Colonel Robert Hare, Dr. A. G. McCandless, C. B. M. Smith, Esq., and Wm. H. Clark, were chosen Vice Presidents.

Major Brown, on taking the chair, thanked the Convention for the high honor conferred upon him, in a brief but patriotic address, which was most happily received.

On motion of J. H. Hare, delegates were permitted to vote for their absent colleagues.

On motion of Mr. Gourain, the Chairman was authorized to appoint an Executive Committee of twenty-one members to serve during the ensuing year.

The Chairman submitted the following communication to the Convention:

To the President of the Allegheny County Union Convention:

SIR—On the fifteenth of last October, the Union Executive Committee passed the following:

Resolved, That this Committee present a flag to the District giving the largest proportional increase of votes in November over the October election, and that a sub-committee of three be appointed to attend to the matter.

Your committee have attended to that duty, and made the award to that District, the name of which is ascribed on the banner.

In the name of the Committee, that the Chairman of this Convention present the flag; and is therefore entitled to its reception until now. As the duty of presenting the flag devolved upon him, however, he proceeded to its discharge, in a few neat and well chosen remarks.

On motion of R. W. Mackey, three cheers were given for Pitt township.

W. B. Negley, Esq., by request of the Pitt delegation, received the beautiful gift in a brief response, and handed it over to the delegates from the township which had so patriotically earned it.

On motion of Mr. Mackey, Adam Weaver was substituted as a delegate from West Pittsburgh in place of J. V. Auth, who was absent, and Mr. Chamberlain was admitted as a delegate from Indiana township; the only district in the county not regularly represented.

Mr. George Burns offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Convention appoint an executive committee of nine persons to procure a suitable place and also procure sufficient means to erect a monument to the memory of Allegheny county's noble sons who have laid down their lives for their country, and also that there be a committee of two persons in each ward, borough and township to aid the committee in procuring means to accomplish this noble work.

On motion, the Chairman appointed the following named gentlemen as a Committee on Resolutions: E. Reno, C. B. M. Smith, John F. Dravo, Thomas Ewing and W. B. Negley.

On motion of Dr. McCandless, Henry Lambert, Esq., was unanimously re-nominated for the office of County Controller, there being no other candidate.

The same gentleman moved the re-nomination of Hon. James L. Graham, for the office of State Senator, which passed without a dissenting voice.

On motion, Mr. R. L. McCulley, of Birmingham, was re-nominated by acclamation for County Surveyor.

The Convention then proceeded to ballot for nominations for the several offices yet to be filled.

After the nominations had been made, and after the respective delegates had marked, Capt. Kerr, of Pittsburgh, moved that the Convention adhere to the district system in choosing nominees for the Assembly.

C. B. M. Smith, Esq., suggested that the motion was out of order, as the balloting had already commenced.

Mr. John A. Myler appealed from the decision of the chair.

Dr. McCandless, Vice President, put the question on the appeal, and the decision of the chair was sustained by a large majority.

The voting was then continued, and the first ballot resulted as follows:

The Chairman announced that there was no choice for District Attorney.

Levi B. Doff was declared nominated, and the announcement was hailed with cheers.

On motion, the nominations, as a whole, were made unanimous.

"After life's fitful fever he sleeps well,
Treason has done his worst."

Though dead his testimony lives and will live forever, enlivened by the immortal echoes of his tomb; we will cherish the example of his life and character as a just object of admiration and emulation, and as a light for the present and for after-times.
