ders from Victor Emanuel's agent to leave their monastry in five days." -----It is asserted that His Holiness, the Pope, will send the list and sword which received his benediction previous to the Christmas ceremoales, to the Emperor Maximillian. The hat is of crimson velvet, lined with ermine, trimmed with a golden cord, having a dove-the symbol of the Holy Ghost-in the middle of the crown. The gift is made to the prince or potentate whose conduct during the past year has demonstrated most obedience to, and zeal in the cause of Holy Mother Church.

The Palmody question is attracting a good deal of attention across the water, as well as in this country. The discussion is very spirited, and we look for good results from the ventilation of the subject. The Presbyterian says the English Presbytenans are earnestly discussing the subjec of "Praise." The articles in Peter Baine's Weekly Review, of a late date, are written with much intelligence, and no little warmth of feeling.

ing record on the Pope's Encyclical Letter: "It is our painful duty to record a terrific explosion which has just occurred at the Vatican. This accident arose from want o caution on the part of the Pope and the College of Cardinals, in projecting a fulmenating composition which they had been some time engaged in preparing for the demolition of all modern ideas. Almost before the distructive mixture had left their hands, it blew up with a noise which was heard all over Europe, and morally brought the ven erable edifice in which they were assembled about their cars." -The Unitarians have adopted the course of the Congregationalists, in calling a National Convention, to meet in New the first week in April. Greater by and uniformity it is expected will the efforts to advance the interests of denomination. The Convention will deliberate upon the various means of awak. ing Unitarian denominational life, by means of schools, colleges, seminaries, books, papers, tracts, reviews, magazines, Sunday schools, missions, church extension, and
