BLLIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE. The New York Observer has an editorial atitled "Fanitary Supplies for the Souls of Soldiers," which contains some facts hat are significant. It appears information has been received of the wide and constant circulation of Universalist and Unitarian Tracts in the army, through the agency of the Sanitary Commission. The Observer in speaking of the matter, alleges that it is "not to find fault, either with those who furnish or those who distribute them.' The fact is used to awaken increased activity and interest to send the pure Gospelhe pure bread of life—to our brave soldiers. The following quotation from a Tract for a sick soldier, published by the American Unitarian Association, and distributed by the Sanitary Commission, in the hospitals of the army, from the Potomac to the mouth of the Mississippi, is full of the doctrine of Universalism: "GoJ is love, and he loves us right through. He loves us here, he will love us yonder. He loves us now, he will love us forever. Death makes the body is dead, then God takes that one good grain that is in us all, and plants it again in better soil than this and under a kindlier sky, and he will care for us and see to our growth forever and forever." This tract has had a wide circulation. The Observer says, while it cannot object to the Sanitary Commission distributing what is ent to them under their rule to circulate all the books and tracts sent to them, complajos that it is carrying the thing a little in the hospitals of the army. Attention is then called at the close of the article to two points towards which it is proper the friends of the Savitary Comnission and the friends of the Gospel of the New Testament should weigh: 1. If the Sanitary Commission undertakes to distribute religious instruction to the army, it carnot discriminate against books, containing Roman Catholic, Universalist, or even rationalistic and infidel sentiments. It then comes a question whether this was the obiect for which the Sanitary Commission was instituted? 2. If the Sanitary Commission is employed in distributing Universalls tracts to an "unlimited amount," Is it not he duty of evangelical Christians to put forth vastly augmented efforts, to give the knowledge of the way of life by Jesus Christ, o them who are ready to perish? A ras. smount of good has been done by the circuation of a healthy religious literature, and the work ought to increase and extend. It rill be remembered the Rev. Dr. Bellews. distinguished Unitarian, is at its head. te drift of the editorial scems to be against he Sanitary Commission distributing roligous reading at all, but to leave that work on far, when their agents, who are paid for another work, should make imploring appeals for Universalist tracts, to distribute o other agencies formed for that purpose. --- At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Managers of the American Bible Society, held some days since, it was reported the policy of the imperial asurpaon in Mexico has been changed, and permission has been granted to the agent of the society in that country to sell Bibles and Testaments. Appropriations were made for the ensuing year to the foreign work, amounting to $40,600. Books were gran ed to the number of 106,275 volumes, most r to the United States Christian Commis ion. Bishop Janes was appointed a dele ste for the Society to attend the anniver sary of the British and Foreign Bible Soci ety in May. -The U.P.Presbytery of Allegheny will et on Tuesday evening, April 4th, 1865, n the Fifth Church, Allegheny, at which ime and place Rev. D. M. B. M'Lean will e installed pastor of the Fifth Church. ---- Chiniquy, who left the Catholics and sined the Preshyterians seems to be in had olor among them, judging from the severe things said of him by the press of that de-comination. It is said he now stands "Impeached before his own Presbytery," in Canada, to which he fled for discipline in be Old School Presbytery in Hilnois. ---- According to the American Presby erian, a wonderful revival is in progress in the Baptist, Method'st and Prosbyterian churches of Detroit. Such is the interest hat on a recent Sunday evening the Young Men's Hall, which, through the week had en occupied for theatrical purposes, was densely crowded, some 2,500 personsenter ing, young and old, crowding on the platform and within the scenes, which had to be thrown open by raising the curtain. The services were especially for the benefit of young men. It was a colemn meeting llundreds were brought under the powero the truth, and gave manifestations of the act, some in the joy of their hearts, which had embraced the Lord, and others by asking for prayers of Christians, and inquiring what they should do to be saved. -A grand meeting in behalf of the Christian Commission was held in the Academy of Music, New York, last Sabbath evening. Rev. Dr. Vinton presided and made an earnest statement of the great work in hand. Referring to the two Commissions, he said the other is Sanitary : his is Baving. The following facts wer stated: In 1862, the Christian Commission received $40,169; in 1863, $358,289; in 1864, $1,297,577. The American Bible Soclety donated to the Commission in 1863 books to the amount of $10,956; in 1863, -The National Unitarian Convention

$45,071; in 1864, $73,114. will commence its sessions at the Broadway Athenœum, New York, April 5th onvention sermon will be preached by Pev. J. F. Clarke, D.D., at All Saint's herch, on Tuesday evening.

The Obristian Register says the American Unitarian Association has re ceived permission from the Secretary of War of sending its agents and publication to apy part of the army. Arrangement are now in progress to send at once its igents to the South. -Rev. Dr. Neale, in a sermon delivered at the Second Bantist Church, Boston, made an eloquent plea in favor of open com nunion, and a more enlarged conception of Christian brotherhood. Rev. Evan M. Johnson, an Episcopal minister, who recently died in Brooklyn, in the 73d year of his age, during the course o his ministry of fifty years, united nearly 4,000 couples in marriage, and baptized nearly 10,000 children. At the time of his decease he was the oldest settled Episcopal clergymen in the State of New York. Quite an extensive revival of religion is reported at the Newville (Pa.) Lutheran church, in which more than fifty persons any of them heads of familes—hysbands and wives professed to have found peace - The Examiner and Chronicle gives the following as the peculiarities of the Baptist Church government: "The Baptists are independent. They claim they are free from allegiance to kinge, bishaps, coun cils and synods deriving their authority and responsible to none but him. Our As sociations, Conferences, Councils and State time extent and emacated of successful greater portion of the city is left a complet wreck. The account sums up as follows: Boston Recorder says in that city the in-

In the First Ward, John Dyer, Jr., has received authority to recruit, and has opened an office at the corner of Lacock and Federal streets, and has quite a number of names on the roll. A local bounty of $500 is offered. Mr. Dyer is well-known to the cliticans of the ward, and we have no doubt that, with proper effort on behalf of the enrolled men, the quota can be speedily filled. Captain Byer announces that he will receive such recruits from other districts as may desire to emist with him.

In the Second ward, Capt. J. F. McDonald is recruiting, with very fair prospects of success. If has now about fifteen names curolled, with an indefinite number promised. In addition to those on the Captain's roll, we understand the sumber property was function to other poperty was function.

In the Second ward, Capt. J. F. McDonald is recrulibg, with very fair prospects of success. He has now about iffteen names curolled, with an indefinite number promised. In addition to those on the Captain's roll, we understand that quite a number have been enlisted by a gentic-man employed at the outer depot, who proposes to raise twenty men in that section of the ward. In the Third ward, Capt. Kohen and Lient. Herman bave been authorized to regrift a com-In the Third ward, Capt. Kohen and Lieut. Herman have been authorized to recruit a company, and they have opened their muster rolls at the Maita House, an latthe Provest Marshal's office, Federal street. Gapt. Kohen has seen active service, having been a member of Colone Clark's regiment. Lieut. Herman has been for some time past employed as a detective by Capt. Kirker, and is one of his most energetic and reliable officers. Neither of these men are liable to military duty, but they are willing to do what they can to save the ward from the hardship of a draft. They offer a bounty of $550, and it is probable that this amm may be increased. The time for recruiting is now exceedingly limited, and whatever is done must be done within the next few days. We have so doubt that this control. "Delays are dangerous," and the ward; and if they do not entills before, they will certainly be anxiona to do see after the draft is ordered. "Delays are dangerous," and the county, goes into the service under circumstantes very different from those of the consentity. Those, therefore, who cannot afferd to run the risk of the draft, act the part of wise men to enlist and take the local bounty.

The Flood, at Franklim—Further De-

The Flood at Franklin-Further De-We are indebted to Captain Longhrey, of the steamer Belle, for a copy of the Venango Spectater, containing some further details in regard to the great flood. The Belle reached the city this morning, at eight o'clock, bringing down eight hundred and sixty-three barrels of oil, and a large number of passengers. The Spectator is issued on a half sheet, the flood having cut of the cellor's supply of paper. After alluling to the editor's supply of paper. After aliuling to the rapid rise of the river, the editor says: On Friday morning the river presented a scene desolation never before witnessed. Sweeping of desolation never before witnessed. Sweeping along with resistless fury, it carried everything in its course. Dwelling houses, ware-houses, work-shope, manufactories, with all their farniture, goods, tools and machinery still in them, went rushing by to destruction. Derricks, and all concomitant fixtures of oil wells, even to heavy steam bollers, were as thick on the stream as anumn leaves on a brook. But the greatest destruction was in oil-barrels, filled and empty. The river was darkened with them. Thousands were constantly in sight, and passing as railroad speed. It took from four to five hours to exhaust the steady run. epc.d. It took from four to five hours for exhaust the steady run.

Early on Friday morning it was seen that the lower French Creek bridge was doomed. The water was beauing against the structure, and drift wood accumulating against it. Finally it was feared that dashing against the new suspension bridge over the Allegheny, it would carry that structure slong, but the new bridge steed the shock unharmed.

However, great fears, were entertained of the Allegheny bridge in consequence of the current washing around the anchors which secure the Thoupper French Creek bridge is somethed damaged but written its seather. On account of travel being suspended, we are mable to learn all the damage that has been done.

But the greatest destruction was at Oil City. The flat where the oil warehouses were situated, was swept clean. The bridge over oil creek was carried off. The water was up to the flow of the bill, and oil barrels, heavy tanks, and evolumes, were carried by the current down Main street. The railrord track is badly torn up, but it is expected that trains will pass between here and Meadville this week. It will be some time longer before they will run to Oil City. We have heard of but little loss of life by the flood. One gentleman, Mr. Heckerd, connected with the refinery at the Point, was endeavoring to save some property by means of a flat boat cohnected to the shore by a rope, and the boat capsing, be became entangled in the rope and was drowned before ald could reach him. The water is estimated to have been from ten feet higher than during the great flood :33.

A Considerate Pickpocket. It is not often that a pickpocket will go to the rouble to examine the contents of your pocks rok after he has stolen it, and taking suc amount as he thinks you can spare, return the balance to your pocket. Such a case was developed before Mayor Lowyto-day. A man named Patrick Delancy appeared before his finor and stated that, while lying on a lounge at his boarding house in the First Ward, a fellow boarder named Martin Beynolds came and lay down beside him. He soon after fell asleop, and when he waked up he found that his pocket book had been tampered with. He had one hundred and fiften dollars in his book when he lay down, but ou counting it over the sum had been tessened by just forty-five dollars. He at once suspected Reynolds, and a warrant was issued for his arrest. On scarching the secured, the menoy was found concealed in his rook. Thore was among the stolen money a ten dollar note which Delancy described accurately, he fore it was found as his. Reynolds was committed to juli for trial. smount as he thinks you can spare, return the
