CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(PROM EXCERDATE EXECUTE GAZZTAL) Visit to the House of Refuge. The Grand Jury, together with a number invited guests, visited the House of Refuge, Saturday, for the purpose of examining the In-stitution. The entire building was thoroughly inspected, and everything found to be in miniition both in regard to comfort and

After the inspection had been concluded the visitors, assembled in the chapel, where a mechanic was organized by calling Dr. McCandless I; the chair, and appointing ition. John M. Kirkpatrick, Samuel Douglass, Esq., Col. J. P. Glass and Joseph Irwin, Esq., Vicel Presidents; Wm. D. Cooper and D. M. Book, Esqs., acted as Secretaries. aries.
Mr. R. H. Kerr offered the following preamble of resolutions, which, after oppropriate remarks several gentlemen present, were unanimously appeals.

"Manuals. The present House of Refuge was called for as an act of humanity, where northiates in efime can be reformed, and youthful depredators brought to realize their misconduct, under benign, teachings and the instructive Jessons of these charged by law with the important task of ministering to their wants, we are pleased to find so much good has been inculcated by moral casalon, and from all we can learn and now witness we are proud to find that great good has resulted from the establishment of the "Western House of Refuge," where the vorth of both sexes are of Refuge," where the youth of both series are laught useful employment, with a proper know-tedge of that Great Being who holds the destiny of man, as he does nations, is his own keeping:

of mm, as he does nations, is his own keeping: therefore,

Ricolved, Thin the taxables present are much gratified at the able and efficient manner in which we find all things conducted, we can say in all candor, so far as we are able to judge—the progress made by the himates of this useful and charnable arylam is highly flattering to the Christian, and we feel conduct in the assection that snything donated will be properly and predestly expended in reclaiming and instructing the poor destitute youths committed to the fostering care of those employed by the worthy Board of Managers. the poor destitute youths committed to the fostering care of those employed by the worthy Board of Managers.

**Reservel** That the people who are the source of sli power, should take a deep and lively interest in strengthening the hands of our fellow cilizens, who give their time and attention in looking after and earling for the wilfare of youths of tender sig who here have the opportunity of an education with proper training for useful life breafter. It is a skey incumbent on all to see and know that children left destitute of parental care and wanderers in our highways have an asylam from famine and danger, where they are taught to love and adore the "Farrat of all Good." Revolved. That the Legislature of our State, and our worthy Chilef Magistrate, to whose liberality in times past this institution is so largely indebted, our thanks are eminently due; and in view of the admirable management and enlarged philanthropy of the House of Refuge of Western Pennsylvania, we beg for it a continuance of similar favors in the future, and wa assure those authorities that no more descrining object appeals to their sympathies throughout the length and breadth of the Commonwalth.

**Resolved.** That we tender our thanks to the ladies of the Institution for the kindness and attention manifested by them to all present, and we feel confident that the positions they hold are well and ably filled.

A Minister Charged with Perjury. Rev. Wm. Lynch, pastor of the South Com-mon M. E. Church, Allegheny, was arrested on Seturday, on a charge of perjury, preferred by Mr. Johnston, of the firm of Johnston & Scott, lewelers, Liberty street. The circumstances of the case, as near as we can ascertain them, are these: Leander B. Lynch, aged about nineteen years, and a son of the defendant, was an intimaintance of Mr. Scott, and frequently watches were missed from the store, and some time after suspicion was attached some time after suspicion was attached to young Lynch, in consequence of his having been behind the counter, at a time when both members of the firm were temporarily absent. Nothing was said, however, until several weeks after this occurrence, when a gentleman brought in a watch and offered it for alle to Mr. Johnston. It was immediately identified as the one which had been stolen from the story; but the narty offering it for sale in order to clear skirts, proved that he had purchased in those Cimiotic hearthcase, as that it had been the statement of the property of the mass before Mayor Lerry, but mg Lynch had in the meantime left the city, was streated at Uniontown, brought back, admitting the larcenty was the to buil in the sum of $500 for trial—ins father decoming answert. The reflect was made to have the case settled, and Mr. Lynch, who was very much distressed on account of the humiliating position in which his son had placed him, agreed to pay the value of the stolen watch, and the expenses of the suit. This promote that the p watch, and the expenses of the suit. This proposition, we believe, was accepted, but the members of the firm, having discovered other losses, demanded $300 in settlement of their claim. This Mr. Lynch refused to pay, alleging that they were stiempling to take advantage; of his increstles, and extort money from him. Thus matters stood for a time, when the necessary papers were made out to callst young Lynch, as a substitute for a drafted man named Thomas B. Stewsie, of Lawrencettlle, for the consideration of $1,000. On the 22d of September, Mr. Lynch appeared before Alderman Johns, and made the namel sindays in such cases; which, among other things, contains this clause: "I have no knowledge of his having been charged with, or convicted of any felony." Messen Johnston & Scott, not having been reimbursed for their losses, entered suit gainst Mr. Lynch for perjury, and the case exime up before Commissioner Sproull on Schurlay, but by arrangement of counsel was Goring operations still from at Deer Creek and Blyson's Rus, and the indications' are getting better-every day. The excitement runs very ligh. A derrick is being exceted near Reidsburg for the purpose of boring for oil, and the people in that vicinity are very sanguine of finding plenty of the greasy fluid. Lands everywhere along the Clarion are rapidly changing hands, and preparations are being made for putting down a great number of wells in the Spring-Strangers are dropping in every day for the purpose of innying land or examining the territory. J. D. Porter, Est, of Clarion borough, has sold his property on the Clarion above towa, known as the "Kelley farm," for $5,000, and the purchaser immediately disposed of it for $5,000. A Held Larcenys-$370 in Maney and St. 154 in Notes Stolen. On Sunday night a targuly of a singular character was perpetrated of Fifth street, opposite the Union Telegraph office, by a notorious scoundrel, named Hugh Slattery, a resident of Hardcrabble. A gentleman named Charles Davidson, a stranger but recently arrived from Cincia-path, while walking along Puth street, slipped and ell, stunning himself severely. Slat-ery was standing close by at the time, evidently waiting for something to turn up," and whe

"waiting for something to turn up," and when he saw the prostrate man he hattened towards alm and helped him up. While thus apparently acting the part of the "good Samaritau," it was only to give him is better chance to play the thief. As he raised the man up, he thief, As he raised the man up, he relieved him of his pocket book, containing $370 in hank bills, and eight promisory notes, amounting in the agreegate to $1,491.92. The larceny was discovered so quickly that the night police were juit upon Sindeny's track, and chasted him a considerable distance. They then visited his dwelling, but finding it barred against liem, and fearing to force an entrance (not having a warrant) they shaudoned any further effort to arrest him. At an early hour in the morning Mayor Lowry dispatched a force of officers in search of the offender, but he has not yet been arrested. He is, well known to the police, and

[From the Home Journal, June Uk.] In every business or profession, indeed in everlepartment of science or skill, there is always some behavioredged head—some one who stands the incold relief among his feliows, as a sort of leader.
In the study and treatment of Deathess and Ostions the study and treatment of Deathess and Osdisk afty, occupies just the postille ORTHITALIA, this afty, occupies just the postille of the speislity, and is now reaping the reward of his industry. The editorial columns of the Tribung of a recent date, bear witness to the Doctor's success in his department of medicine. We quote the para
