CITY AND SUBURBAN.
FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.

Presbyterian General Assembly.
TWELFTH DAY.

The Assembly met at the usual hour on Wednesday morning, and spent half an hour in devotional exercises.

On motion, Revs. Messrs. Brown and Gurley were appointed a committee to convey in person to the President their paper on the state of the country, adopted yesterday. It was understood that the committee should make no speech to the President and draw none from him.

Dr. Woods, from the committee on Bills and Overtures, made a report on the subject of reunion, containing the following resolutions, which were recommended to the Assembly for adoption:

1. Resolved, That the General Assembly reiterate their former expressions towards their brethren of the other branch of the Presbyterian church, and their desire for still more intimate relations as the providence of God shall make it clear that this measure is inexpedient.

2. Resolved, That in the judgment of this Assembly an attempt to force a general re-union before there is a change by the action of the Presbyteries, that the two branches of the church are fully prepared for it, will be likely to retard this result, and incur the danger of the formation of three in the place of two.

3. Resolved, That in order to strengthen the feeble, missionary churches belonging to each, and to enable them to become self sustaining, the Presbyteries under our care be recommended to take such action as to them may be deemed wise and expedient.

4. Resolved, That the essential condition of organic reunion is an agreement in scripture doctrine and ecclesiastic order, according to the standard of the Presbyterian church, [and that when this shall appear to the satisfaction of the ministers and churches belonging to each, it is in the way will be fully open for the two bodies to become one.]

5. Resolved, That in the meantime fraternal intercourse, both personal and official, be encouraged between us and them, for the purpose of cultivating friendly feelings, and of learning by a more intimate acquaintance whether an organic reunion will prove to be cordial and beneficial to the cause of Christ.

On motion of Dr. Elliott, the resolutions were taken up singly.

The first, second and third resolutions were adopted.

Dr. Elliott moved to amend the fourth resolution, by inserting after the words, "the way will be fully open," the words "for considering the expediency," etc. His object was to prevent the Assembly from committing itself on this question at this time, as the circumstances might be very different when the subject came to be considered by others at a subsequent day.

The amendment was opposed by Dr. Montfort and Rev. Mr. Vaill, after which it was withdrawn. The discussion, however, continued, and after several addresses had been made a motion was made and carried to strike out the whole clause from the words "and that when this shall appear," to the close of the resolution. The remainder part is enclosed in brackets in the resolution itself.

The fifth resolution was adopted as read, and the whole paper, as amended, was adopted.

Dr. Wood also reported upon several other papers, which had been referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Among the these was a paper in reference to the Ashman Collegiate Institute, asking the endorsement by the Assembly of the appointment of Rev. Mr. Waits as an agent to procure funds in Great Britain in aid of the Institute. The Committee reported in favor of such endorsement.

The report was warmly opposed by Dr. Howard, Rev. Mr. Cheever, who did not desire to see the Assembly accredit any agent to solicit aid in Great Britain, in view of the past conduct that has been shown by the British government in the matter of the Alabama, Florida, Shenandoah, and the power to send Mr. Watts on that mission, and it was not necessary for the Assembly to endorse this mission.

The paper was referred back to the Committee.

The committee also reported in response to the paper embodying the action of the late meeting in Allegheny, and a paper from New York, asking the Assembly for a deliverance on the subject of intemperance. The committee report that while the Assembly has heretofore given its testimony on this subject, new exigencies have lately arisen, growing out of the fearful spread of intemperance, and the return of thousands of young men from the armies. All ministers, elders, and church members, are enjoined to use their influence, especially with the young, to secure the practice of entire abstinence as the only means of effectually preventing the sin of intemperance.

Dr. Elliott read an admirable paper, in connection with the report, on the same subject.

The report of the committee was adopted, and a motion was made to place Dr. Elliott's paper on the docket, which was lost by a vote of 70 yeas and 72 nays.

A motion was made to adopt Dr. Elliott's paper, which was amended to refer to the Board of Publication, with instructions to issue it in the form of a tract. The amendment was laid on the table.

A motion was then made to refer it to the next General Assembly, which was lost.

The previous question was then called on the adoption of the paper, and it was finally adopted.

On motion, both papers were then referred to the Board of Publication, to be printed for distribution among the churches.

The Assembly then adjourned until 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Telegraph Earnings.

The aggregate earnings of the several telegraph companies, each having lines working at the same points for the last half of 1864, as taken from the books of the United States Assessors, to whom sworn monthly reports are required to be made under the Internal Revenue Act, were:

	Western Union and American Telegraph	United States Telegraph
July	$ 246,378	$ 28,940
August	296,909	27,734
September	315,853	31,111
October	329,604	33,661
November	310,703	29,993
December	290,665	27,700
Total	$1,791,415	$174,134

The Western Union Company holds large interests in other lines, the earnings of which are reported elsewhere, and which are accordingly not included in the above statement.

The Turf at Johnstown.

On Saturday last a contest was had at the Kernville race course, Johnstown, for a premium of $50, and was confined to only two competitors—Dr. Emerson, who entered the Hamilton Maid, and Henry Gore, Esq., who entered the May Queen. The fifty dollars was to be awarded to the owner of the mare which won the best out of five heats on a course a mile in length. The Hamilton Maid won the first heat; the May Queen the second and third; Hamilton Maid the fourth, and the May Queen the fifth by only a quarter of a second. The aggregate time made by the two animals is precisely the same.

Run Over.—A child about two years of age, daughter of Mr. Cassidy, residing on the corner of Water street and Fifth alley, Allegheny, was run over yesterday, by a heavy two horse wagon, and injured in a severe manner, the wheels passing over one arm and leg. It is thought no bones are broken, although both limbs are bruised considerably. The little girl was playing in the alley at the time referred to, and the driver did not see her until it was too late to save her.

Thursday, June 1st, being set apart by the President of the United States as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, all Postoffices will be open between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock, A. M., after which time it will be closed, the remainder of the day.

Wm. C. Smythe, Manager of Trimble's Varieties, announces a complimentary benefit for to-night, at which time he anticipates a full house, owing to being the last appearance for one week of the "Great Western Tragedian," who will be supported by the entire strength of the company.

The General Assembly and the Rebellion.

On last evening our community was deeply humiliated by the action of the General Assembly of the Old School Presbyterian Church, now in session in this city. On a plain proposition reported from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, proposing that Sessions and Presbyteries be authorized to examine persons already in the Church in the South and elsewhere, as to whether they had given aid or countenance to the rebellion, the vote stood 64 for, and 83 against.

Four gentlemen spoke against it, amongst whom the Hon. J. K. Ewing, who announced himself a republican, but who hails from the pro-slavery district of Fayette, Washington and Greene, and who, if we mistake not, is an aspirant for the election of Judgeship. One of the other three made a speech which would have been cheered and clapped in any Southern latitude in the palmy days of Jeff. Davis' bogus Confederacy. He distinctly stated that a church member might, consciously, believe in secession, and in the right of rebellion, and yet be entitled to his opinion as a member of a Christian Church. Dr. West, of New York, whilst he did not claim any such right for his church members, in a most doleful and imploring manner besought the Assembly to refuse the passage of the Report, as it would prove the dissolution of his church.

Dr. Howard, in a most thrilling speech, which commanded the respect and admiration of the whole audience, maintained the right, irrespective of consequences upon his own or other churches.

What a spectacle to behold, a body of men of high intellectual culture afraid to follow the finger-board which the Almighty has placed before their eyes, evincing timidity upon a question which has been settled under the guidance of Providence by the blood and treasure of the nation. By this decision the rankest rebel, fresh from the battle field, and unwashed of the blood of our fathers, brothers and sons, can officiate as an Elder and hand the bread of life to the victims of his own relentless butchery—the poor crippled Union Christian soldiers. God in his providence has given unmistakable evidence of His intention to preserve the nation and perpetuate its freedom; and to this end, and for this purpose He has become the great abolitionist, and has, through stripes and chastisement, blotted out the curse of human slavery, and in a most unequivocal manner placed the seal of His disapprobation upon all who have dared to stand in his way. And, now that this work has been accomplished, is it for a moment to be supposed that He will commission the unrepenting rebel an officer in His purified church. The rebel who may have participated in the assassination of our lamented President—or in the attempt to burn and poison by wholesale, northern cities and people,—is it, I ask, to be supposed that such vile creatures can receive God's commission to deseerate the Communion service? A timid, halting, and time-serving General Assembly may so decide, and so bring reproach upon the Church, but a higher Judiciary will frown upon all pusillanimity, in the performance of duty, will reverse and set at naught their unwise decree. Shocking Murder at Saw Mill Run—Escape of the Murderer.

On Tuesday night between nine and ten o'clock, a shocking murder was perpetrated at Temperanceville, on Saw Mill Run, the particulars of which, so far as we have been able to gather them, are as follows: A young man named Bond, a coal miner, residing on the run, while proceeding towards his home, in company with a friend, was attracted by the barking of a dog, and began to whistle, in order to attract the attention of the animal. He was immediately after approached by two men, one of whom, Michael Turley, asked what he was whistling for. Bond explained that he was whistling to the dog, whereupon angry words passed between the parties. Turley drew a large knife, and made a furious assault upon Bond, inflicting a deep stab in the abdomen. At the same time, Turley's companion assaulted the friend of Bond, dealing him a severe blow in the face. The parties then made off. Bond was found to have been dangerously injured, as entrails protruding from the wound, and in this condition he was carried to a house near by, where he expired in about half an hour.

Turley was put in the boarding house, and retired to bed—his landlord observing that he was very much excited, and indisposed to talk. About twelve o'clock at night some men visited the tavern where Turley was boarding, and asked if he was in. The landlord replied that he was, but on going to his room it was discovered that he had escaped. Information of the murder was at once communicated to the Mayor's office in this city until seven o'clock in the morning, and the police were put upon the search. It was ascertained that Turley had crossed the river to this city, in company with a friend, about four o'clock in the morning, and that he had left on the six o'clock train for Baltimore. A dispatch was received at a later hour in the day, stating that Turley had left that train at Greensburgh, and there is a probability that he will yet be captured. Alderman Donaldson, acting Coroner, is now investigating the facts connected with the murder. Turley is said to be a desperate character, and it is not long since he was fined twenty-five dollars, by Mayor Lowry, for gross disorderly conduct at a disreputable house near the Point.

Hand Crushed.—A little girl named Leitch, residing in the Fifth ward, has employed in Hyde's woolen factory, Allegheny, had her hand considerably crushed by some portion of the machinery, which she was attempting to adjust. In attempting to shift the belt, to stop the carding machine, her hand caught in the belting, and before it could be removed, was severely injured. Dr. Thorn was called to the factory and dressed the injury.

Proposed Monument to David G. Blythe.

A meeting of the artists and amateurs of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity will be held in the gentlemen's parlor of the St. Charles Hotel this evening at seven o'clock, for the purpose of devising means for erecting a handsome monument over the remains of their late fellow artist, David G. Blythe. Those friendly to
