On Tuesday, an information was made before Mayor Morrison charging Mrs. Mary A. Sweeny with obtaining one hundred dollars by false pretense. The information was made by Mr. P. J. Uiling, of the Second Ward, Allegheny, and an stion developed the following somewhat singular state of facts:

Mrs. Rima E. Bweeny, residing on Rilge street, Allegheny, sone years ago lost her husband by death in California, and had from time to time been receiving remittances from her agent, Mr. J. W. H. Campbell, who was settling up her husband's business at San Francisco. She testified that a draft for $100 25, payable in coin (lees $4.44, difference in exchange) had been mailed to her from San Francisco, and must have reached the Phitsburgh office in the aument of 1502, as, in the month of August of that year, this letter was advertised as uncalled for. She called for it at the post-office, sometime afterward, and was informed that it had either been taken out or figurated to the dead letter office. singular state of facts: celled for it at the post-office, sometime afterward, and was informed that it had either been taken out or for warded to the dead letter office. It was not until May, 1304, that she ascertained it has the letter had been taken out of the paid that the letter had been taken out of the paid filled by the wrong person, and ou tracing the matter to its source, it was found that a woman named Mary A. Sweeny, lad drawn the money on the draft from Messrs. Kramer & Rahm, benkers and that she had need and forged the name of Elma E. Sweeny, lat the fraudulent procurement of the money. This matter had given the lang much measiness, as she had notified her agent in California that the draft never reached her, and the agent, in his reply, intimated that ahe must have received the money, but falled to acknowledge its receipt.

It appears that Mrs. Mary A. Sweeny, some time in the summer of 1804, called on Mr. P. J. Urlieg, and stated that she had received a draft from her brother in California, and that before she could draw the money she would have to take some one to the hank to identify her as the parson named in the draft. Being acquained with her, he arccompanied her to the beath and vonched for her as Mrs. Sweeny, whereupon the money was paid. It having been proven saits factionly that Mrs Mary A. Sweeny had personated Mrs. Elma E. Sweeny, and had obtained the money through fraud, Mr. Urling made an information charging her with obtaining money was flate pretchees.

The defendant was arrested, and after a hearing she stated that she did not deny having obtained the money at Kramer & Rahm's, and that the draft was her own. On being asked how she came to have a draft son! to her from California, and that the draft was in payment of that the draft was her own. On being asked how she came to have a draft was in payment of that held on the stated, however, that she had lost the letter which contained the draft was in apprent of that held to name at the next term of evert lier allegations. In default of $000 uni nu was committed to answer at the next term of court. She is also liable to indictment for forgery, having endorsed the draft "E. O. Sweeny," before receiving the money from the bank. She is a widow about, thirty-five years of are, and has "have such the bank of the same and the second statement of the same and the second statement of the same and the ter and Lawrenceville. Manchester Council At the regular meeting of this body, held on Tuesday evening, a delegation from the Bount Fund Committee presented a request to Committee cil, asking them to subscribe $10,000 towards the fund in the name of the borough, and pro Ising to raise the balance ($5,900.) A Weaver, Etq., had before him to-day several per one charged with a violation of the ninety-nin prohibits any one from purchasing cigars while have not been stamped. There are a goodly number of love and girls engaged in hawking cigars about the streets, upon which no stam cigars about the streets, upon which no stam duty has been paid, and every person purchasing from such parties is liable to a fine of fifty dol lars for each and every offens. Smokers should be on their guard in this respect or it may prove to them an expensive experiment. A Rough Customer. Genrye Green work to the house of a neighbo named Bradley, on Wednesday morning, and knocking at the door, was admitted. As soon as he was inside of the house, he jumped upon Mr. Bradley, and was beating him in a torrible manner, when the son interfered. Green then writ at the young man, knocked him over the store, and annahed, things promisciously. We could not learn what originated the row, but the blame seems to rest wholly on Green. He was held to half for his annexance at his next tarm seld to ball for his appearance at the next term ESCAPED FROM JAIL -- John Martin, who we arrested in Allegheny, last week, for the larcen; of a horse and sloigh from a gentleman in Nov Castle, escaped from the county jail at-the place on Monday night, by breaking from hi cell and scaling the wall. He was tracked a considerable distance over fields and into the woods siderable distance over fields and into the woods, but at last accounts he had not been arrested. The Sheriff of Lawrence county offers a reward of $25 for his arrest. THE DIVISION OF THE THIRD WARD.—The division of the Third ward is no longer a matter of doubt but an accomplished fact. The bill has been signed, and Mayor Dodge has instructed Captain Foster to assign the Third and Tenth wards separate quotas. This settles the matter, unless the Legislature, repeals the bill, which is not at all likely. ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday of last week, Mr. Joseph L. McQuiston, of West Fallowfield, Crawford county, while engaged in ranning a lash machine, moved forward to kick the days from under the large circular saw, when it caught his pants at the top of his boot-leg, and drew him against the saw, which broke and mutilated his leg in the most horrible manner. HAND CRUSHED.—A lad named Cooper, son of J. M. Cooper, reading on Walant street, Fifth ward, had his hand caught between the cogs of a wheel in his father's brass foundry yesterday, and his fingers crushed in a horrible manner. One of them was ampulated by Dr.; Walters, but the others will probably be saved. SURPRISING!—A number of the citizens of Oll City hast week surprised the Rev. W. P. Moore, of the Presbyterian Church, by presenting him with a purve of $1,140 in groenhasks. Such conduct as this would surprise almost any body, and would hierally adound an cition. On Strike.—Mr. Charles Halpes strack at excellent vein of oil in a new well he is drilling on the Lee farm, just opposite Oil City, one day last week, at the depth of 389 feet. This show occurred in the second sand rock. A MINISTER BREEFITTED—At a docation gives in Connelleville last Thursday evening for th benefit of Rev.
