ESTABLISHED IN 1786.

This noble charity was the scene of A very pleasant reunion of the friends and patrons of pleasant rounion of the friends and patrons of the institution on Sunday evolution. It is the custom of its worthy genitema and ominent practical philadithropist, who this to long labored in our midsl in the calls of saffering humanity and who issugurated and has for many years conducted this excellent institution, to give er-ery person connected with the stabilishment-patients and employees an appropriate Christ-mas present. Accordingly, quite a number of the friends of the institution assembled in the mash half of the juniting, on Sanday evening-to winness and partake in the distribution of these presents. After the gurents and patients and the presents of the gifts was proceeded with. Two long tables were half, at one of which the patients took their platters at the ta-ble in the order in which they found their names can the plates, on which was laid the present most saffed to the lasti-tutions. The patients took their platters at least the friends of the built were sound it. The mash safe of the base were half, at one of which the patients took their platters at the ta-ble in the order in which they found their names (an the plates, on which was laid the present most suffed to the insti-tutions. All of which they stood most fa-need, accompanied also with isome alight re-refreshments. All of the guests of gifts and matod of refreshments. The orderion was in-duced a pleasant one, and all present culoyed themselves in the base manneer. But we have yet to speak of the insti-tution of a Sowing Machino to Mr. Passavant, for the use of the Infirmary, This handsome present was purchased by the employees of the norease the usefulness of the institution.
