Oil Operations in Lawrence County. A correspondent writes us that every well sunk on the Mahoning, in Lawfence county, has yieldmore or less oil, excepting one, which is only one hundred feet deep. Several wells yield re cratico quantities, among them the Brown & Watson, Fort Sumter, and Strawbridge wells. A well on the Henley farm flows almost contin -quantity not ascertained. It may also be said of Slippery Rock that every well of any be said of Suppery Rock that every went of any considerable depth has obtained more or less off; and some of the wells, which are about being tabed, appear to contain a large quantity of oil. Oil springs have been known for many years in various parts of the county. There are at least two on the Mahoning, one on the frisbee farm, four miles below New Castle, one on the van four miles north of the town, one on Big.

Oil springs were known for many years in that county. The writer of this has seen at least two four miles below Newcastle. One is known on the run four miles south of New Castle, one on the Big Run at Armstrong's mill, and several on the lig fun a transtong a min, and exercision slippery Rock.

The Clinton well, 460 feet deep, two miles truth of Newcastle, in Big Run, though never pumped, demonstrates oil in large quantity, by the amount constantly rising in it and taken from it. No well has yet gone down to the third amd rock. There are about 250 feet of rock more than at Oh Creek, above the oil-bearing-strata. strata.
The Criminal Court. In the ease of David H. Bell, charged on oath

The defendant utterty failed to establish the fact of divorce, and the jury found a verdict of guilty. The doctor also pleaf guilty to a charge of adultery, and was remanded to all for sentence. We is said to be a man of rakish disposition; and its represented as having abandoned his wife. His intrigues have betti brought to a rather sudden termination. He will be sentenced on Saturday. The Draft in Manchester. Public notice was given in the horough of Manchester, on Wednesday, for a meeting of the circulad citizens, for the purpose of making arrangements to fill the quots of the borough

There were a number present who have no personal interest in filling the quote, not bed. g liable to draft, while very flow of those who ought to have been there were present. The action of the meeting was tersely recented as follows:
