was afterwards curiously corrobonied by the children the unserves.
The cliffly day after they were lost, and long after the extinction of the faintest bope of their ever being again seen alive, the searching party came on them. They are described as having been found lying all of a row on a clump of broom among some trees, the youngest in the middle, carefully, wrapped in his sister's frock. They ap- peared to be in a deep and not unpleasant 's epo. On being awoke, the eldest tried to sid up, latt fell back. His face was so ema- ciated that his lips would not cover his tech, and he could only just feebly groan 'Father." The youngest, who had suffered le act, woke up as from a dream, childlike tending, "Father, why didn't you come soner's-we were calling for you." The National Banks. Mr. McCulloth, Comptroller of the Corrency, A LAUUM has been got up at a Paria club at the expense of a not over-intelligent young French traveler, who has been mak-ing the grand tour of London during the re-cent most promising months for sceing life and fashion. He lodged at a house where no French was spoken, and he spoke no English, except that which is very compre-hemsible to an English lodging-house keep-er's mind, viz: putting gold into his hand. The Joke against him is, that his letters to his ffrands during this momentous visit were dated, "No. 4, Billstickers Beware, Leices-ter Square."
