CITY AND SUBURBAN.

FROM SATURDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.)

Presbyterian General Assembly.

NINTH DAY.

The Assembly met on Saturday morning, at the usual hour. After devotional exercises, the minutes were read and approved.

Rev. F. Senour, from the Committee to prepare a paper on the overthrow of the rebellion, and the death of President Lincoln, (which we have already published, and which was recommended for deliberations) submitted the document in its amended form—the resolutions, however, being precisely the same as already given.

Rev. A. B. Cross, of Baltimore, offered a substitute for the whole paper, declaring that the Assembly unite in rendering thanks to Almighty God for that divine providence and favor which has been given to us as a nation, in collecting and training our armies, preparing and building our navy, perfecting and establishing the finances, etc., etc., and rendering especial thanks for the raising up of a chief magistrate of the calmness, kindness, integrity, ability, energy, and patriotism of Abraham Lincoln, lamenting his death, etc.

A motion was made to refer both papers to the Committee, which was lost.

Mr. Cross then addressed the Assembly in support of his substitute. His objection to the report of the Committee was mainly on account of its great length, and the introduction of irrelevant matter.

Dr. West found nothing in the first paper to which he could object, but it did not rise to the solemnity and the dignity of the subject. As to the substitute, there was too much "dilute" in it, and not enough of the Providence of God. He favored the drafting of an entirely new paper.

Rev. D. J. Waller, D. D., favored the adoption of the substitute.

Rev. W. F. Brown, of Washington city, objected to one or two phrases in the original paper, and would prefer the substitute. He moved the reference of both papers to a special committee, of which the venerable Dr. Elliot should be chairman. This motion prevailed.

Rev. Mr. Wight submitted the report of the Committee on Systematic Benevolence. The report directs attention to the fact that of the twenty-six hundred churches, only eighteen hundred contribute to Foreign Missions, twelve hundred and seventy to Domestic Missions, eleven hundred and eighty to the Board of Publication, seven hundred and fifty to the Board of Education, and only six hundred and ninety to the Fund for Disabled Ministers. One half of the churches, therefore, are doing little or nothing in the great work of benevolence, and that in two-thirds of the churches the claims of three of the Boards are either never presented or fail in obtaining any response. The 330,000 communicants, are reported as giving to benevolent objects $400,000; or less than an average of $3 per member. The Committee believe that systematic benevolence should be urged upon the people as a Christian duty, but they make no special recommendations, leaving details to be arranged by the respective churches.

The report was adopted and ordered to be printed and read from the pulpits.

The Moderator announced as the Special Committee to whom should be referred the papers on the state of the country, overthrow of the rebellion, etc., Dr. Elliot, Dr. Gregg, Dr. Brown and Elders Judge Ewing and Judge Sperry.

Mr. Chamberlain offered a resolution that the Assembly direct the several Presbyteries, at as early a day as practicable, to send one of their number as a missionary to the Assembly of Kildare, to serve during a period of not less than three months, and their expenses to be paid by the Board. The resolution was referred to the Standing Committee on Domestic Missions.

Rev. H. B. Chapin, on behalf of the Tellers appointed to receive the ballots for the election of members of the several Boards, etc., reported the result as follows:

Board of Domestic Missions—Ministers, R. J. Breckinridge, D. D., J. M. Lowrie, D. D., Andrew McElwaine, J. H. Nixon, Cyrus Dickson, D. D., S. J. Niccolls, E. P. Humphrey, D. D., Thos. Janeway, D. Mr. Dickerson, the chosen pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, arrived in town yesterday, to enter upon the duties of his sacred profession. It will be remembered that some time ago we noticed the fact that this gentleman sent out from his home in Wilmington, Delaware, accompanied by his family; and that, upon arriving in Philadelphia, his wife took ill and died, which delayed his coming until now. We feel assured that he will meet here a cordial welcome, and warm sympathy from his brethren in the ministry and other friends of his own and all other denominations.

Tennyson Club.—At the annual election of officers of this club, held last Monday evening, the following gentlemen were unanimously chosen:

President—Geo. T. Van Doren.

Vice-President—Rev. John Douglas, D. D.

Secretary—Joseph M. Gazzam.

Treasurer—H. Richard Davis.

A vote of thanks was returned to the retiring officers for the able and efficient manner they had discharged their duties.
