GRANT'S GREAT MOVEMENT.

The Fighting on Friday and Saturday.

AGONY OF THE CAVALRY OPERATIONS.

DESPERATE REBEL CHARGES.

TERRIBLE REPULSE AND SLAUGHTER.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM OF OUR MEN.

New York, April 3.—The rebels' special report of Friday's fighting is a most interesting one and shows that Grant's movement was made to advance upon the enemy

at a point where the White Oak road, the object being to possess

that line and to cut the South Side railroad.

At light of day

the rebels were engaged in a desperate

fight with the Union troops at the point where the

White Oak road

crossed the

South Side

railroad.

The fighting

was very

desperate and

the rebels

made several charges which were repulsed with great loss.

The

Union

troops

showed great

enthusiasm

and
