CITY AND SUBURBAN.

An Outrageous Assault and Battery.—On the day of the Presidential election, in McCandless township, a young man named James Mays, a returned soldier, and of course a supporter of the Union candidates, was attacked and beaten in the most cowardly and brutal manner by two or three Copperheads, who were aided and abetted by several of their friends—not one of whom interfered in time to save the man from being abused. The election was being held at the time, and the attack was, we are informed, altogether unprovoked. Mays was approached by one of his assailants, who demanded, in a menacing manner, to know whether Mays had boasted that he could whip any Copperhead living on the Franklin side of the road. To this Mays replied that he was not so fond of fighting as to make such a boast; on that, whereupon he was assailed, knocked down, and beaten so terribly that his life was at one time despaired of. One of the men struck him with a club, while others used their hands and feet freely. An effort was made to have them arrested and taken before Justice Ramsey, but the magistrate declined, for certain reasons, to issue the warrants. Mays, having become able to attend to the matter, waited upon Mayor Alexander and preferred charges of aggravated assault and battery against James Sarver, Philip Sarver, Benjamin Sarver, John McKinney and John McDonald. The parties were all arrested, and held to answer charges of assault and battery and interfering with the elections. The case will come up for trial at the next term of court.

Murder in the Oil Region.—Joseph Herrick, of Salina, Venango county, quarreled with his son-in-law, Robert Orr, about some money which belonged to Orr, and which Herrick had concealed. The first difficulty took place in the house; but afterwards, whilst out of doors, when there was no danger of attack, Herrick shot Orr, the ball entering the abdomen. Orr immediately sprang toward Herrick, threw him down, and would have killed him, it is alleged, had not third parties interfered. Orr assured the bystanders that his wound was mortal; and Herrick, signifying his willingness to give over the money, went with Orr to the woods where it was concealed, and handed it over to the latter, who said he wanted it before he died to hand over to his wife for the support of his family. Orr died on Saturday last.

A Retired Oil Prince.—Hamilton McClintock has sold out his entire interest on Oil Creek, and is preparing to remove with his family to New Castle in the spring. The Monitor says: "Very few of the old residents are now left in the oil regions. All sold and gone to settle new homes and form new associations, and strangers have taken their places. Men, who a few years ago were poor, scarcely able to maintain their families, have sold their farms at very high figures, and are now taking their positions in society as among the wealthiest. Thus the world wags along, conferring riches and honors on some and poverty and suffering on others."

A Furious Female.—Sarah Dawson appeared before Mayor Alexander, on Tuesday evening, and preferred a charge of assault and battery against Ellen Calvarly. Sarah stated that she had been boarding with Ellen and on Saturday night last Ellen went visiting and remained away until a late hour. On her return she visited the bed where Sarah was lying asleep, fell upon and beat her over the arms until they were all black and blue, and finally wound up the attack by seizing a large handful of hair, and pulling it out entire, leaving a bald spot on the scalp at once uncomfortable and unsightly. A warrant was issued for the ferocious Ellen.

Larceny of a Dress and Locket.—Information was made before Mayor Lowry, to-day, by Mrs. Elizabeth Lawrence, of Allegheny, charging Mrs. L. Dunham with the larceny of a dress, and a gold locket and chain. Mrs. Lawrence alleges that Mrs. Dunham came to her house, and under pretence of wishing to arrange her hair, went into a room where the dress was hanging and carried it off with her. The accused admitted that she had taken the dress, intending to return it, and on searching the pocket found the gold locket and chain. She had pawned the dress and jewellery, and given the locket to a friend, hence her story about intending to return the property, does not get much credence. She was held for a hearing.

New Oil Strikes on Sandy Creek.—The Oil City Register says: "The Keystone Well Company, Capt. Bonnie, Superintendent, struck oil in their well on Wednesday of last week. The well is not yet tubed, but it is variously estimated at from forty to sixty barrels. The well is about fifty rods below Slater Farm, and the oil at the mouth of the creek, after seventeen days use, continues its yield as heretofore. This, we think, demonstrates the position long since maintained, that Sandy Creek would, when sufficiently developed, prove to be first class oil territory."

In the selection of articles for Holiday presents we would recommend the Metropolitan Gift Book Store, No. 63 Fifth street, to the favorable notice of all. The stock of Fine Books, Albums, Bibles, Prayer and Family Prayer Books, Photograph Albums and Periodicals is now full and complete, with the largest variety of Juvenile Books (by the single volume or set) ever before offered in this city. The stock of Photograph Albums now in store, numbers something over 1,000, embracing all sizes and styles, from the Pocket Album, holding twelve pictures, to the Album holding 400 pictures. In all the elegant styles of binding, from the plain morocco, to the rich and costly velvet and gold. The crowning attraction of the "Metropolitan" consists in their style of doing business—selling at "buy" do all kinds of Books, Bibles and Photograph Albums at the lowest publishers' prices, and giving with each book sold some handsome present worth from 50 cents to $100. During the week over 800 valuable and useful articles have been distributed to its patrons, including 1 gold watch, 2 silver watches, 7 silver lever pitchers, 12 silver castors, 28 sets of silver spoons, forks, &c.

Josiah Copley, Jr., who has been a prisoner in the hands of the rebels since September, 1863, and who is well known to many in this community, has been heard from. He was for several months an inmate of that horrible stockade at Andersonville, a few weeks ago he, with many of his companions, was removed to Florence, South Carolina. An exchanged prisoner has just written to his brother that "he was rejoicing very good health, and was in the best spirits for a prisoner." This is the first intelligence his friends have had from him since March last.

Miss Ida Heron—Theatre.—"East Lynn" was repeated last evening to another good house, and Miss Heron, though suffering from a severe cold, illustrated the role of "The Lady Isabel" in a manner that drew down the entire house. This evening will be appropriate for new dreams of "Mathilde" or the "Lone Chateau," tha was so successful the last week. On Thursday "Camille" will be given for the last time, and on Friday her benefit, and positively last appearance in this city, as she leaves immediately for California, where we wish and will meet with the success she deserves.

To Third Ward Tax Payers.—Property owners in the Third Ward, who have not yet settled their taxes for 1864, for County, State, Militia, Borough, and other purposes, and all those in arrears for City, Poor, Business and Water taxes, are urged to call immediately upon the Collector, Mr. J. R. Newman, and save costs. He can be seen at the City Treasurer's office, daily, from nine to twelve o'clock, and at the office of Alderman Butler, 136 Wylie street, from six to eight o'clock each evening, until the 17th inst.

Death of S. J. Rea.—The well known Harrisburg correspondent of the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh press, S. J. Rea, Esq., died at the residence of his brother-in-law, in Beaver county, on Friday last. Deceased has been a resident of Philadelphia for several years, but has spent most of his time at the State capital. He was well posted in State affairs, and therefore was well qualified for the duties of a newspaper correspondent. He leaves a wife and family.

Killed in Battle.—The body of Loima Mays, son of Henry Mays, and a private of Company I, 14th Pa. cavalry, was conveyed to his home in Venango county, on Wednesday last, by his twin brother of the same company. Loima Mays fell while making a charge on the enemy at Stony Creek Station. He leaves three brothers in the same company, battling for the right; one of whom (Alpheus,) was wounded severely in the same charge.

To Neutralize Offensiveness.—In many forms we use disinfecting agents. Impure breath, caused by bad teeth, tobacco, spirits or catarrh, is neutralized by Sozodont. It is a healthful beautifier, and a great luxury as a dentifrice. The repulsive breath is by its use rendered as fragrant as a rose, and coldness by friends or lovers will be no longer noticed. Sold by all Druggists.

The New Hose Carriage.—The Duncanne Steam Fire Engine Company are having built in Philadelphia a new hose carriage, which is to be one of the neatest and most substantial affairs of the kind ever introduced here. The carriage will be completed in a few weeks.

"Peterson's Ladies' National Magazine" for January, and "Godey's Lady's Book" for January, have been received and are for sale by Pittock, Fifth street, opposite the Post Office.

"Godey's Lady's Book" for January has been received, and is for sale by W. A. Gildenfenney, No. 45, Fifth street.

MEDICAL.

THE GREAT PURIFIER.

HENAPANAKA.

Since the introduction of medicine, the origin of disease has been perhaps the subject of more serious and scientific consideration by the most learned of the profession that any other connected with the laws of the great Creator; not a few have contended that all diseases have their origin in the stomach; others, the solids of the body; others again, and by far the greatest number, contend and reason that the blood itself is the very fountain of life—that if it becomes impure, disease, in the worst forms—Scrofula, Cancer, Ulcers, &c., appear, and indeed, experience in treating this class of diseases by purifying the blood and thereby effecting their eradication sufficiently, prove this to be the correct theory: acting upon which theory, the medicine now known as HENAPANAKA, was composed and brought into practice, producing the most gratifying results.

It in due season exercises such a mastery over SCROFULA, ULCERATIONS, PIMPLES OR ERUPTIONS OF THE FACE, TETTER, SALT RHEUM, LIVER COMPLAINT, LOSS OF APPETITE, DYSPEPSIA, RHEUMATISM, GENERAL DEBILITY, &c., &c., &c., as to give, from the time it is first taken, encouragement to the sufferer, by making both soon and well, the good it does; and for this reason it was thought best to put it up in bottles at 50c. and $1.00 each,—as many persons are disgusted to try an article but are often deterred from doing so because, on a trial here can be made at a moderate outlay, and satisfy the purchaser that the article is what is claimed for it to be, viz: the greatest HEALTH GIVER yet brought before the people. Delicate Females will find in it the desirable thing they need.

That the public may form some idea of its peculiar curative merits, we subjoin a list of the principal articles of which it is composed, with a short description of the uses and adaptation of each, to the Medical science.

HONDURAS SARSAPARILLA

Is used with a beneficial effect in cases of Rheumatism, Scrofula, Mercurial Diseases, Diseases and other depraved conditions of health.

DANDELION

Is tonic, diuretic, and aperient. It has a specific action upon the liver, exciting it when languid, to secretion. It has been much used in Germany in diseases of the digestive organs.

IODIDE POTASSIUM.

There are few diseases in which it has not proved beneficial; in cases of Scrofula it confers a most great benefit; it has also been used with much success in treatment for inflammation of the Eye. It generally increases the quality and flow.

LAVENDER FLOWERS

Are aromatic, tonic and highly invigorating in cases of Nervous Debility.

WINTER GREEN

Is especially valuable in cases of Scrofula and Rheumatism.

CHAMOMILE FLOWERS

Are also antispasmodic, used in cases of Enfeebled Digestion, but are especially applicable to cases of General Debility with weak appetite.

MEZEREON BARK.

It acts favorably as an alterative in Chronic Affections, Chronic Rheumatism and obstinate Diseases of the Skin.

TESTIMONIALS.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 5, 1864.
This will certify, that I have been under the care of Dr. Lighthill for the cure of Catarrh, and that, although he has attended me for a little over one week, I feel that a permanent cure is to be effected. I am so much better in all respects as to warrant me in giving publicity to these facts, and recommending Dr. Lighthill to any one afflicted with Catarrh.

[From the Home Journal, June 4th.]

In every business or profession, talent in ever department of science or skill, there is always some acknowledged head—some one who stands out in bold relief as the leading fellows, as it were, in the study and treatment of Deafness and Catarrh, as special diseases. Dr. E. R. LIGHTHILL, a name familiar to the public from this above description, has already acquired. He has devoted years of labor to this specialty, and is now reaping the reward of his industry. Yesterday over the columns of the Tribune, of a recent date, bear witness to the Doctor's success in this department of medicine. We quote the paragraph:

CURE OF A DEAF MUTE.—Louis Loewinstein aged fourteen years old, born in Germany, came to this city when he was about two years of age. Soon after arriving there he was taken sick and lost his hearing. By degrees he became first deaf and then dumb. For nearly ten years he was a mute, unable to hear the loudest voice, or to utter a word. About one year ago he was placed in the hands of Dr. LIGHTHILL, who has so far succeeded in restoring to him his lost powers of hearing and utterance that he can converse with those who speak to him distinctly and audibly. During the past four or five months he has been under the tuition of Mr. Beauneche, and has made considerable progress in reading and arithmetic."

Having been supplied with the pub's address, we further investigated the matter, and discovered that previous to calling on Dr. Lighthill, the youth's case was considered hopeless, and he was for two years an inmate of a Deaf and Dumb Asylum. The Rev. John Nott, D. D., Professor in Union College, Schenectady, in a published letter, testifies to what he has done in curing successfully his case of Deafness. Rev. Fred. S. Jewell, Professor of the State Normal School at Albany, also testifies to having been cured of Catarrh. Dr. Lighthill possesses other testimonials and tributes to his talent from some of the wealthiest and most prominent and respected citizens, which may be seen on application. It would be difficult to speak in any but terms of praise of his treatment, in the face of these many proofs and facts testifying to his success.

From Rev. Fred. S. Jewell, Professor of the State Normal School, Albany, New York.

DR. LIGHTHILL—Dear Sir: Under date of March 14th, I sent you a careful statement of my case, its former treatment, my failure to obtain relief in that direction, my recent visit to your treatment, and its beneficial results.

I have been, from the winter of the year 1846, subject to violent periodical attacks of Catarrh, marked by strong forcible symptoms, violent inflammation of the lining membrane of the cavities of the head, accompanied in the first stages by a watery discharge from the nose, subsequently becoming acrid and yellow, and toward the close of the attack purulent and bloody. These attacks produced a most distressing sensation of headache, occurring periodically each day for a period varying from one to three weeks, sometimes so violent as to incapacitate me for business and confine me to my bed. At times the attendant inflammation would extend to the teeth, producing toothache; or to the throat, occasioning hoarseness and partial loss of voice; and twice within the last few years it has so affected the left eye as to confine me, for weeks, to a darkened room.

I had tried medicines and applications of various kinds, snuffs and other catarrhal preparations, some half a dozen kinds; application to the head of camphor, ginger and hot fomentations of different kinds; and in connection with these the usual emetics or cathartics employed to induce counter action. But none of these had produced any permanent improvement, and those few instances in which temporal relief was afforded it, was at the expense of so much strength as to leave me greatly exhausted. Under these circumstances I was led, though with reluctance, from the supposed insurability of the disease, to make a trial of your treatment. I found it soon even beyond my hopes, reaching the disease as it had never been reached before, and alleviating its symptoms to an extent which I had supposed impossible. At the time I gave you my former certificate, while I did not feel assured of a complete cure, I had obtained a material relief which amply repaid me for my trial of your treatment, and which satisfied me that your treatment was as effective as it was simple and philosophical. A substantial escape from my old attacks of Catarrh for the unprecedented period of nearly half a year; and that in spite of severe occurrences of illness which would have formerly rendered such an attack inevitable, was, to me, proof of an important success. It is now six months since I sent you that statement, and while it is unpleasant to appear thus constantly, and in this guise, before the public, it seems to me a matter of simple justice to yourself, and to those who may be suffering as I was, to add that I am not only as fully satisfied as to the utility and efficacy of your method of treating catarrh as I was six months ago, but I am now of the belief that if there is such a thing as a cure for chronic catarrh, in my case a substantial cure has been effected.
Yours, respectfully,
FREDERICK S. JEWELL.
Albany, N. Y., Sept. 1, 1864.

ALBANY, Jan. 25th, 1864.
DR. LIGHTHILL—Dear Sir: It is with great satisfaction that I communicate to you the effects of the medicines you gave me, for defective hearing. I followed your directions, and am happy to state that I am now so far recovered after the first few applications as to feel quite confident that I am well and shall not need to proceed further.
Be assured, my dear sir, if necessity should require, I should not hesitate to place myself under your kind hands.
Yours with respect, D. H. COLE,
Alderman, Ottawa county, N. Y.
