CHICKERING & SON'S

PIANOS,

The Best Pianos Made.

PROF. ROSBOCK'S OPINION:

"As a Piano, of over twenty years with the Chickering Pianos, has given me ample opportunity to judge of their qualities, and I feel that I can always fully stand them to be the BEST PIANOS, both for instrumental performance and for standing the price. The Pianos made new by Chickering & Sons, I consider infinitely superior to any of their former manufacture, and for delicacy of touch, purity of tone, power in every part, time, touch and workmanship, that nothing more can be desired. STRONG INDORSEMENT.

The musical profession of the city of New York have with most unprecedented unanimity awarded to WM. B. BRADBURY the highest meed of praise for his new and beautiful piano forte. They state, saying other highly complimentary notices, that they have examined with much care in our opinion that in power, purity, richness, quality of tone and thorough workmanship, Mr. Bradbury's instruments stand

"We find great brilliancy and beautiful singing quality of tone most happily blended. We have carefully examined it, and pronounce it a PERFECT INSTRUMENT."

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.]

United States District Court.

THURSDAY, MAY 11.—Before Judge McCandless.

The first case called was that of Wm. Ashbrook, Sr., of Greene county, charged with harboring a deserter and obstructing James Coats, an officer of the 24th District, in his efforts to arrest Solomon Ashbrook and Wm. Stewart, deserters, who had been concealed in his house. The testimony of Coats was to the effect that when he went to the house of the defendant, one night, for the purpose of arresting Ashbrook (the son) and Stewart, the old man seized a gun and threatened to shoot him, declaring that he had taken an oath never to permit his house to be searched for any such purpose. Other members of the family joined in the resistance, and while the officer was about to call assistance the two men escaped from the house. Both charges (that of harboring a deserter, and also obstructing an officer in the discharge of his duty) were pressed together, and no defense was offered. The jury found a verdict of guilty in both cases.

Mr. Gibson, attorney for the defendant, made a touching appeal in his behalf, stating that he was now over sixty years of age, had lost several sons and some grandsons in the Union army, and was the sole support of several grandchildren, made orphans by the war. District Attorney Carnahan remarked that he would not insist upon having the old man sentenced upon both charges, and intimated that the Court might sentence on the lesser offense, leaving the more serious grade for future consideration. The Court then sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of five dollars and costs of prosecution, and undergo an imprisonment of ten days in the county jail.

The Grand Jury found true bills against the following named defendants, all of whom are indicted for conspiracy, under the provisions of the conscription law: John T. Kiese and others, Price A. Rolls and others, David Goodlander, Jeremiah Wagner, Peter Gray Meek, and John C. Murray.

Patrick Dunn, of Westmoreland county, was arraigned on a charge of perjury, it being alleged that he had falsely sworn that he was an alien, in order to have his name stricken from the enrollment list. It appeared on the trial that this man had been mistaken for another Patrick Dunn, and the jury found a verdict of not guilty.

Philip Linglebaugh was arraigned on a charge of perjury, in swearing before a Justice of the Peace, in Greensburg, that he was an alien, and not liable to enrollment for military duty. Thos. J. Keenan and H. D. Foster appeared for the defendant, and District Attorney Carnahan for the prosecution. On trial.

The Decision in Regard to Huckstering.

In yesterday's paper we noticed an opinion in regard to huckstering, given by the City Solicitor, J. W. F. White, Esq., which was not as correctly expressed as it should have been. The point decided was this:

When a store-keeper gives a written order to a market gardener for certain specified articles to be brought in on a certain day, and the gardener fills that order at his garden, separating the things definitely from the rest of his marketing, and brings them to the city separate from his other marketing, and solely to fill the order, in such a case the store-keeper does not violate the ordinances prohibiting buying vegetables within market hours to sell again.

Motion for a New Trial.

This morning in the United States Circuit Court, before Judge Grier, in chambers, a motion to the higher kidder, about 4,000 pounds Sky Blue Kersey Cuttings; 500 do do Dark Blue Flannel Cuttings; 200 do do Plaid Cuttings; 7 sacks of Linings; 2 bales of Batting. Lacquered, if not drawn out, is placed to the credit of the depositor as principal, and bears interest at six per cent. a year, in June and December. Interest has been added semi-annually, in June and December, since the Bank commenced business, at the rate of six per cent. a year.

Deposits, if not drawn out, is placed to the credit of the depositor as principal, and bears interest at six per cent. from the first days of June and December, compounding twice a year without troubling the depositor to call, or even to present his pass book. At this rate money will double in less than twelve years.

Books, containing the Charter, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, furnished gratis, on application at the office.
