CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Sunday Liquor Selling—A New Method of Treating the Evil.

The sale of liquors, beer, ale, etc., on Sunday, has long been carried on here, to a greater or less extent; and at the present time there are numerous parties engaged in the illegal traffic. To restore the usual method of punishing such offenders has been to return the cases to court, under that section of the act making the offense a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment. There are other sections of the act, however, which provide for the punishment of this offense by a penalty of $50, recoverable in the form of an action for debt, before any magistrate or justice of the peace. Mayor Lowry has determined, hereafter, to impose the penalty under these sections, as being in his judgment a more efficient remedy for the evil. It does not prefers, however, with the criminal prosecutions, as the parties violating the act render themselves liable to both penalties. That liquor sellers fully understand the matter, we give below the sections of the act which the Mayor now proposes to enforce in these cases:

That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to sell, trade or barter in any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or cider, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday; or for any keeper or keepers of any hotel, inn, tavern, house, beer house, or other public house or place, knowingly to allow or permit any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or cider, to be drunk or within the premises or house occupied or kept by such keeper or keepers, on the first day of the week.

That any person or persons violating the provisions of the foregoing section shall, for each and every offense, forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, one-half of which shall be paid to the prosecutor and the other half to the overseers of the poor of the city or county in which it is brought, or in counties having no overseers of the poor, then to the overseer of the poor in the township, ward or borough in which the offense was committed; to be recovered before any mayor, alderman, burgess, or justice of the peace, as debts of like amount are now by law recoverable in any action of debt brought in the name of the commonwealth, as well for the use of the overseers of the poor for the time being, who have already stated, the forfeit of fifty dollars, under the above section, does not prevent prosecution in the Criminal Court, but the proof upon which a judgment might be based before the Mayor would be sufficient to convict in court, provided the same witness could be obtained. It frequently happens, however, that when parties have been held for trial at Court, and the case comes up, the witnesses cannot be found and the accused escapes punishment. By summary process, such as that now resorted to, there can be no chance for escape; and the knowledge of this fact will greatly serve to deter persons from violating the law.

The police have received instructions from Mayor Lowry to exercise the strictest vigilance in this matter, and to see that all offenders are brought to speedy punishment. The following duties were returned to-day for selling on the Sabbath just passed:

Mrs. Sanders, Alias Mrs. Tagg, Water street; George Dandy, corner of Grant and Second street; and Thomas Davy, foot of Wood street. These parties will have a hearing in a day or two, and (as there seems to be no doubt about the evidence) the fine will be promptly imposed in each case. With strict watch on offenders, and a prompt punishment, the evil will soon be effectually abated.

Counterfeit Fifty Cent Notes.

It would seem that the counterfeiters are commencing vigorously with the Treasury Department in the issue of fifty cent notes. Some idea of the number of spurious notes of this denomination now in circulation, may be obtained from the fact that, in the course of an investigation before Judge Cadwalader, of Philadelphia, a day or two since, one of the officers employed in the office of the United States Assistant Treasurer, was examined as to the number of counterfeits which reached them in the packages of currency sent there to be exchanged for Treasury notes. He stated that in one package of ten thousand dollars, received from a banking institution, there were ninety counterfeits, all of the denomination of fifty cents. There was not the largest number in proportion to the amount hitherto known, but he was not able to give the precise number of any other package. The counterfeits of the fractional currency are the most readily told, he said by the head of Washington; in the genuine notes it is distinctly brought out, and the features are plain, while the counterfeits are blurred, and in some are very indistinct. Until recently it was not an offence to have counterfeit United States currency of any amount in your possession. A late act of Congress makes it an offence, if there is a disposition to pass it, and that intention to be judged of by the circumstances.

How to Cut Pork.

The following directions may be found useful, at this season of the year, to such of our readers as are able to "go in the whole hog:"

Have the hog laid on his back on a stout table; clean the carcass of the leaf fat. Take off the feet at the ankle joints. Cut the head off close to the shoulders, separate the jowl from the skull, and open the skull lengthwise to the under side, so as to remove the brains fully. Remove the backbone in its whole length; and with a sharp knife cut off the skin—thereon fat, leaving only eighteen dollars from his house. At a hearing of the case before the Mayor this morning, he boy acknowledged that he had taken one dollar, but denied any knowledge of the balance. The Mayor, as about to commit him to the House of Refuge, when the prosecutor withdrew the suit, and the lad was discharged.

Course of Sermons.—We desire to call the attention of our readers to the course of sermons to be preached upon by the ministers of the different evangelical denominations of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity. The opening sermon will be delivered by Rev. W. D. Howard, D. D., in the First Presbyterian Church, this evening at 7 o'clock. Subject: "The Necessity of a Revival of Religion."

Prof. Kidd.—This gentleman, we learn, will give one of his unique and instructive entertainments in Excelsior Hall, corner of Locust and Federal streets, Allegheny City, on Tuesday evening. Those desiring to spend a pleasant and profitable evening, will do well to make a note of this. The Professor rarely fails to please.

AN ALLEGED LARCENY BY A BOY.—On Sunday evening a little boy aged about seven years, was arrested by the Allegheny police, at the instance of a citizen, who charged him with stealing eighteen dollars from his house. At a hearing of the case before the Mayor this morning, the boy acknowledged that he had taken one dollar, but denied any knowledge of the balance. The Mayor, as about to commit him to the House of Refuge, when the prosecutor withdrew the suit, and the lad was discharged.

Is induced to make this visit on account of numerous applications from parties residing in Pittsburgh and vicinity, who are unable to come to New York for the indispensable personal examination rendered necessary from the impossibility of prescribing with benefit to the patient without it.

DR. LIGHTHILL will retain Pittsburgh at regular intervals, according to the requirements of the patients under his charge. The business in New York does not suffer any interruption from this visit, as one of the firm is there in constant attendance.

TESTIMONIALS.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Nov. 5, 1864.
This will certify that I have been under the care of Dr. Lighthill for the cure of Catarrh, and that, although I had exhausted nearly a little one bottle, I feel that a permanent cure is to be effected. And as an act both in all respects as was promised me in giving publicity to these facts, and recommending Dr. Lighthill to any one afflicted with Catarrh.
Forsyth, Bros. & Co., 74 Water street.

[From the Home Journal, June 4th.]

In every business or profession, indeed in every department of science or art, there is a little one who acknowledged head—some one who stands out in bold relief among his fellows, as a sort of leader. Dr. Lighthill is such a leader in deafness and diseases, as special diseases. Dr. E. B. LIGHTHILL, of this city, occupies just the position above described. He has devoted himself to this specialty, and is now reaping the reward of his industry. The editorial columns of the Tribune, of a recent date, bear witness to the Doctor's success in this department of medicine. We quote the paragraph:

QUEEN OF A DEAF MUTE.—Louis Loowingstein, aged fourteen years of age, born in Germany, came to this city when he was but two years of age. Soon after arriving here he was taken sick and lost all hearing. He began to grow deaf and dumb by degrees, and for nearly ten years he was a mute, unable to hear the loudest voice, or to articulate a single word. About one year ago he was placed in the hands of Dr. LIGHTHILL, who has so far succeeded in restoring to the young person of hearing and utterance that he can converse with those who speak to him distinctly and deliberately. During the past few months he has been under the tuition of Mr. Bennèche, and has made considerable progress in reading and arithmetic."

Having thoroughly supplied Mr. Tribune, we further investigated the matter, and discovered that previous to calling on Dr. Lighthill, the youth's case was pronounced incurable by the faculty of ten years in inmate of a Deaf and Dumb Asylum. The New York Medical Journal, Dr. Professor in Union College, Schenectady, in a published letter, addressed particularly to Dr. Lighthill for treating successfully his case of Deafness. Rev. Fred. N. Dewitt, Professor of the State Normal School at Albany, also testifies to having been cured of Catarrh. Dr. Lighthill possesses the confidence and tribute to his talent from some of the wealthiest and most prominent and respected citizens, which may be seen on application. We are told that he has been in the habit of praise of his treatment, in the face of these many proofs and facts testifying to his success.

From Rev. Fred. N. Jewell, Professor of the State Normal School, Albany, New York.

Dr. LIGHTHILL—Dear Sir: Under date of March 14th, I sent you a careful statement of my case, its former treatment, my failure to obtain relief in London, my resort to your treatment, and its beneficial results.

I have been, from the winter of the year 1844, subject to violent periodical attacks of Catarrh, attended by severe, forcible symptoms, violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the cavities of the head, accompanied at times by slight pain, and a free discharge from the nose, subsequently becoming thick and yellow; and also from the throat, purulent and bloody. These attacks produced a most distressing species of headache, occurring periodically, each one lasting from four hours to three weeks, sometimes so violent as to incapacitate me for business and confine me to my bed. At the height of the attacks inflammation would extend to the teeth, producing toothache; or to the throat, occasioning hoarseness and loss of voice. Four and twice within the last few years it has so affected the left eye as to confine me for weeks to a darkened room.

I had tried medicines and applications of various kinds, snuffs and other catarrhal preparations of name and a dozen kinds; application to the head of camphor, ginger and hot fomentations of different kinds, and in connection with these the usual emetics or cathartics employed to induce counter action. But none of these had produced any permanent improvement, and in the few instances in which temporal relief was afforded it was at the expense of so much strength as to leave me greatly exhausted. Under these circumstances I was led, though with reluctance, from the supposed incurability of the disease, to try a trial of your treatment. I found it soon even beyond my hopes, reaching the disease as it had never been reached before, and alleviating its hydropathy to an extent which I had supposed impossible. At the time I gave you my former certificate, while I did not feel satisfied of a permanent cure, I had obtained a material relief which amply repaid me for my trial of your treatment, and which satisfied me that that treatment was as effective as it was simple and philosophical. A substantial escape from my old attacks of catarrh, for the unprecedented period of nearly half a year, and that in spite of severe occurrences of illness which would have formerly produced such an attack inevitable, was, to me, proof of an important success. It is now six months since I sent you that statement, and while it is unpleasant to appear thus continually, and in this guise, before the public, it seems to me a matter of simple justice to yourself, and to those who may be suffering as I was, to add that I am not only satisfied as to the utility and efficacy of your treatment of catarrhal disorders as I was six months ago, but I am now of the belief that if there is such a thing as a cure for chronic catarrh, in my case a substantial cure has been effected.
Yours, respectfully,
FREDERICK S. JEWELL.

ALBANY, Jan. 25th, 1864.
DR. LIGHTHILL—Dear Sir: It is with great satisfaction that I communicate to you the effects of the medicines you gave me, for defective hearing. Although your medicines are not to be hurry to take that I am now so far recovered after the first few applications as to feel quite confident that I am cured, and shall not need to proceed further.
Be assured, my dear sir, if necessary, should occasion call, I should not hesitate to place myself under your medical care.
Yours truly,
R. H. COLE.
Attorney, Chancellor and Counsellor at Law.
