General Weils, who is Provost Marshal Gen-eral of the defenses south of the Potomac, says: Yery soon after the fail of Richmond I be-caure aware that many of the leading accession-ists, despating of realsting by force of arms, the power of the Government, or mighty logic of events, which was soon to make Virginia free, had, determined to attend the backs for the dest, dumby and blind, and an increase of taxes to fitteen per cent on one hundred dollars worth of property, raising the average legal rate of interest to seven and three tenths per cent, and the fitting of a day for clocking members of the Legislature. It closes by invoking the birsings of God upon the State and country. A resolution was passed in the House that in the opinion of the General Assembly ine time has atrived when it is as it and expedient to res-tore the rights of voiers who are disfranchised by the provisions of the third article of the Constitution. The Sense concurred in the resi-olution, and a special joint committee was ap-

Public Retrenchment-Reduction of the Army-The Public Debt and the National Hrources. Every day now sees the expenditures of the government vasily reduced. With all possible rapidity the soldiers are being mustered out and rapidity the soldiers are being mustered out and sent home. Supernumerary Generals as well as officers of other grades are being returned to civil life. Thousands of hores are being re-lieved from further military duty hadsold. Gran-humbers of ware, are being disposed of. Our paral force has been gradly reduced, and many of the transports and converted guaboats sold. The refuction applies to cave department, and the transports and converted guaboats sold. We shall very soon be able to obtain a defailte knowledge of the cost of administration in the future. We shall also learn the precise amount of dt i left us by the war and its sonnal increst, and shall thus bo able to estimate the extent of our taxation.

And some time so shie to estimate the extent of our faxition. We predict that neither the debt nor the tara-tion, will turn out to be half as formidable or burchreeme as the creakers have represented they would be.
