The proprietors, conscious of the public desire to obtain a thorough knowledge of all the events and facts connected with the late NATIONAL CALAMITY, which robed the land in mourning, promptly engaged, at a vast cost sense, no less than twelve competent artists to employ their talents and genius in the production of this extraordinary series of Pictures, for the fidelity of which they confidently vouch.

FREE EXHIBITION.

INTERESTING TO HORSE OWNERS.—The celebrated Horse Trainers, Messrs. MAGNEE AND DUDLEY, with give the citizens of Pittsburgh and Allegheny cities a free exhibition of horsemanship with their celebrated trained stallions NERO and ROY ROY, driving one of these spirited animals to carriage without bridle, rein, hitching or traces, with head and neck entirely free, on DIAMOND SQUARE, Allegheny City, on WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, the 14th, 15th, and 16th, at 1 o'clock P. M. each day, promptly at the hours. Prof. Magnee will also deliver a lecture on the general management of the horse. The two horses will be turned loose on the Square and shown as Trick Horses. Each day immediately after the public exhibition, they will form a class, teaching their system of horsemanship, commencing at 2:30 P. M., at Mr. Trimble's Variety Stables, Penn street, Pittsburgh, which is new, original and practical, and which in a few feats of horsemanship can be accomplished the under all other combined systems in the world. We do not throw your horses to the ground, neither we administer drugs—yet we never fail to obtain a complete submission in a very short space of time. We propose to instruct you by short course of demonstrations. Gentlemen, bring in your horses of every and all habits, from the most confirmed vice to the old reprobate, who knows no master, and we promise to hand them to you entire satisfaction. We handle runaways, kickers, biters, bridle and halter pullers, plungers, shyers, boilers, side-runners, nervous, and those that will not stand for you to get into the carriage; timid and those afraid of machines or any other object; silly dunces that run the tongue out over the bit. We handle the treacherous horse who simply lacks style; kickers and plungers to no cause, and those that are nervous and will not submit to the blacksmith and horseshoer. All horses belonging to members handled free of charge before the class. Please show you how to prevent cows from kicking while milking. Tuition, $5. These gentlemen are credited by the public wherever they have been.

CITY AND SUBURBAN,

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.)

The Riot and Murder Near Massillon—Arrest of one of the Rioters.

We have already noticed the serious riot which occurred among a number of coal miners at North Lawrence, Stark county, Ohio, about six miles from Massillon, which resulted in the murder of James Cole, and the serious injury of several other men. The miners had been on a strike for several weeks, and some of them had gone to work at a lower rate of wages, which displeased the strikers. On Tuesday of last week a large number of the workmen assembled at North Lawrence, when a serious riot occurred, during which some twenty-four or thirty shots were fired, one of which took effect in the breast of Cole, causing his death in a few minutes. Several of the participants immediately fled, and among those who found their way to this city were David Watkins, Jeff Watkins, and Thomas James. The officers were in pursuit of them, but failed to find any clue to their whereabouts until Sunday last, when a sister of Davis left Massillon, under circumstances which led to the belief that she was on her way to communicate with the fugitives. She was followed by a detective, who took the same train which she left at Allegheny station, and traveled on foot from thence to a boarding house in the Fifth ward, kept by a man named Morgan. Here she met one of the party, David Watkins, and while passing down Liberty street, in her company, the man was arrested. The officer very imprudently let Miss Davis go, while he conveyed the prisoner to the Mayor's office. Another officer hastened up to Morgan's house, hoping to get there before Miss Davis, but she had been there some fifteen minutes, and it is inferred that the other two men have been notified of the arrest of Watkins, and have skipped out to some other place. Watkins states that Cole, the murdered man, was not one of their party, and that neither he nor his companions had anything to do with the murder. He will be taken back to Massillon this afternoon.

Dr. John F. McDowell, of East Birmingham, was arraigned on a charge of procuring an abortion, on oath of Julia Shabergan. The facts of this case, as alleged by the prosecution, are substantially these: Mrs. Sophia Wolff, wife of Henry Wolff, a soldier in the United States service, having received the illicit visits of Dr. McDowell, became pregnant, and desiring to hide her crime from her husband and friends, was induced to take poisonous drugs, prescribed by the doctor, and also submitted to an operation with instruments, whereby an abortion was procured. This occurred in July, 1864, and on the 3d of August following she died from the effects of the unnatural and violent treatment to which she was subjected, and this prosecution was entered by her mother, Mrs. Shaberger. Messrs. Marshall and Brown appear for the defense, and Messrs. Kirkpatrick and Moreland for the prosecution. On trial.
