STRONG INDORSEMENT

The musical profession of the city of New York have, with most unprecedented unanimity awarded to WM. B. BRADBURY the highest meed of praise for his new and beautiful piano fortes. They state, among other highly complimentary notices, that they have examined with much care W. B. Bradbury's new scale piano-fortes, and it is in our opinion that in power, purity, richness, equality of tone and thorough workmanship, Mr. Bradbury's instruments excel

"We find great brilliancy, and beautiful singing quality of tone most happily blended. We have rarely seen a square piano combine as many of those qualities so essential to a PERFECT INSTRUMENT."

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.)

Presbyterian General Assembly.

FOURTH DAY.

The Assembly met at nine o'clock Monday morning, and spent half an hour in devotional exercises.

Dr. Wood, Chairman of the Committee on Overtures, presented a report in reference to several matters which had been referred to them. The most important matter contained in this report was the overture from the Presbytery of Sidney, asking: Where a member habitually absents himself from the means of grace and the ordinances of the church to which he belongs, is it proper for the session to admit statements from said person, in the trial of the case, which are calculated to injure the pastor or the members of the session?

The Committee recommended that the question be answered in the negative.

An animated discussion was raised as to the propriety of adopting the report. Several members of the Assembly took exceptions to the report.

Dr. Wood explained the point which was sought to be reached; as follows: A member absents himself from his church, habitually, and when called to account he exculpates himself by answering that he has such and such objections against a minister, or that some of the charges against this or that member of the session—and the point was, whether these charges should be put upon the record in the progress of the trial. W. O. AWDERSON & SON.

After some further discussion, the matter was indefinitely postponed.

Rev. Theodore Monod, delegate from the Evangelical Churches in France, addressed the Assembly on the subject of the union of the two bodies that he had been sent by the Union of Evangelical Churches in France, formed sixteen years ago, mainly through the efforts of his father, Dr. Monod, who had recently gone to his rest. He reported that the Churches of France were at present in a very prosperous condition, increasing in numbers and usefulness. He also alluded to the deep interest taken by the Churches which he represents, in the progress of the late American War. The cause of the American people had received their earnest sympathy and prayers, and they greatly rejoice at the close of the war and the suppression of the rebellion. The Reformed Local Union of France had suffered materially in consequence of the war, as much pecuniary aid had been extended by the United States previous to the rebellion, in which condition they were now owing to the high rate of exchange. The churches of France were consequently largely in debt, and one object of his mission to the United States was to obtain such aid as the great people here might extend to their brethren in France. He had received much encouragement from several members of the Assembly, and was hopeful that his mission would be successful.

At the close of Mr. Monod's address, Dr. Breckenridge moved that the Assembly express its thanks to the young brother, and commend his mission to the several churches.

Dr. Elliott, in seconding the motion, paid an earnest and feeling tribute to the memory of the lamented Dr. Monod, and to his satisfaction at listening to the address of his son. He commanded the object of his mission as eminently worthy.

On motion of Hon. Robert McKnight the Moderator appointed Dr. Breckenridge, Dr. Elliott and Elder McKnight, as a committee to prepare a suitable minute in reference to M. Monod's address, and the object of his mission.

Rev. Thomas O. Stong, D. D., delegate from the Reformed Dutch Church, was next introduced, and after expressing the sympathy which existed between his own body and the Presbyterian address. The past year had been one of unparalleled prosperity in the church which he represented, and great progress had been made in the spread of the gospel, as well at home and abroad, in domestic and foreign missionary work having been prosecuted with great energy and success.

Dr. Lowrie, Moderator of the Assembly, responded briefly to Dr. Strong's address, and begged him to convey to his people the thanks and good wishes of the members of the Assembly.

Rev. J. G. Brown, D.D., delegate from the General Assembly of the United States Presbyterian church of North America, was next introduced, and after expressing the sympathy which existed between his own body and the Presbyterian the common origin of all the churches bearing the Presbyterian name, expressed the hope that ere long they might be one in organic and christian unity. He did not know that any thing could be effected, but the union of the Associate and Associate Reformed churches, now comprising the United Presbyterian body, was at one time considered just as unlikely. Yet, through the Providence and grace of God, that union had been fully and happily effected; and, through the same Providence and grace, the great Presbyterian and Reformed Christian union, which he could be made one in name, as well as in faith and purpose.

Dr. Lowrie responded, and expressed the hope that the day was not far distant when the two bodies would be united. He thought that the main difference between the two churches was confined to two simple letters. One believed in a scriptural authority, and the other in a scriptural psalmody, and if this difference could be satisfactorily settled it would tend greatly to open the way for union.

Rev. Leroy Woods, D. D., delegate from the Cumberland Presbyterian church, next addressed the Assembly, mainly on the subject of union. The Moderator made the usual response.

The Assembly now proceeded to other business.

Dr. Paxton announced that Dr. Strong, delegate from the Reformed, Dutch Church, would preach in the evening, before the Assembly, at half past seven o'clock.

The Moderator read an invitation from the Union Temperance League, to attend a meeting on Tuesday evening, May 23d, in the Sandusky street Baptist church, Allegheny.

Adjourned with prayer by the Moderator.

Another Man Drowned.

This morning about eight o'clock a man named George Hardy was drowned in the Monongahela river, at the Brownville wharf boat, under the following circumstances: He intended to take passage on the 7:55 train on the Connellsville Railroad, for some point on the river, but when he arrived at the depot the train had just left. He then started for the Brownsville Packet, and found that it was just shoving out. He, however, got on the wharf boat, and attempted to spring on the receding steamer, but as the distance had increased while jumping, he lost his footing, and to save himself grasped a fender near the wheelhouse, but was unable to retain a hold, and was swung off, falling opposite the wheel-house. The commotion of the water had the effect, it is supposed, of dragging him underneath the wharf-boat, as he disappeared suddenly from view. The body had not been recovered up to the time of going to press. The deceased was a pedlar, and two of his packs were brought to the Mayor's office until they should be identified. The wife of the deceased appeared there at noon and identified the effects as belonging to her husband. He lived on Pennsylvania avenue, above Logan street, and kept a little store. He was going up the river for the purpose of following his vocation. The Coroner was apprised of the sad occurrence, and will hold an inquest this evening.

A Significant Present.—Messrs. H. Greenig & Co. of this city, on Saturday morning, by Adams' Express to President Johnson, a fine rope, encased in a neat glass box. The donors also attached their business card to the box, with the additional information that they were ready to supply orders for ropes similar to the specimen forwarded. The glass case was used to show that it was not an "infernal machine." The present is by no means cheap, and may be used for the purpose evidently intended by the donors.
