WANTS.

WANTED—AGENTS FOR "THE SECRET SERVICE; THE FIELD, THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE." BY ALLAN PINKERTON, Chief of the U. S. Secret Service, during the late War of the Rebellion. This is the most interesting and startling book ever published, embracing Mr. Pinkerton's unparalleled experience for four years; traveling through the South in the secret service of the Union. At the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for 20 months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in daring events, and contain more of the real, inside and romance of the war than any other work ever published.

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it peculiarly adapted to their condition. We have agents clearing $150 per month, which we can prove to any enquiring applicant. Send for circulars. Address JONES, BROS. & CO.,

N. E. corner Sixth and Minor streets,
jan22-mdawF Philadelphia, Pa.

SALE OF SERVICEABLE MULES.

QUARTERMASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9, 1865.

By direction of the Quartermaster General, there will be sold, at public auction to the highest bidder, at the time and places, named below, viz:

WILLIAMSPORT, PA., THURSDAY, June 15, 1865.
HUNTINGDON, PA., THURSDAY, June 22, 1865.
SCRANTON, PA., TUESDAY, June 20, 1865.
WILMINGTON, DEL., THURSDAY, June 22, 1865.
PITTSBURGH, PA., TUESDAY, June 27, 1865.
HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, June 29, 1865.

Two hundred SERVICEABLE MULES at each place.

Many of them were bought in the beginning of the war, as young mules, accompanied the armies in all their marches and camps, and are thoroughly broken, hardened by exercise, gentle and familiar, from being so long surrounded by the soldiers.

The whole South is stripped of farming stock, and the North also has suffered from the drain of animals, taken to supply the armies.

These animals are sold at public auction; THEY WILL NOT BRING ANYTHING LIKE THEIR TRUE VALUE; and such opportunities for farmers to get working animals to stock their farms, and for drovers and dealers to make good speculations, by purchasing them and disposing of them in the South, will never occur again.

Terms—Cash.

FROM SATURDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.

The Death of Judge Wilkins—Meeting of the Bar.

At 10 o'clock this morning the members of the Bar assembled in the District Court room, for the purpose of taking some suitable action in reference to the death of their distinguished fellow member, Hon. Wm. Wilkins.

On motion of Hon. Wilson M'Candless, Hon. Thomas Irwin was chosen President, and on taking the chair made a few appropriate remarks touching the solemn occasion which had called them together. The deceased was not only well known as a member of the Bar here, but in every county throughout Western Pennsylvania. He was one of a class of men remarkable for their great vigor of intellect—men who were giants in their day, and who left an impress upon the public mind which would not soon be effaced.

On motion of Hon. Moses Hampton, Hon. Walter H. Lowrie and Hon. Wilson M'Candless were chosen Vice Presidents; and on motion of Hon. Henry Baldwin, Thomas J. Keenan and James H. Hopkins, Esqrs., were appointed Secretaries.

Hon. R. P. Flenniken paid a brief tribute to the memory of Judge Wilkins, whom he regarded as a model worthy of imitation by every member of the Bar. As a lawyer, when in the vigor of his intellect, none rose superior to him. As a Senator, both for the county of the State and the Nation, he had received distinguished services, and in the various positions which he filled he had reflected great credit upon himself and the State which he belonged. The gentleman concluded his remarks by moving the appointment of a committee to prepare resolutions.

The motion was adopted, and the Chair appointed the following gentlemen on the Committee: R. P. Flenniken, Thomas M. Marshall, J. S. Craft, J. P. Penney, George Shiras, A. W. Loomis, and John H. Shalley.

Judge Lowrie, Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., Judge McCandless and Judge Hampton followed in addresses eulogistic of the character of the deceased.

On motion the Committee on Resolutions were requested to meet at half-past eight o'clock Monday morning, for the purpose of making their report, and the meeting is duly entered upon the records of the Court.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Fourth at Gettysburg.

The preparations for the celebration of the Fourth at Gettysburg are being pushed forward by the Committee of Arrangements, and are of the most extensive character. The importance of the occasion seems to grow as the day approaches, and there is every reason to believe that the celebration which is to be characterized by the laying of the Corner Stone of the Soldiers' National Monument, will be one of the greatest events in the history of the Commonwealth.

President Johnson is expected to perform the ceremonies of laying the corner stone, while Gov. Curtin will assist in the exercises. Secretary Stanton and other prominent men have signified their intention to be present. General O. O. Howard will deliver the oration; Colonel Halpine will read an original poem, Dr. Tyng will act as Chaplain, and Major General Geary will be Chief Marshal. Gen. Hancock has ordered Gen. Hancock to furnish one regiment of infantry, one battalion of cavalry, one battery of artillery, and the full band of music for the occasion. The Marine band of Washington and the National Musical Association of Baltimore will also be present. General Grant himself, with a portion of his staff, will probably be there. General Meade, the hero of the Battle of Gettysburg, will positively be present, with Adjutant General Thomas, General Wilcox, and other prominent military men.

A delegation of the Councils of this city will be present, and it is stated that the Masons and Odd Fellows of this city will also be represented on the occasion. The Knights Templar of the District of Columbia intend to go over in full uniform, taking their tents with them. In addition to these, hundreds and thousands of soldiers and civilians will flock to this ever memorable spot.

A Mistake Corrected.—Fraudulent Returns.

A colemporary states that "Thomas Sinclair, clothier, on Market street, charged with fraudulent returns, was fined $3,000 and costs by H. A. Weaver, Esq., Assessor of Internal Revenue." The fact is, Mr. Weaver has nothing to do in the way of imposing fines or penalties, although it is his duty to see that the Government is not defrauded by parties making false returns. Mr. Sinclair had been suspected, and on being cited to show his books it was discovered that he had not made honest returns for two years or more—the tax and amounting to about $1,000. He proposed to compromise by paying the arrears, together with an additional $1,000, and was referred to the collector, Mr. Little, with whom we understand, he has deposited checks to the amount of $2,000, and now awaits the decision of the Commissioner at Washington. If the compromise is accepted, that will be the end of the matter. If not, the case will have to go before the court.

Information Wanted.

The following letter from Rodney, Mississippi, was recently received by Mr. S. Riddle, Postmaster at Allegheny, and is published for information, the parties interested being unknown to him:

RODNEY, MISSISSIPPI, May 15, 1865.

Alexander McCullough, a blacksmith by trade, formerly of Pennsylvania, died at this place in 1863, leaving a valuable property consisting of a wagon and blacksmith shop, two dwelling houses in town, and a farm one mile distant. This property requires the immediate attention of his relatives, as he made no will. Any information concerning to those relatives will result in great benefit to them. It is believed that the deceased lived at one time in Allegheny city or Pittsburgh.
JAMES BODWELL.

Shocking Accident.

On Wednesday, an accident of a distressing nature occurred at the rope works of Messrs. Marshall, Fulton and Bollman, at M'Keesport. A returned soldier named Miller, while loosing carelessly upon a picking machine, was caught about the elbow, and the whole arm was terribly mutilated. The forearm was literally ground to pieces, and the flesh was torn from the shoulder down to the elbow. The arm was taken off at the shoulder joint, and a portion of the shoulder blade had to be cut away. The man was still living at last accounts, but his recovery was still doubtful. He had served three years in the army.

Another Soldier Robbed.—A soldier named John M. La Barik, while lying intoxicated at the Pennsylvania Railroad depot, on Friday night, was robbed of a pocket-book containing one hundred and sixty dollars in greenbacks, and a revolver. A fellow named Henry O'Neal, an acquaintance unknown, committed the robbery. O'Neal was arrested, and the stolen pocket-book was found on him. Just no money. He was committed to jail by Mayor Lowry to answer at the next Court of Quarter.

Criminal Court Sentences.—Jody McFadder, an old offender in the liquor way, was sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars and costs by Judge Mellon, and fifty dollars in another case by Judge Stowe. Fining don't seem to do Jody any good, as he is "nailed" at every term. Pat. M'Nally, of the Eighth Ward, for selling liquor, was let off on payment of costs. The same disposition was made of the case of Jacob Trax, of McCandless township—the license of the parties having run out but a day or two before renewal.

The County Executive Committee.—The Union Executive Committee met this forenoon, at the office of Messrs. Marshall & Brown, for the purpose of organizing. On motion, Dr. W. J. Gilmore was appointed Chairman, and Messrs. R. W. Thomas and Wm. Anderson Secretaries. After the transaction of some routine business, the Committee adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman.

The Fourth at McKeesport.—The citizens of McKeesport intend celebrating the Fourth with becoming spirit. The principal features of the day will be a grand dinner to the returned soldiers, and an oration by Rev. Alexander Pressley, D. D., of this city. The celebration will be held in a grove near town.
