GOOD NEWS. The public heart was again thrilled with lorious news yesterday, and again it beat ligh and joyously as dispatch after dispatch unced the capture, first of part, and af. erwardsofall, of LER's army. Every flash If the lightning across the wires met with a orresponding pulsation in millions of loyal cooms; and shout after shout went up from Illions of loyal throats as the fact became lainer and plainer that the days of the Con-

deracy were actually numbered. This feeling of exultation was not altoether that of triumph over a fallen foe, mt rather of rejoicing that the blessings of Peace would once more return to the coun-There was nothing in it of the sensaion of anticipated vengeance, but it was bil of the heart-cheering conviction that he attempt, four years prolonged, to conummate the greatest of political crimes had teen defeated ; that Slavery, the curse of the nation, had been abolished : that with the return of Peace, now rendered certain and near, we shall forever be rid of louthern swaggery, Southern bullying and uthern domination; and that the heavy. firain upon the nation, for men and means

It is not only the day of triumph but the day of deliverance and in all the fervent rejoicings that have burst spontaneously from the masses, the sense of deliverance is plainly predominant. The people feel as if a great weight had been lifted off them, and that henceforth they are not to burdened with the incubus of doubt, apprehension and distrust which have so long oppressed them. "The Lord reigneth : let the earth reloice." P. S.-Later dispatches than those received yesterday afternoon state that it was CUSTIS LEE OF FITZ HUGH LEE, and not Gen. ROBERT E. LEE, who was taken, as stated in the dispatch to JAY COOKE. The latter, with the poor remainder of his army, is yet, for aught that has been heard, a large. The first dispatches of the capture of some thousands of LEE's troops, and six general officers, were true.

LEE'S OPINION. The report published some time since h the New York Tribune, giving the answer of General LEE to the inquiries of a com mittoe of the Rebel Congress, has never been denied by the Rebel papers, and hence the conclusion is inevitable that the report was correct The opinion was expressed by General

Las, on that examination, that he could Athald Richmond that the army wanted peace, and that the insurrection was pract cally over. The result has shown the wisdom of his forecast. He did all that any General could do to save Richmond, and has done all since that any brave soldler. could to save bis defeated army from capture: but he knew .beforehand that success was impossible, and he deserves the credit of being frank enough to say so. Another evidence of his conviction that the Rebellion was practically over is to be found in the fact that he left Mrs. Les an

If this be the case, DAVIS can have n rallying point East of the Mississippi, be cause there is there no army on which h can rely. There is an army, however West of the Mississippl under Kinny SMITH and MAGRUDER, and If DAVIS can escape Into Texas, lie may there find force enough to enable him to set up anew the standard of revolt. Me family in Bickmond when he saw that defeat and retreat were unavoidable. JEFF. BATIS sent As family of days beforehand so as to get them as far as possible away ficm Richmond ; but Gen. LEE, with equ opportupities, 'refused, to follow the exam ple. The reason is obvious. DAVIS had still some hopes that he could make a successful stand elsewhere;' LEE had none. and because he had none, and because he foresaw that his proy would fall, into GRART'S hands, he concluded to leave his family within easy reach, and in a place where he and they could sgain find safety. -under the American flag.

STANDING BY ITS PRIENDS. The Post, after fighting four years for the Rebeis, is inclined to stick by them to the elast. It does its best to belittle the victory at Richmond, and to make it appear that LEE has been evacuating Bichmond for some time. True, the facts are all agains it ; but what are facts in comparison with the interests of the great democratic party which require it to stand by its southern friends as the sole political hope of that par ty in the future ? For the sake of showing how a disloyal paper can talk, in the mid of universal rejolcing, we quote the follow ing from the Post of yesterday :

. General Grant, it scenes about ton days before the late lattice began, discovered that General Lee was quietly-moving all hisheavy guns, and that the robel Govern-ment was parking off its archives, prepara-tory to their evacuating. Richmond. This intelligence was simil to President Lincolo, when he, under the pretense of going to re-cruit his health, wentto Grant's soughead-onarters, there to remain in safety, until he cruit his meanin, went to Gradica suit heat-quarters, there to remain in safety, until he coold, at the fical of a hundred thousanil vistorious vettirans, march in triumph into vanquished 'Hickmond. "Having accom-plished this "miracolous military achieve-ment, the infomitible man fixed his head-curators at the his residence of Jeff. Davis. uartors at the late residence of Jeff. Davis As Gen. Lyz left all bis heavy guns be qua hind him, it must require the high cst pos ble effrontery to declare, in such a commu nity as this, that GRANT discovered, ten days since, that LEE was "removing all his heavy guns."

THE DISLOYAL PRESS. For some time past the people and the loyal I arers have paid but little attention to the deloyal press of the country; but new that the Recellion is put down, it may the as well to advise such papers as the Fost, the Greensburg Argus, the Johnstown eral, and their congeners, that the wivle of talk they have lately been indulging the might, with profit to themselves, be the pational atms, and when the public ing is wound up to a high pitch of exchimint, to speak of the inters, may not "Dicheries," and "fraughters," may not chime in very well with the public taste, or far too harshiy upon the public car A sold to the wise is said to be sufficient; fur serbers, they may not be included in the stegory.

The Baltimore American gives the fol lowing parting salute to the rebel "Govornment" and its attaches:

"Good byc, retel capital. Riebmond is stored to the Union. Good bye, rebel restored to the Union. Good bye, rebe Congress, you are scattered broadcast neve ted. Good-tye, Jeff Davis, you bogus Government is bursi, and you co-cupation's gain. Good-bye, rebel Cabinet, your drapatic rule is ended. Good-bye, Libby, the day of redemption' has broken your bonds and let, the oppressed go free.
