Major Lowry had a final hearing yesterday

afterneon in the case of Conrad Gosistrom, -charged with a felonious assault on George Herwig, the prosecutor. The affair, as our readers will semember, corured some two weeks since near McKeesport. Goelstrom, it appears, had been uttering dieloyal sentim ents with respect to the late assassination of the President, and a mob of about one hundred men had pursued him. After the excitement had subsided, he startid from his home, and was heard to say while leaving, he would "shoot the d-d son of a b-," meaning the person who had reported his having uttered sentiments odious to the cour his having uttered sentiments odions to the com-munity. It was proved that he had got a boy to bold his horve and had sent another boy after percussion caps. On coming to Gorwig's house he wat that man at the fence, and after some cracked remarks, toth him to "stand back," at the same time pulling out a loaded revolver. A cousin of Gerwig's standing by, interfered and prevented Goristrom from dring, if he had any such intention. There was no new evidence elicifed except that of Catharine Baers, who al-leged that abs eaw Gerwig or aw a knife before Goristrom drew his revolver, and that the fatter, seeing Gerwig with a knife, 'said he (Goelstrom) "had sum thing which would reach him," at the same time producing his zeroiver. This i-dy's evidence was not substantiated by any oth-er winces.

Turkey and Persia, Turkey and Persia. The relations between Persia and Turkey are generally unfriendly, but at present they are more than usually threatening. Although both Mohammed in powers, they represent two erects who mutually regard each other as hereides of the worst description. The boundary between the two countries has never been settled, and there is a large fortile of the worst description. The boundary between the two countries has never been settled, and there is a large fortile territory claimed by both sides and held by fored, the Persian frome occupying the larger part. To this constant source of difficulty another has now been added. Bereat years ago all the powers having commercial treaties with Turkey consented to modify them, encref Persia. Per-sia refused, and her aubjects still import goods uto Turkey at the old rates of duty, while other nations pay about double.

as retured, and her subjects still import goods not Turker at the old rates of duty, while other nations pay about double. Moreover, sait and tobacco are Government monopolies under the new irenties—while Par-ala is able, in spite of this, to delarge the country with sait and tobacco as low prices under the old treaty. To add to this double isjury, many Greek merchants in Turkey now import all their goods in the name of Persis merchants, thus escaping the new dute. As Persis refuses to give up this old treaty the Turkish Government has attempted to com-pol them to come to terms by issuing an order that henceforth an Persis merchants, even in constitution of the same of Persis, and as there are its tow in the hands of Persians, and as there are its constitution the many thousand Persian ar-tisans and ishorers, this measure was a very avere one. But the Persian Government took no noice of it, and when the Turk were shout to more it, the European embassies interford and required them to postpone its execution six months. It may ret. lead to a Tucko-Persian war. Constituents for the same

THE REART LOAN IN ENGLARD.—It is how wreatly to for regreted that the rabel loan patton the market in Burland two years ago was not arreater in ismount.—Not more than filtean mil-lions of dollars of it, we believe, has ever been disposed of, and this is barding sufficient to marko could be desired. It was all taken, and is proba-tor, maprincipled, cynical and money worship-ping portion of the Registab tosiness world ; and we need hardly say that it would not only cause deep satisfaction to all good men everywhere to feel that this crew had been heavy mulcied, but would help the cause of morality all over Chris-tendom. There is no way in which they can be so serverly punished as through their pockets, and there is no kind of punishment so particu-larly appropriate.—N, Y. Times.
