A meeting of Oil merchants was held at t office of the Standard Oil Works, on Friday effice of the Standard Oli Works, on Friday af termoon, to take some action in reference to the proposed tax on crude petroleirm. Samuel Rich ardson, Esq., presided, and Dr. Twedgle acted as Secretary. After a full interchange of views in which it was agreed that the proposed tax would result most injuriously jito the oil interest of the country, on motion of Mr. Waring the following named gentlemen were appointed a committee to visit Washington and use their committee to visit Washington and use their fillows to defeat the proposed tax, or have it as modified that the interests of the trade would not suffer? Maj. Wm. Frew, Bateman Goe Josinh King, J. A. Hutchinson, James O'Hara II. Brady Wilkins, David Ritchie, James Magraw, John A. Canghey and C. W. Barber, C. C. Burke Levi Wade and R. S. Waring.

ARRIVAL OF THE WAYS AND MEANS COM-MITTER.—The Ways and Means Committee of the Legislature arrived in this city this moraing, at six o'clock, from Harrisburg, for the purpose of examining into the condition of our public institutions. They were accompanied by three of our members—Hon. 7. J. Higham, of the Sen-ate, and Mesers. Glass and Colville, of the House. They should have reached this city five hours sooner, but were detained in consequence of the rallroad accident noticed elsewhere. They took rooms at the Monongaluch House, and arrang-house, examined the register, in the office, and took a note of the names of the guests in the house, and the number of the rooms in which they were lodged. Finding a negro boy at the Revere House, they compelled him to show them over the house. Then raising their salves, in scabbards, in their field hands, to keep them from clanking—their revolvers in their right hands, and on tip-toe, they entered Gen. Crooks' room, surprised him asleep, and took him from his bed. Another party at the same time paid their respects to Gen. Kelly—running him off "en dishabille" just as he slept, together with his adjutant, who was captured along with him.

The whole affair was managed so quietly, that the guests in the house knew nothing of the occurrence until they arose in the morning.

The writer does not state whether any others than the three persons mentioned, were captured, but, if they were not, it mast have been owing rather to the fears of the guerrillas, than to any precautions on the part of the commanders of our troops to prevent the guerrillas from carrying off whoever they choose to arrest. An Unfortunate Affair, CITY AND SUBURBAN. Last night, a young boy named James Mur PROM SATURDAY'S RYENING SAMPLE) ray, in company with a companion named Maltland, was discovered in the grocery store of Mr Shocking Casualty on the Pennsylvania Railrond—Two Persons Killed and Twenty Wounded—The Company Con-aired by the Passengers. John Dorrington, of Temperanceville, and or starting to run, was shot at by Mr. Dorrington. The first shot missed, when another was fired with effect—the bail entering the fleshy part of Murray's arm. He was arrosted and takes to the Mayor's office, but as he was under the influence of liquor, and has heretofore sustained a good charactest for honesty, Mr. Derrington declined to prosecute him, and he was discharged. The affair is very much regretted by the friends of the young man, who is, very respectfully connected, and only about eighteen years of age. The circumstances indicate that he had no criminal listent in trespassing thom Mr. Dorrington's premises, and that he got himself, "not the dilliquity solely from the too free use of liquor.

One of the trains ran into the rear of the other, and set it on fire. A large amount of petroleum and other valuate property was destroyed. while the three remaining passenger cars wentover. These three cars rolled down the embankment, and were body broken. A scene of indescribable confusion followed. Men and woman were shoutlog and screaming in the wildest, n. soner, and all who were able to use their limbs were making the most frantic efforts to escape from the wreek. The foremost of the cars had turned completely ever, and lay stotem upward, the next had rolled over on its side, while the third had sild down to within a few feet of the hottein of the embankment. An soon as those passengers who were unlipited escaped from the wreek, they set shout rescuing their more unfortunate fellow passengers. A hanging down partly in the water and partly on the broken tecover the stream. He was ent out, and at last accounts was able to six up. Both of there passengers would have died, had it not been for the timely all rendered them.

It was discovered that two men were lying crushed beneath the roof of the first car, and after considerable labor the timbe was out away so as to effect their removal, but they were both found dead. Their manuels were Joseph
