PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS FOR BITUMINOUS COAL.—Sealed Proposals will be received at the office of the Philadelphia Gas Works, No. 38 South Seventh street, until noon of Friday, 28th of April, 1865, for supplying the whole or part of seventy thousand tons of Bituminous Coals, suitable for the manufacture of illuminating gas; to be delivered on the railroad trucks of the gas works, at the Twenty-sixth and Ninth Ward Stations, in the following quantities: seven thousand five hundred tons in each of the months of June, July, August, 1865, and January, February, March, April and May, 1866.

The coals must be delivered fresh, dry and of a quality approved by the Engineer of the Gas Works as equal to the samples on which the contract is based.

The proposals must describe the particular variety of coals intended to be supplied and the location and name of the mine or pit from which they are to be raised. If they are of a kind not now or recently used at these works, samples for trial of not less than fifty tons must be delivered at the works on or before the 7th of April next.

The gross ton of 2240 lbs. will be considered as the weight intended in the proposals, unless the contrary be expressly stated.

The Trustees reserve the right to accept any proposals in whole or in part, or to reject all, as they may deem best for the interests of the Trust; and in event of failure on the part of any contractor to deliver the coals, according to his agreement, both in quantity and quality, the Trustees reserve the right to buy elsewhere, whatever quantity may be required to meet the deficiency, and charge to the contractor any loss or damage arising from such failure.

Payments will be made monthly, in two equal instalments, of four and six months after the specified periods of delivery, the 15th of each month being taken as the average of the monthly deliveries, or at the option of the Trustees, will be made at earlier dates, with legal interest off.

Should contractors prefer to make deliveries earlier than required, they may be received, so far as they can be conveniently stored, but payments will be made to date from the time specified in the contract.

Security for the fulfilment of contract will be required, and each proposal must name the amount and character that will be offered.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.)

The Pickpockets, Welsh and Kelly.

We have already noticed the arrest of two pickpockets named Welsh and Kelly, on suspicion of having robbed a lodger at the Monongahela House. These worthies were brought before Mayor Lowry for a herring to-day, and while Kelly had been identified as a professional thief, Welsh had not, and the Mayor (without having seen him) had about made up his mind to discharge him. Among those who were in the Mayor's office at the time of the hearing was Dr. A. G. McCandless, who identified Welsh as the individual who had picked his pocket at the Sanitary Fair in Allegheny, in June last. The Mayor happened to be an eye-witness of the robbery, and as Welsh (then passing under the name of Hall) had been arrested and held to bail for trial, the Mayor at once recognized him as soon as he got his eyes upon him. Welsh was considerably non-plussed at this sudden recognition and changed color perceptibly. The Mayor had taken good bail for his appearance, but the case was never tried—the defendant having failed to appear. It is suspected that Welsh had "arranged" with his bail, by giving him a sum of money sufficient to keep him clear of any loss in case his recognizance should be forfeited. If this be so, the surety has made a "good thing," as he has never been called upon to pay the forfeit.

Welsh was committed to jail on the old charge, while Kelly (alias Wilkie) was sent up for ninety days as a professional thief. Kelly is a well known pickpocket, and endeavored to substantiate his innocence of the present charge by appealing to the common sense of the officers whether it was at all likely that he would come so well known as a thief, that he does not think it worth while to deny his vocation.

Charge of Disloyalty.

Mayor Lowry had before him this morning a cooper named William McKenna, charged with uttering disloyal sentiments. The accused has been engaged for some time at the cooper shop attached to Spencer & McKay's brewery, and the public report is that nearly all the workmen employed there are tinctured more or less with disloyalty. They are principally strangers, having come from the east in response to advertisements for coopers. The prosecutor in the case against McKenna is William Britton, who testified that on Saturday last McKenna asked him how he liked the news. Britton replied that he felt very bad over the murder of the President. To this McKenna responded "I suppose you feel like all the G—d—d abolitionists. I'm sorry for the man who did it, and I am sorry I did not do it myself." McKenna was about "half tight," (as the witness expressed it,) when he used this language.

Other witnesses were examined, but they had not heard McKenna say anything against the President since last June. Two witnesses who had been subpœned were not present, and the case was not decided. Mayor Lowry ordered the prisoner to be locked up, and he may yes be handed over to the military authorities.

A citizen stated to the Mayor that he had received information from the most reliable authority, that the conduct of a number of men in the cooper shop alluded to, became so obnoxious that a committee had been formed in the neighborhood to "clean out the establishment," and if they did not keep civil tongues in their heads that they would certainly be visited with summary punishment.

A Useful Establishment.

We have for a few days past intended to notice an improvement which has come to our notice, on Federal street, Allegheny, but have neglected it until now. It is the enlarged and very much utilized establishment of our friend Geo. W. Hubley, 68 Federal street, Allegheny. Mr. H. has put in a new front in his store, and extended his building back so far that the vision is lost ere you take in the perspective which is presented from his front door. And such a bewildering assortment of the useful, the beautiful, the ornamental and the articles of virtu! Do you want a tea pot, of any variety, shape or size—from modest tin to portentious silver—call at 68 Federal street. Or do you want a wash tub, kettle, board, brush, or clothes line, pin, wringer, horse, dryer—call at 68 Federal street. Do you want a broom, brush, whisk, or any thing in that line? Call as above. Do you want a shaker, grass, coarse, floor, or any other kind of mats? Call as above. Do you want to keep cool—to keep butter, milk, vegetables or water cool? Call and purchase of Hubley a refrigerator or water cooler. In short, do you want anything, from a baby jumper to a clothes horse,—from a tea set to a wash day set, from a bath tub to a foot bath,—anything required, or even thought to be required in setting up your domestic establishment, whether an humble cottage or a portentious high stoop and English basement, we can assure you that Hubley is the man to supply it, and to get it cheap and good. His assortment is endless, his goods fresh and well made, and his prices reasonable.

Some of the finest cloths, cassimeres and vestings are included in his stock, which he is prepared to make up to order, on short notice in the latest styles, and at correspondingly low rates. RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

We find in a Presbyterian paper an essay entitled "Truth Reconciled," in which the doctrines of the great schools of Protestant Christianity, Calvinistic and Arminian, are stated in a concise form. Without entering into the arguments pro. and con., we simply give the doctrines as we find them: The writer says as tried by the original teachings, it is a very remarkable and a very hopeful fact, that there is no prominent evangelical Church which holds exclusively the doctrine of Calvin or Arminius. The Westminster Assembly adopted essentially the Canons of the Synod of Dort (1618). These Canons are in five chapters and relate to five points:—first, particular and unconditional election; second, particular redemption, or the limitation of the saving effects of Christ's death to the elect only; third, total depravity and total moral inability of man as a fallen creature; fourth, the irresistibility of divine grace; fifth, the final perseverence of the saints. The followers of Arminius deny these teachings in whole or in part, as drawn in the following formula of belief: First, Election consists simply in the foreknowledge of God, and is not absolute and unconditional. Second, Christ died for all men, and His atonement is sufficient for all men. Third, Every individual is invited to partake of His grace. Fourth, Divine grace is offered to make the will comply with the invitation of mercy; but this grace may be resisted and rendered ineffectual by the sinner's perversity. Fifth, Saints may fall from the state of grace in which they are placed by the operations of the Holy Spirit.

——The Universe, a Catholic paper published in Philadelphia, editorially says "the Catholic officers are doing well in the army. Rosecrans, Gilmore, Meade, Sherman and Sheridan, are names of honor and glory that will never fade." It is certainly not in very good taste to provoke criticism, even if it was true that these able generals were Catholics; but it is questionable if any of them are, strictly speaking, of that communion, except Rosecrans. Gilmore is of Methodist parentage, and it is said his sympathies are in that direction. It has been repeatedly affirmed that Meade is an Episcopalian. Sherman's wife is a Catholic, but the fact has not been established that he is one. It is not known, that we are aware of, what denomination Sheridan prefers. We repeat, it is not proper to invite discussion on such questions, nor is it material to which denomination our gallant officers are connected with.

——It seems incredible that Rationalism exists to such an extent as it does in this country, and yet we find in an able religious journal the fact established that a minister of a Congregational Church in one of cities of New Hampshire, recently inveighed against "water baptism" as he called it, declaring that it was not properly a Christian ordinance, but a relic of Judaism and other symbolic faiths. In the same sermon, he spoke slightingly of become so obnoxious that a committee had been formed in the neighborhood to "clean out the establishment," and if they did not keep civil tongues in their heads that they would certainly be visited with summary punishment.

A Useful Establishment.

We have for a few days past intended to notice an improvement which has come to our notice, on Federal street, Allegheny, but have neglected it until now. It is the enlarged and very much utilized establishment of our friend Geo. W. Hubley, 68 Federal street, Allegheny. Mr. H. has put in a new front in his store, and extended his building back so far that the vision is lost ere you take in the perspective which is presented from his front door. And such a bewildering assortment of the useful, the beautiful, the ornamental and the articles of virtu! Do you want a tea pot, of any variety, shape or size—from modest tin to portentious silver—call at 68 Federal street. Or do you want a wash tub, kettle, board, brush, or clothes line, pin, wringer, horse, dryer—call at 68 Federal street. Do you want a broom, brush, whisk, or any thing in that line? Call as above. Do you want a shaker, grass, coarse, floor, or any other kind of mats? Call as above. Do you want to keep cool—to keep butter, milk, vegetables or water cool? Call and purchase of Hubley a refrigerator or water cooler. In short, do you want anything, from a baby jumper to a clothes horse,—from a tea set to a wash day set, from a bath tub to a foot bath,—anything required, or even thought to be required in setting up your domestic establishment, whether an humble cottage or a portentious high stoop and English basement, we can assure you that Hubley is the man to supply it, and to get it cheap and good. His assortment is endless, his goods fresh and well made, and his prices reasonable.
