SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 1865. RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE. The Church Journal, (High Church Episopal) says that "the Church has expressly rohibited the recognition of any Orders no Episcopal: and that is conclusive as to all Protestant denominations who have inot true Bishops. The "Church" of course means the "P," int Episcopal Church in the United State From the same paper we learn that Bishop Potter of New York offered the priests of the Russian Church the use of Trinity Church, which was accepted, and it states that the Moravian ministers are entitled to the same courtesy; and the same authority asserts that Roman priests are admitted to Episcopal churches without re-orination, while "English and American Bishops agree in rejecting Methodist ordination as amounting to nothing, because their Bishops are bogus." This course is indeed manifested to ministers of other deominations as well as to Methodists. The Observer, in an article on the 'Canons of the Church,"calls attention to the privilege recorded to the Greek priest, and states Rev. Dr. Jonas King, who has lived more than birty years in the midst of the Greeks, and knows their faith and practice, testifies hat the Greek Church at home worship the Virgin Mary, saying in their form of hea." It condemns graven images, but raculous agency of relics and pictures of he Virgin, and thousands make annual pilgrimages to favorite shrines where her living interposition is sought. The Chur Journal, referring to the recent Greek Church service in Trinity Church, says: The highest satisfaction and admiration ere expressed by all who were present. A few (old women of both sexes and various ages) thought they saw 'Popery' here and "Popery" there; but they were soon laughed out of it. There was no more 'Popery' in that service than there is in our own." And yet the Tablet, a Catholic paper published in New York, organ of Archbishop McCloskey, chuckles ver the service being held amidst "Prot estant approval, in a Protestant chapel, and Protestant request." The closing words of the Observer, after giving the article en tire from the Tables, are sharp and point and read thus: "That is what the Old Lady of Rome thinks of it. She knows it vas Popery; out and out idolatry; a protration of the Protestant religion at the hrine of the Virgin Mary inthe high places
