It is stated on high authority (Dr. Nowhall, England.) that four fifths of the individuals who have lived for a year in the State of Illinois, become affected with a disease known under the name of Illinois tich. The Doctor is, without doubt, somewhat astray in his estimate of the proportionate number of persons affected, but it is a well known fact that there is such a disease, and it is often tund very intractable and difficult of cure.

proportionate number of persons affected, but it is a well known fact that there is such a disease, and it is often fund veryintratable and difficult of cure.

The disease begins with severe itching of the arms and legs, and various portions of the body, without any cruption, which induces the individual affected to rub and scratch himself vigorously to appease the senation. The effect of this indulptnee, however, is to bring out in a few seconds an eruption of small pimoles or points of irritation, of nearly the same color as the skin, and as they dry off become of a dark brown color. One curp of these otten disappears as another is evolved, the latter becoming vesticular after the lapse of a day or two. These vestches become pointed, and are filled with an acrid homor of a pale yellow color, which sometimes frets and inflamms the other parts of the body where it tone-hes. There is usually no inflammation or reduces around these pustules until start a great deal of scratching, which which seems to occasion the brammation which salvequently occurs. If the vesicial recipions he punctured with the point of a pin or usedle, they disappear without leaving any traces of their presence; but if their points be torn off at a later period, a watery fluid, mixed with blood, exuder, and black or brownish crusts are formed, which vanish in course of time, but leaves amail per manent clearitees behind them. Robbery at the Depot.—A gentleman, whose name we were unable to learn, had his pocket picked on Wednesday at the Pittsburgh, For Wayre and Chicago Railroad depot, of a pocket book containing four hundred and finy dollars. He was in the act of getting into the car, when he was jostled by a couple of men, and not trioking anything wrong, ascended the steps of the platform. Having occasion to get seem carticle from his pocket, he put his hand in and immediately discovered his loss. No trace has been obtained of the thieres.

An Friempotized Trellia.—The ladies, who delight in having a little back garden, should make a note of the following economical mode of making a trellia: Instead of throwing away an old hoop-skirk, suspend it in your garden across a pole four feet high. Plant the seeds of the Madeira vine, morning glory, masterding, or the like, and in a very little while; over this rejected trellia, creeps a mass of beautiful and illing thoom. Nothing more suitable for the purpose could be made. as Booth Coming Westward!—There is no certain knowledge that Booth, the assaedin, has been captured. It is possible he may be endeavoring to make his way westward. Would it not be proper for his Honor, Mayor Lowry, to station some policement at the Depot to scan the faces of the passengers who arrive! It is probable that Booth has disguised himself, and might get this far without detection.

TREACHERY AMONG REBEL DESERTERS.—At Norfolk, on Saturday, some sinciplent signs of rebellion exhibited themselves in two "white-washed" regiments of rebel deserters, who have staken the oath of allegiance, and have been enlisted in the service of the United States. The muthous signs and turbulent acts of the proposed insurgents were quickly quelled, and their arms taken from them. On an examination of their caviridge-boxes, ammunition was found therein that had never been issued to them by the Government, and was not at all suited to the arms in their possession. It is currently reported ardge everally believed that guas were concessed in Norfolk or vicinity for which the mysterious caviridges would come in use. A DM INISTRATOR'S "NOTICE Letters of administration having been granted to the undersigned on the extate of Wm. Carnahan, and the series of Mrs. John Tyler, the widow of the ex-President, is, as is well known, a native of this State, and now resides near Factoryville, Staten Island. She has never disguised her sympathy with the rebels, but, on the contrary, has permitted no opportunity to escape her of proclaiming it, even in church, protesting, by rising from her even in church, protesting, by rising from her kutes, against the prayers for the President of the United States. It being well known that the rebel flag was draped over her parlor manitepiece, on Saturday evening last several young gentlemen—none of them over eighteen years of age—considering that if, at such a time as this, the flag was not voluntarily put ont of sight. Mrs. Tyler should be reminded that some decent respect was due to the public opinion, walted upon her for that purpose. Two of them, sons of neighbors and well known to her, entered the parior, when one of them said:

"Madame, I beg pardon for disturbing you, but we have called to ask for the Secession flag you have in your possession." cated for payment.
