DAILY REVIEW OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

TUESDAY, April 11, 1853.
There was a general quietness of prices yesterday, with very little change in the market. The demand for all the leading commodities continues very strong, but there is nothing to indicate a tendency to a further rise. The market may be considered as ordinary to good ordinary, all paying well.

GRANITE.—White granite has sold at $100 per ton, and some small pieces at $100 per ton.

IRON.—Black iron has sold at $100 per ton.

LEAD.—Lead has sold at $100 per ton.

COAL.—Coal is quoted at $100 per ton.

WOOD.—Wood is quoted at $100 per ton.

IRON.—Iron is quoted at $100 per ton.
