It is said, we do not vouch for the report, that 185 was paid to-day for one share of the Fourth National Bank. We tell it as 'twas told us," and forbear comment.

Oil stocks of course but from previous quotations, with the exception of Dalzell, for which there is a marked demand, consequent on rumors (which we have not been able to verify to our satisfaction) of a new well, and a settlement of the long pending difficulty between the company and the Columbia. The new companies are generally lower than yesterday:

The transactions in Oil Stocks at Thurston's Exchange last evening, although confined to a few companies, were very large, but prices, as a general rule, ruled considerably below the rates obtained during the previous few evenings. The attendance, we noted was very full, and there were plenty of eager buyers for some of the "favorites" at the figures above noted. Among other stocks offered and not sold were Bell, 6 is being bid and 6¾ asked; and Steel Well, 63 bid and 9 30 asked. The Fellow for the particulars of the sales:

Ten of the Boston banks, with a capital of $11,910,200, will soon surrender their charters, and reorganize under the National Banking system. Eight more, with a capital of $6,850,000, have voted to organize under the National System, but have not yet joined the Clearing House in that city. Sixteen of the forty-two banks of Boston have either organized under the National system or have voted to do so.

The efforts of the Treasury to coin in New York the "Gold Hill" bullion that the mint are various and persistent. One of these efforts appears in the shape of a circular just issued in that city, declaring that the Treasury Department will refund to 6-7 the premium of gold at 50 per cent, accept legal tenders in payment of customs duties, and to pay the interest on the 6 per cents in currency.

This the New York Commercial says is wholly unfounded.

The Middlesex Oil Company announces a dividend of one-and-a-half per cent, payable on and after December 1st. The stock is now selling dividend off.

Fort Packing at St. Louis—Nov. 26.

The business of hog killing and packing is progressing satisfactorily at this city. Packers continue to pay liberal prices, and they see all the hogs they can buy. Before closed, the number of hogs killed in this city will fall far short of last season's business, but will compare favorably with the rest of previous seasons. Prices range at 10 to 10½c for light to heavy, and 11c per lb gross for extra fine lots.

The work of our packers to date amounts to about the following figures:

DAILY REVIEW OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

TUESDAY, Nov. 29, 1864.

Business generally was exceedingly dull, and neglected to-day, there being but little life or animation in any of the leading articles of produce, and prices generally remain unchanged. There is a slight falling in the receipts of Flour, Grain, etc., both by rail and river, and to this fact, perhaps may be attributed the inactivity which prevailed to-day together with the fact that nearly all of our people are operating in "Oil Stocks" or forming "new companies," and legitimate business is looked upon as a secondary matter.

GRAIN—The receipts of Wheat and Barley continue exceedingly light and we have but few sales to report; from first hands, the nominal rates are $2 35@2 40 for the former and $1 70@1 80 for the latter. Data firm and in light supply; small sales from store at 1 75@1 80 for Barley. Corn steady but unchanged.

FLOUR—Is quiet but firm with a moderate local demand at previous rates. Sale of 150 bbls Extra Family from store, at $11 for Spring Wheat and 11 bbls Family from store at $9 50 per cwt. Buckwheat Flour is selling from store at $5 50 per cwt.

WHISKY—Is now what excited in consequence of the upward turn in the Eastern markets and the advance there has produced a corresponding result here. Sale of 85 bbls Chicago Highwines at $1 85; and 11 bbls country mixed—part corn and part rye—at 2 00.

HAY—Was in better supply to-day, but with a fair local demand, the market ruled firm, and prices are well sustained. Sales of 30 loads at $15 50 per ton. Baled Hay is selling from wharf and depot at $20.

CHEESE—Continues very dull and prices have declined; sales having been made to-day at 25 per bushel.

LARD—Sales of 1800 lbs at 17½c.

BUTTER—The demand is fair and the market ready with sales of Rolls at 40 to 45c for common to strictly prime fresh. The supply is fully equal to the demand.

EGGS—Firm and in demand at 35c per doz.

POTATOES—The market is quiet but firm, with regular sales of prime "Peach Blows" from store at 90 per bushel.

CHEESE—Is steady but unchanged; small sales at 22@23 for Western Reserve and Hamburg and 24 for Goshen.

APPLES—The demand is only moderate and restricted almost entirely to good qualities which command from $4 00 to 5 50 per bbl.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

TUESDAY, Nov. 29, 1864.

There was a fair demand for Crude to-day, principally for shipment, and the market for good and long gravities ruled steady at previous quotations. Our refiners, as a general thing, are not buying very freely, as they contend that there is no margin for anything like a fair manufacturing profit with Crude at current quotations and Oil as dear. We note sales of 200 bbl 12c bbls at 84½; 200, 300 and 400 at 35, and 300 at 40½ bbls included. Refined, in bond, is held a shade firmer but there has not been a single sale for some two weeks. Refined, Free, is in fair demand for shipment west, and we continue to quote at 60 to 62c, and these appear to be the extremes of the market. Sale of 200 bbls "Champion" brand, at 59½, delivered on the Monongahela wharf. There is nothing whatever doing in Naphtha or Residuum, and in the absence of sales, we omit quotations.

The receipts of Crude by the Allegheny river since our last report, are as follows:

Jas Wilkins	55	Tarr & Bonaey 200
W P Logue	45	D Miller 50
Billespie	42
Total		1222

NEW YORK PETROLEUM MARKET.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29, 1864.

The market for Crude ruled very firm to-day, and holders generally were demanding higher rates, 45 cents was regarded as the figure on the spot. There was, also a fair demand for Refined, in bond, and prices advanced to 68@70, on the spot, and 70@ for next month, seller's option. Free Oil, too, is very firm and held a shade advance, with sales at 68@, on the spot. Naphta is steady at 52, for Refined, free.

NEW YORK STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29, 5 P.

The market for Railroad Stocks was more active to-day and prices ruled a shade higher; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 101½; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 84; Governments firm, and generally higher; 7-30 Steam, 103½@103¾; One Year Certificates, 97½; Five Twenties, 106½. Gold has still further advanced, closing this afternoon at 224.

BREADSTUFFS STOCK MARKET.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov 29, 1864.

The market for Oil stocks was dull and irregular to-day and prices generally, were a fraction lower. The closing quotations were as follows: Dalzell, 61½@62; Empire, 61; Nicholas, 45; Ebert, 6¾; Bull Creek, 6¾; Walnut Island, 4¾; Corn Planter, 7¾; Bruner, 2¾; Hibbard, 2¾; Mechanic, 9½; Quaker, 10½; Hemlock, 4¾.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

Reported for the Pittsburgh Gazette.

ALLEGHENY CITY, Nov. 29, 1864.

The supply of Cattle was again large this week, and 2,715 butts limit the demand, the market was dull and languid, and almost no sales were made prior to 10 o'clock, but few below last week's quotations. Some few heavy smooth cattle, suitable for our local butchers were in light supply and wanted for this particular description, as always is the case, sold readily, and, to us, extreme prices ranged as follows: Extra heavy steers to seven and a-half cattle, as seven, ordered was a fair demand for nice smooth stock cattle for shipment, but there were but comparatively few of this quality on sale. Messrs Hyde & Bro. bought a limited number of their western oxen for government use, at about former quotations, but butchers did not buy very liberally, and the consequence was a number of cattle were either left over for next week or shipped East. Chicago Stock Yards were not attended, owing to some detention on the railroad, failing to arrive in time for this week's market, and the bulk of the supply on sale, we presume, to be put on the market next week.

HOGS—There has been a fair retail demand for Hogs during the entire week, and only limited supplies or receipts have been quite liberal, the market closed steady and prices very fully sustained. To J. P. Hamni & Co. belongs the credit, we believe, of buying the first bunch of Hogs, here, this season for packing—for head averaging 300 pounds, from Isco Emerick & Co., at $11.50 per cwt. The rest of the week was spent in holding back for more favorable weather and lower prices, which particularly the latter. Messrs. Emerick & Co. also report having retailed about 200 head per day, ranging all the way from $11 to 14 per cwt, the latter figure for extra Hogs averaging 300 pounds. Crouse & Rothculin report having retailed 150 head at $11@12.50.

SHEEP—The receipts of scalding light, but as but few are wanted, the supply seems to have been fully equal to the demand. We continue to quote at from $7@7.50 per head for prime.

Below will be found a full and accurate report of most of the leading sales with the names of the sellers and the price paid for each:

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

ARRIVALS.	DEPARTURES.
Miseres, Wheeling.	Emma Graham, Cassner's
Late E Porter, Cincin'ti.	Kate Putnam, St. Louis.
E. Shaw, Porter, do.	Geo Porter, Cin'ti.
	G. McC. Porter, Cincin'ti.
	Golden Era, Portsmouth.

The River was swelling rapidly at this point last evening, with seven feet seven inches in the channel, by the pier marks. The weather continues milky and unsettled, with every appearance of more rain.

Business continues tolerably active at the wharf, the receipts being fair, while there is, seemingly, an improvement in the shipments. There is still, however, entirely too many Sold's in here for the amount of freight that is offering, and the result is that it takes any one of them a good while to pick up a trip.

The arrivals include the G. McPorter and Kate B. Porter, from Cincinnati, and the Minerva from Wheeling, will doubtless be found at the wharf this morning.

The Emma Graham, for Zanesville, Kate Putnam, for St. Louis, G. McPorter, for Cincinnati, and Golden Era, for Portsmouth, were the departures. The Putnam had an excellent trip, while the Porter was frying light. The Era and Graham each had moderate trips.

The Petrolia left for Oil City about five o'clock last evening, and the Lecklire was also making preparations to leave for the same point.

The Argosy, a new boat, built, and owned principally, if not altogether, by Capt. Andrew Miller, was taking on government freight yesterday for Cincinnati. Captain Lewis Vandergrift, we understand, is to have command.

Captain Perry Brown, formerly of the Commodore Perry and Parthenia, is building a new boat at the wharf, and it is said that he intends to name her the "Hard Times."

The steamer Pilgrim left St Louis for this city on Saturday, and the Arcadia was announced to follow on Monday.

The Bermuda, a Wheeling built boat, was sold by Campbell Sweeny to parties in Louisville for $10,000, and left Wheeling for Louisville on the 22d.

The fine passenger steamer Anna, in command of Capt J H Marratta, is filling up rapidly for Cincinnati and Louisville, and will be ready to leave this evening. The Lancaster No 2 Capt McCarty, is also announced to leave for the same points at the same time. They are both neat passenger packets.

The Iron City and Arcana were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday.

Captain Batchelor's new steamer Golden Era, while rounding in to the Louisville wharf, on Sunday morning, drifted too low down, and was swept out on the head of the falls. As the river is receding pretty fast, her situation may be deemed critical.
