WASHINGTON, Dec. 9 .- The Constitutionalis thinks that Sherman has not for a moment hesi-fated as to the point to be attacked, or the road early on the morning of the 2d last, abandoning the shortest route to Augusta, moving by a new oute in the direction of Sayannah. The same paper lays out the following campaign for Sherash as being the most natural and feasible one man as being in nost natural and reasone one: With his forage and provision trains full he will pass his entire army to Millen, then throwing his cavalry in the rear, he will put his wagon trains between the two wings of his army and march in tompact column steadilizibut caulionsly

The Ogeche and its few crossing and terrible symmiss on his right, and the Savannah river and lasequally swampy backs on his left, both fanks will be most securely covered; and thus situated, he has a march of over eighty miles to the city, and travelling at the rate he has severaged since leaving Atlanta, he would reach there by the 9th-inst., provided he should not be thecked by the way.

There was strong larging and rather more business trans-acted. After tail the market was beavy: speci-lative dealers in Governments are unloading. Prices after rather weak. Railroad bonds are ac-tive and strong, and State stocks better. Coal stocks continue strong, with an active specula-tive movement fit Cumierland. The gold market is weaker, The decline was caused by rumors that Grant had mer with suc-cess before Richmond, and that Sherman had ar-rived at Bull's Bay, north of Charleston. The gold room moves Sherman's army around in a perfectly wonderful manner. Money is more ac-tive and parily among national backs. Foreign exchange is quict; for to-morrow's steamer the rites tend toward lower quotation. &c., &c., &c. Mr. Fessenden's Report. The Secretary of the Trensury gives an account of his stewardship, and at the same time a brief history of the financial legislation of Congress, and the policy and acts of the Treasury Department since the beginning of the war. For the convenience of our readers we condense below the principal items of the somewhat crude tables which are presented in the report.

which are presented in the ropert. The national debt amounted, on the 1st o y div. 1864, to $1,740,600,459 49. The interest on the national debt for the cur-reat year amounts to $21,810,215 18. Trout taation and other sources, the roycenne of the current year is estimated at $419,512,359. Of this amount, customs yield $70,371,001; internal revene, $240,362,503; "miscellancons sources." $24,030,171. The interest payable in coin "mow exceeds flay-six millions." De another sources.
