The Fort Fisher Affair.

The Fort Fisher Affair. The official dispatches with reference to the expedition egains. Willington, reveal the fact that it was never intended by Lleut. Gen. Grant that Gen. Builter should command the fact forces. It is was simply to sond Gen. Weitzel in command, and all the issurations were ad-dressed to the latter officer by General Builter's chief of staf, Brig. Gen. Turner. The failure of the sudertailing is not accribed to this. On this contrary, Licut. Gen. Grant altrihuies it to the delay of the naval force caused by the prepara-tion of the powder best. This gave the onemy time to bring back to Willmangton and fort is berron. It was intended by Grans that the attack be mude before Shorman got to the coast, and if this had been done it might have been successfullar. 7. 7. 7. 7.
