Naw York, Nov. 16.—The Commercial Advertices's Washington special says: Later Richmond papers are received, and they show great saxiety concerning Sherman's movements. His being at Atlents, on the 7th, with Hood far in his rear, hey regard as showing that he has no feare for the robel generals' movements, but he is prepared to carry out a new plan upon a gigantic scale.

It is understood here that the rebels are entirely unprepared for this grand coup of Sherman, and that they have perpetrated a great blunder in sending Hood to invade Tennessee.

The Post's Washington special says: There are well defined rumors that General Butler's New York speech foreshadows the policy of the Administration.

The Richmond papers of the 14th say that Hood is 11th.

Wasaisoros Nov. 16.—Information received from efficial sources, show that Junes, President of the Liberal party in Mexico, is 'at Chicathenas, where General Negret is in command of an army. The Liberals have one in Oazac, under General Diss, and another in Juliaco, ander General Artesga. They find some comfort in the reported facts that Maximillian's government works badily, and he is not generally popular, having the majority of the obust against him, and failing to secure the full confidence of each army.
