The Sabhath school is still user the control of Mrs. Dr. Dale, and we trust that the instruction there imparted, will not only fall upon the outward ear, but pene-trate the heart, and that many, through this in-strumentality, may know in early life, what it is to believe in Jeaus. Thankagiving and Carist-mas seasons were very happy times with the children, because they were so kindly and bous-tituity remembered by their friends. These are their sumy days, and will nove to forgotten by them: We are under great obligation to. Dr. Mowry, who has not grown weary in well-doing. His unremitting and graituitous services are reded. We most corvially invite all who are interested in our work to visit in still visit, and indrame we delive to be faithful to the trust channels of the our work to institution, and judge for themselves of its utility. As managenes we delive to be faithful to the trust channels of our early, realizing that we will like to give an account of our stewardship. We are the buy and doing. Bill achieves and the wait. Farewell-Benefit of Annie Eberle,---Farewell-Benefit of Annie Eberle,---To-bight this favorite actress makes her last ap-pearance at the Flitsburgh Theatre. A very at-tractive bill is presented---- 'The Fride of the Market;'' an ello of singing and danoicy, and the sensition drama of "Sitteen String Jack.'' To one so long and favorably known among our theatre-goers, no appeal on her behalf is neces-sarys. Her merits will accord her a large and appreciative to the sense. Thenering of Dr. Jacobus.-- Dr. M. W.

Departure of Dr. Jacobus,--Dr. M. W. Jacobus, Professor in the Western Theological Semijasiry, and the beloved pastor of the Central Preabyterian Church of this city, left yesterday, for an extended tour through Great Britale, the Continent and the Holy Land. He will be ac-companied by his son-in-law, Rev. Mr. Newkitk, of Philadelphia, and several members of his family. of Phinterprint, and service memories of any family. Accident.—On Sunday last, while Mr. John Vance and alster, of Frankfort Springs, Beaver county, were returning home from Florence. Washington county, their horses because flight-ened and ran off, after they had got a short dis-tance from Florence. Miss, Vance was thrown out of the buggy, and had her skull fractured, but whether seriously or not we did not learn.

The Committee cito several cases of children in destitute circumstances that have been re-ceived at the Home during the last four years, many of them, the children of drunken fathere or mothers, whose parents had been committed to jail, or were common vagrants. The following report, by the Treasurer of the Institution; was adopted : Miss Susan Trevor in Account with the Home for the Friendless. Oil Strike in Cambria County .-- On Sat-
