Levis, of Sharpsburg, presided, and J. M. Porter and J. G. Stevenson acted as Secretaries. A proposition from J. Edgar Thompson, of the Pennsylvania railroad, was submitted to the meeting. The proposition was to the effect that the Pennsylvania Railread Company would build the read, provided the funds could be raised by outside partics. They offer, racecurity, to issue six per ceat. mortgage bonks for the security is used of the read, and as an additional security, and to provide a sinking fund for their redempilon, offer to rearve the one-eighth of all the freight that passes over the road, and from it or to it, over the main line (Pennsylvania Coutra) in their bonds as cash at par, provided that the said one-eighth does not exceed one hundred thous-and dolines per annum. The read is estimated to cas $500,000. The proposition not being deemed as official, was not seriously considered. After some discussion, participited in by Mes-ars.Coffin, Karna, Ex Gov. Johnston, Hile, Por ter, Chaifant and Bissell, a'committee was ap-pointed to visit Philadelphia and confer with Mr. Thermoin as to what assistance could be ob-tained from the Pennsylvania Ruiroad Company towards building the road. The examinate con-sists of Measra, Joseph Coffin, Hurry Pember-ton, Francis Karna and J. C. Lewis. A majority of those present expressed the opinion that the road world no doubt be built at an earlyidy, and that sufficient funds could be raiswed for that purpose from parties realding along the line.
