CITY AND SUBURBAN. FROM YESTERDAY & SYREING GAZETTE.) Arrest of a Bounty Jumper. A notorious bounty jumper named F. H. sthgate, allas Fisher, was arrested vesterday lirker's office. This fellow recently resided is Builer county, and not long since presented him ard. Allegheny, but was rejected-not being and the way of the manager, Onlo, enlisted as a sub-little, and was sent to Columbas, where he described. He pext turned up in Crawford county, where he was married a few weeks since. Provost Marshal Kirker was apprised of the fact of Fisher's describen, but he kept clear of the wichilt.

of Fisher's descriton, but he kept clear of the vicinity.

On yesterday morning Officer Herman, who had been to New Brighton on business, discovered the man on the New Castle accommodation train, coming it this city, and on his arrival at the Federal street station, took him into cautody. Fisher first assumed the air of an injured man, and was quite indignant at the arbitrary manner is which he was deprived of his freedom. He finally yielded to the persuadons of the officer, and was taken before Capitalo Kirker, by whom he was turned over to the Post Commandent in this city. Fisher has undoubtedly but very recently received a bounty, as he was well supplied with money. At the time of his strest he was on his way cast. He has traveled under the name of Cross, Ferry, Freeman, Fisher, and Southpate, and Is an accomplished bounty-jumper.

On Tuesday evening, three men, while under ress, and refused to let any person pass-c amed Simeon Paul Louis, while quietly passing struck him a severe blow on the head with a handy-billy. The blow felled the old man, after which he was brutally kicked by his assailant. The outrage attracted the attention of the citizens, and Alderman Batter, happening to pass by, ordered the arrest of the parties. Two of them were secured and conveyed to the Mayor's office, but the other examped. The parties arrested are John Hauvy and Thomas Henrick. They were held over until this morning for a hearing—Mr. Louis being unable to visit the Mayor's office sconer. It appeared from the failmony that these men, who are industrious citizens, had become too much claided over the news from Richmond, and got into company with a ruffian named John Whittaker, the individual who made the murderous essailt upon truck him a severe blow on the head with idnal who made the murderous secault upon Mr. Louis. It further appeared that Haney and Henrick endeavored to save the old man from being abused. They had to admit, however, that they were drunk and disorderly, and for Arrest of a Deserter. Provost Marshal Foster having received intel-ligence that a deserter from the 155th Pennsylvania regiment, named John Hughey, had located himself in the vicinity of Logan's Ferry, on the Alleghedy river, about sixteen unless from this city, detailed special officers Thornburg and Nicholson, on Tuesday, to arrest him. The officers proceeded to the place indicated, and discovered Hughey working as a field, when they approached him and informed him of their errand. Hughey declined to defiver himself up, and, being a large and powerful man, showed fight, when the officers drew their revolvers, which intimidated him and he surrendered. He was then bandculled, and taken to Logan's Station on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, but the evening train having passed, the officers procured a shift, into which they placed their prisoner, and rowed his to this city, arriving at a late hour in the night. Hughey had a hearing before Capt. Foster yesterday, when it was ascertained that he had descried from his regiment about two years since, but had succeeded in evading arrest until Turesday.
