nov. 15.—The rebel raiders are making voluntary statements to the court, boasting of their exploits, and bragging that their government will avenge them. Efforts are being made to secure a delay of thirty days in order to get instructions from Richmond.

The Fenian Brotherhood—Probable Action on Canada.

TORONTO, Nov. 15.—In the meeting of the City Council last night it transpired that information had been received of an intended demonstration on Canada by the members of the Fenian Brotherhood from the United States. The Mayor said that this information had been handed over to the government.

McClellan's Resignation Accepted by the President

TO DATE FROM NOVEMBER EIGHTH.

Gen. Phil. Sheridan his Successor

FROM THE ARMY OF THE JAMES.

&c., &c., &c.

Special Western Associate Press Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The World's Washington special says: The resignation of Gen. McClellan was to day formally accepted by the President, to date from the 8th inst., as Major General in the regular army. General Phil. Sheridan was appointed Maj. General in the regular army to fill the vacancy thus occasioned, his commission to date from the 8th inst. Sheridan was but Captain in the regular service before his promotion to-day.

The Tribune's Army of the James special of the 13th inst. says that Butler's canal excavation is of sufficient depth at low water mark to float the largest gunboats necessary in siege operations to be carried on. Higher up the river, five hundred and five cubic yards of earth, most of it of dark blue clay, and very difficult to remove, have been excavated by manual process alone. A steam-dredge has been engaged in removing deposits from the bed of the canal, and widening its mouth. Work equal to fifty tons per day has been done under almost the incessant shelling of the rebel batteries. Fifty to one hundred men have been employed in the work from time to time. The present force is about 200, all colored. The entire work is expected to be completed before December. Maj. Baldwin is in charge of the military excavating force, and Maj. Leehi in charge of the engineering force.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The steamer Australasian, with dates from Liverpool to the 5th of November and Queenstown to the 6th, has arrived. The following is a summary of her news:

The Fern remains on the sands below Liverpool. She is broken in two, and there is only a small chance of raising her.

The Morning Star admits, if facts are as stated, that a great outrage of International law was committed in the seizure of the Florida, but says the matter rests with the Brazilian government and is not a question that England can touch even with the longest pocket diplomatic rule.

The steamer Sacramento left Southampton on November 2d.

The Richmond correspondent of the London Times, writing under date of Oct. 8th, gives a gloomy picture of the Confederate position. He says Lee's army is almost worn out. There was many a panic in Richmond, when Grant thrashed an attack on the 30th of September, as Lee was only a handful of men to resist it. He thinks if Sherman establishes himself in Georgia, there will be reason for apprehension about Richmond during the winter, the like of which was never existed before.

It is reported that Drouyn de l'Huys will retire from the French Ministry, and be succeeded by Prince de La Tour D'Auvergne.

The Bank of France has reduced its rate of discount to seven weekly returns, showing increased cash to the amount of one and three-quarter millions of francs.

The Danish Government has indicted M. De Bille, editor of the Dagbladet, for high treason, on account of an article on the King's hereditary rights.

There is nothing additional from Calcutta.

Great anxiety is felt for details, among the shipping interest, of the success of the allies at Japan. It has been confirmed that Sir Rutherford Alcock and combined three field companies for defence, one of which is be armed by its members, with first class repeating rifles. Companies were also promptly organized to-day, in Greenwich, Westminster, and Merceerwille, and all of them will be completely armed to-morrow.

The border people are fully prepared for plundering raids, and they will make short work of any guerrillas who may fall into their hands.

New York Gold and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The gold market is very dull. There is no speculative movement, and in the absence of the late brisk export demand the price declined. The market opened at 244¾, dropped to 238¾, and rallied to 240¾. At 3:30 p. m. it was 238¾, and weak.

The feeling in the stock market is hesitating and dull, except upon Governments, which is still in active demand.

Relative interest upon the 7-30 treasury notes, arising from a lawsuit for compelling the Collector of the Post to accept them in payment of duties. The price has advanced to 104 on the Tuesday.—The railroad list is generally lower. The transactions embraced a considerable number of operations, tellers largely predominating. The market appears lagging into torpor, the immediate occasion being the uncertainly as to what measures may be suggested by Secretary Fessenden or adopted by Congress. The general market is very dull, with no speculative movement. In the absence of the late brisk export demand, prices are weak and declining. Money and notes unchanged. Foreign exchange is a trifle weaker.

Sterling is dull and steady; Gold 237½; Erie 100½; Hudson 120¾; Reading 135¾; Mich. Conspirators Arrested.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—The following persons charged with conspiracy to release the Camp Douglas prisoners were arrested last night: C. W. Fulton, Francis Adams, Obadiah Jackson, Jr., Jas. Varmey, Jas. Gray and Semmes, nephew of the pirate of that name, Jackson, who is grand signor of the order, in an interview with the authorities, stated that at a meeting on Sunday, before the election, the order was changed to believing the Africans were not persons the natural characteristics necessary in good soldiers. Humphrey Marshall, of Kentucky, contended that negroes would desert, one of whom they were first furnished with whiskey. Nothing resulted from the discussion. After the discussion the House went into secret session to consider the bill reported from the Judiciary Committee.

On General Butler's departure for Washington to day he issued an order thanking the officers under him for the promptness in discharging their duties. It will be published to-morrow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The following are from Washington specials:

Lord Lyon is rapidly recovering from his illness, and was able to sit up for a short time.

The Treasury Department is still sending out circulars of the appeal of the Secretary in behalf of the 7 30 loan. The subscription to that loan last week amounted to nearly three millions. Subscriptions to the 10 40 loan have nearly ceased.

The trial of Col. North for conspiracy in the soldiers' vote fraud was resumed to-day.

The Union majority in Oregon is over 1,700.

Advices from Japan give the report that the allies' fleets had a skirmish with the Japanese, in the Inland Sea.

NO NEWS FROM POTOMAC ARMY.

NOTHING LATER FROM SHERIDAN.

Rebel Valley Army Reinforced by Breckinridge and Longstreet.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PIRATE FLORIDA.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—There is no news of importance from the army of the Potomac, and little news from Sheridan since yesterday. It is said both Longstreet and Breckenridge have recently reinforced the Rebel Valley army.

The Herald's Fortress Monroe correspondent thus describes the Florida: Her masts are unusually tall, yards very short; her hull is not dissimilar to our third class sloops, only that she sits lower in the water and has more shear in her lines. Her two smoke stacks are too close together for symetry; a bright coat of black paint gives her much more of a war appearance. The breach in her side, caused by the stem of the Wachusett, has not yet been repaired, but is covered with canvass, which was done in order to enable her to perform the journey to this point. Taking her altogether, ordinary persons would pronounce her a fine looking craft.

Between lying alongside the sloops of our navy she contrasts are very striking, and greatly to the Florida's disredit. Every thing about her is British, including guns, ammunition and most of her crew. She is 190 feet by 25 feet beam and 20 feet hold. She has three masts; one was carried away by the collision. Her bow is very sharp and gives indication of great speed. She is supplied with double engines and bears the name of the makers, Fawcett, Preston & Co., Liverpool.

On boarding her the first sight is the artillery. The deck is encumbered fore and aft, with an exceedingly clumsy traverse for sliding on seven inch Blakely guns. The breeching gears are equally homely and the carriages are hard to manage, having only two wheels and very unhandy. Between decks it is very filthy, notwithstanding the constant scrubbing by our men.

On the 4th of October the Florida arrived at Bahia, and anchored a short distant inside the harbor. On this day a plan was arranged on board the Warehasset to attack the Florida with a tug, and by running into her under full head steam sink her at anchor. Lieut Commander Beardslee and a number of men, from the Wachusett volunteered for the enterprise. With permission from Capt. Collins, he went shore and endeavored to obtain a suitable tug. He found a small light craft, but she had no coal, and there was no way of getting it supply. The project was abandoned. The next day the Florida moved to nearly under one of the forts. On the night of the 7th a council of war was called by Capt. Collins, and after mature deliberation it was decided to attack the Florida on that night. Particulars of the capture differ from those already given. Twenty-six chronometers and a large number of books, papers and other articles were taken from the captured ship. There was found a list of thirty-three vessels destroyed since January 16, 1864. The Wachusett and Florida sailed soon for New York.

GUERRILLAS ACROSS THE POTOMAC.

MEETING OF THE CITIZENS OF CHAMBERSBURG.

The People of the Border Fully Prepared.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa, Nov. 15.—Some guerrillas having crossed the Potomac, evidently with the purpose of plundering the border, the citizens of Chambersburg held a meeting this evening, and have organized three field companies for defence, one of which is be armed by its members, with first class repeating rifles. Companies were also promptly organized to-day, in Greencastle, Waynesboro, and Mercersville, and all of them will be completely armed to-morrow.

The border people are fully prepared for plundering raids, and they will make short work of any guerrillas who may fall into their hands.

FROM WASHINGTON.

THE WACHUSETT AND FLORIDA AFFAIR.

An Apology Transmitted to the Brazilian Government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Herald's, Washington special says:

It is understood Secretary Seward prepared and transmitted to the Brazilian government a letter, wherein he tenders the most ample apology for the recent violation of their neutrality, committed by the Wachusett in seizing the Florida, while at the same time it does not offer to return the captured vessel to the port where it was seized. This letter it is hoped, will allay any irritation which may be felt at the conduct of the federal officers. The opinion at Washington is, that the seizure of the Florida is a gross violation of the law of nations, and a strict reparation would include the returning of the Florida, dismissal of Captain Collins, and a recall of our consul, at Bahia, together with a full apology for the unjust habit conduct of United States officials. Mr. Seward will endeavor to save our national pride such humiliation, and at the same time, satisfy the Brazilian government that the offence was not a wanton one.

Gen. Grant and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy at Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 14.—All the buildings at Rocky Sandy, on James River, including Judge Bayne's residence, were destroyed by fire to-day.

The mail steamer Thomas Colyer, from City Point this morning, brought down twenty prisoners of war.

Lt. Gen Grant and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy were at Fortress Monroe to-day.

MEDICAL.

DR. LIGHTHILL ON

CATARRH.

DR. LIGHTHILL,

THE AUTHOR OF

"LETTERS ON CATARRH,"

"A POPULAR TREATISE ON DEAFNESS," &c.

CAN BE CONSULTED AT THE

ST. CHARLES HOTEL,

UNTIL

SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 12th

ON

CATARRH, DEAFNESS,

AND ALL THE

VARIOUS DISEASES

OF THE

EAR, THROAT,

AND

AIR PASSAGES.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH:

The first sensation is usually a feeling of dryness and heat in the nose, and a frequent inclination to sneezing. There is an inability to breathe freely, as the nose becomes stopped up, sometimes on one side, sometimes on both.

Soon a clear, watery, acrid discharge makes its appearance, excoriating the nostrils, and edges of the lips, which become red and somewhat swollen. After a few days the discharge becomes thick, yellowish, extremely frequent, and considered to be a marked feature of the disease, and a source of much danger, and the greatest annoyance. After more or less time, it becomes purulent, highly offensive, and sometimes an extremely fetid color. It is usually to profuse, as to require, when confined to the room, the frequent application of the handkerchief to drop into the throat, which is more particularly the case, while the body is in a horizontal position, constant expectoration, and sometimes both.

Sleep is frequently disturbed by a sensation of choking, caused by the presence of this discharge in the throat. Often by the heat in the head, the watery portion of the secretion often evaporates, and assuming a condition of solidity, forms crusts upon the anterior orifices of the nose and other part of the throat, in the shape of scabs or crusts of greater or less consistency. These scabs are sometimes loathsome. The accumulation of these scabs, and the consequent attempts to clear the throat are frequent, frequently blowing the nose or by persistent hawking—a practice so disagreeable to the individual himself, as to the persons around him. After the removal of the incrustation which adhered to the mucuous membrane will sometimes be found bloody, a fact which will well repay the miner for his labor. These scabs will be sold or loaned in quantities to suit applicants, on reasonable terms.
