THE GREAT PURIFIER.

The Concert Last Night.

We have to record a verifable success in the concert given last night by Max. Strakosch. Mov-HEMAPANAKA.

The matter of the suphi by Max. Sirakosch. Nev-er before in our experience have the ability and telent of performers been wolcomed with such enthusiasm. Mdile. Kaiow showed harself to be an artist ot the first class on the violincello. She fairly made the 'hastriment' speak 'in the "Last Rose of Summer." and the "Brightest Eyes." We fail of inding words to express our antiration of Mr. Well. Not only is he's per-former with an amount of excertilos almost in-credible, but there is a chicaser and passion in his playing seldom heard: 'Mdme. Behrens with ther sweet voice and tender expression, charmed it he hearts of the sublesce. We advise all lovers of music not in exclusion. We advise all lovers of music not in exclusion we advise all lovers of music not in neglect the opportunity of stlea-ding the concert this evening, as it will positive-ay be the last. Tickets may be had at C. C. Mel-lor's, Si Wood street.

The Funny Frenchman.

The Funny Frenchman. The lecture be Prof. Dubcis on Baturday evan-iog, was one of the most humorons and Inter-esting ever delivered in this city, and the audi-cuce was so delighted that a number of the more prominent joined in a request to the Professor to favor the public with a request to the Professor to favor the public with a request to the Professor to favor this request. For Dubcis has con-repled to deliver two more lectures, on Wednes-day and Thursday eventific; at Concert Hall. The lowrer of mirth, wit and hamor, will enjor a rare treat by attending these entertainments, as they are not excelled in point of fun by those of ther Alf. Burnett or Aricoms Ward.
