BIRLE ANSIVERSART.—Our readers will bear in mind that the Yonoy Mens' Bible Society of Pittsburgh will hold their forty-seventh anniver-sary in the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Sixth street, this evening, at seven o'clock. Ad-The author of this work is a Pittsburgh erginate. By Rev. A. M. Stewart, Chaplain 1043 Rev. P. Y. The author of this work is a Pittsburgher, and at the time the war broke out was pastor of a church in the Finh ward. He went out as Chap-lain with the old 13tbragiment, in the three months service, and reinfined with it when it realisted for three years are decame the 1031 Regiment, accompanying it in its marches and hattles during its three years's sart became the 1032 Regiment, accompanying it in its marches and hattles during its three years's are the the er-periences in camp were detailed in letters to one of the refliguous paperso fiths city, and the book be-fore usis made up of indicious selections from that correspondence. It is a very handsome rolume, and its contents, as far as we are able to judge from a necessarily slight examination, will well repay perusal. The time has not ret come. We time, for writing the history of this war, nor is the public unind in the proper mode for hooking back upon the track of its progress, hence such books as this will be more sough after in years to come, perhaps, than now; but it the mean-time, all who are disposed to puse and look hack npon the listory of a Pittsburgh regiment, and the experiences which it has had in common with all other regiments, will find Mr. Stewart's book not neworitly of their attention.
