CITY AND SUBURBAN.

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.)

Presbyterian General Assembly.

SEVENTH DAY.

The Assembly met Thursday morning, and spent half an hour in devotional exercises.

At the request of the Moderator, the order of the day was changed—the report of the Board of Education to be taken up instead of the report of the Board of Foreign Missions, the Assistant Secretary of the latter Board being called away by the sudden death of the Secretary, Mr. Chester.

Dr. Steele presented the report of the Committee on the report of the Board of Trustees of the Fund for Disabled Ministers. The report states that the receipts during the year have exceeded those of the preceding year, and that the expenditures have been larger than usual. The amount expended during the year was $17,530. Fifty-eight widows and forty-three ministers, with children, in all about four hundred persons, were benefitted. The expenditures were $4,570 greater than those of any previous year.

Judge Leavitt urged the claims of this fund in a brief address, after which the report was adopted.

Dr. Patterson, from the Committe on Finance, reported by reference to the accounts of the Treasurer of the Assembly. The Committee approved the report of the Treasurer, having found it to be correct. The account foots up as follows:

Balance from 1864	$13,592 36
Received during the year	67,179 53
Total	$79,771 53
Expenditures during the year	67,239 34
Balance on hand	$13,393 54

The report was accepted and adopted.

Rev. Mr. Waller presented the report on the Board of Education, with resolutions containing the following recommendations: That the General Assembly commend the Board to the confidence and increased liberality of the churches, that christian parents be urged to remember the obligations which they are under to train and educate their sons for the work of the ministry; that the Board investigate carefully the claims of the colleges, and recommend support only to those which, in their judgment, give promise of permanent success and usefulness; the establishment of parochial schools; and the setting apart of the last Thursday in February as a day of prayer for children and youth, and especially for those in the schools and colleges of our land.

The recommendations were discussed at considerable length, and finally adopted.

From the report of the Board it appears that, during the period of thirty-four years, aid has been rendered to 3,317 ministerial candidates. It is believed that one-half the pastors, more than one-half the missionaries, and about two-thirds of the foreign missionaries of the church, have been aided by the scholarships of the Board. The receipts for ministerial education, from 1831, are $1,446,319. Applications for general education, since 1847, $106,331 09.

The account of the Treasurer of the Board, for the past year, foots up as follows:

Balance in hand	$17,336 11
Receipts in 1865	51,308 09
Total	$68,644 20
Expenditures	45,788 36
Balance	$22,855 44

Rev. Dr. Platt presented a memorial in reference to the Ashmun Collegiate Institute, (a school for the education of colored men for the work of ministry,) with resolutions that the Committee on Publication and Sabbath Schools of the Institute to the church at large. Referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Rev. N. West, D. D., on behalf of the committee appointed at the same meeting held on Monday evening, submitted the following resolutions, as the action of that meeting:

Resolved, That the wide-spread influences of infidelity in the shape of gross, or bold Atheism and Rationalistic Philosophy, which is now pouring forth redoubled energies for its dissemination throughout every section of our land, calls for the prompt and united action of Evangelical Christians, in a clear, honest and uncompromising enunciation of the great cardinal doctrines of grace, and a bold defence of the truth as it is in Jesus.

Resolved, That in the providence of God, we believe a solemn responsibility is now laid upon the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ in this country, to manifest her loyalty to the Great King, by maintaining inviolate and steadfast, both by the enunciations of the pulpit and the issues of the press, the great principles of the Gospel, which are destined to secure the Crown, establish the Kingdom of Christ, and ultimately to overthrow the whole system of error.

Resolved, That the fearful growth of the Papacy, both as to ecclesiastical and civil power in this land, is well calculated to awaken the fears and arouse the mightiest energies of the entire Protestant community, and calls imperiously for the adoption of measures at once timely and adequate to the emergency, so that we may, under the Divine Blessing, be enabled to counteract the secret and malign influence of the man of sin, and present an unbroken front of the army of truth against this system of corruption, which is hourly girding itself for the approaching conflict.

Resolved, That it is our candid judgment that the present is our auspicious moment to inaugurate measures for loyalty to the Great King, by maintaining inviolate and steadfast, both by the enunciations of the pulpit and the issues of the press, the great principles of the Gospel, which are destined to secure the Crown, establish the Kingdom of Christ, and ultimately to overthrow the whole system of error.

Judge Leavitt urged the claims of this fund in a brief address, after which the report was adopted.

Dr. Patterson, from the Committe on Finance, reported by reference to the accounts of the Treasurer of the Assembly. The Committee approved the report of the Treasurer, having found it to be correct. The account foots up as follows:

Balance from 1864	$13,592 36
Received during the year	67,179 53
Total	$79,771 53
Expenditures during the year	67,239 34
