AUCTION SALES.

PUBLIC SALE OF

FIFTY-FIVE VALUABLE TRACTS OF

COAL LANDS,

On the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, in Washington and Allegheny Counties, Pa., and Brooke County, West Virginia.

ON MONDAY MORNING, July 17th, 1865, at 10 o'clock, will be sold in the City of Pittsburgh, at McILWAINE'S AUCTION ROOMS, 106 Smithfield street, the following valuable Coal Properties, viz:

No. 1 and 2 parcels of lands in Brooke county, West Virginia, each containing about 100 acres. Each tract is underlaid with, and commandeds the opposite shores of the same. Each tract of Coal now worked by shaft in and about Steubenville, and is of the celebrated "north mine" Coal; 6200 per acre. It has a front and landing of 60 rods on the Ohio river; testimony the only coal mine worker in that vicinity, and is considered a proper distance from the bridge and western terminus of the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, to afford sufficient room for all the coal that the road can transport. Also on the receipt of an addressed envelope, he will send, free, a pamphlet of the river, within available distance of the railroad, containing full particulars of coal, a list of coal lands for sale, and the terms on which they will be sold. For the judgment of coal by other parties, see Hanover, Smith, and Jefferson townships, Washington county, Kenny's farm, at west end of the Birmingham Tunnel, about ten miles from Steubenville, on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad. Several public roads cross it, near the railroad station; rendering part of it valuable for town lots, and about 70 acres of good coal (of the Pittsburgh vein) are in fine, available situation for the judgment of coal by other parties.

No. 3 contains 113 acres and 40 perches of coal farm land in Smith township, Washington county, Pa., near east end of the Birmingham Tunnel, on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, the entire tract underlaid with first-rate coal, of the Pittsburgh vein. In addition, several roads cross it, and a portion of it is available for town lots.

No. 4 contains 112 acres and 81 perches prime quality limestone land in Smith township, Washington county, Pa., near east end of the Birmingham Tunnel, on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, the entire tract underlaid with first-rate coal, of the Pittsburgh vein. In addition, several roads cross it, and a portion of it is available for town lots.

The undivided one-half of 98 acres and 87 perches of excellent quality of wall-lying land, in Robinson Township, Allegheny Co., Pa., on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, a short distance west of Noblestown. About one-half this tract is underlaid with first-rate coal, and another large body of coal accessible in the immediate rear of it.

100 Acres first quality farm land, in Robinson Township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, about six miles from Pittsburgh. About one half this tract is underlaid with first-rate coal, and commands another large amount of coal in its immediate rear. This tract is further valuable for a fine limestone.

THESE VALUABLE TRACTS ARE OF A CHARACTER, AND IN A POSITION TO AFFORD LARGER PROFITS THAN ANY OTHER COAL PROPERTY IN WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

They were early selected, with care and judgment, as choice points to be secured on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, with special reference to the coal necessary for the supply of furnishing either or both of the Pittsburgh or the western markets. Besides the vast wealth of coal that could be had by the ownership of the following coal tracts, it is for a already apparent that to supply the demand for coal to ship on the lakes, make it plain the great advantage in position held by these tracts.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash; balance in one and two years, with interest, secured by bond and mortgage on the property.

For examination of plans and title papers, inquire of W. P. Baird, Esq., No. 92 St. Clair street, Pittsburgh.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING'S GAZETTE.

Malicious Mischief and Breach of the Peace.

Mayor Lowry was occupied a considerable time this forenoon in hearing a case of malicious mischief and surety of the peace preferred by David Aston, of Temperanceville, against four boys named Frederick Nelson, Gregor Blatchford, Barney McDonald and David Nelson. It appears that Mr. Aston is the owner of a house and lot, in front of which runs a private road, which has been used for several years as a public highway. On this road, the first from his lane, stood a fine cherry tree, which had long been a source of annoyance from the fact that the boys plundered Mr. Alston on the one hand, and on the other regarded by the boys, as public property. One of the defendants, in descending from the tree recently, was caught by Mr. Alston and picked a little, and this led to bad feeling between him and the boys, two of whom, (the Nelson's) were in the habit of making threats to kill him if he would carry out the threat to prosecute them. One evening, in the absence of Mr. Alston, Frederick Nelson and George Blatchford took axes and cut down the tree—the other two defendants, McDonald and Nelson, were present to carry away the branches. This brought matters to a focus, and suits were entered as stated. Mr. Reed appeared as counsel for the prosecution, and Mr. Cochran for the defendants. The Mayor decided that all the boys were liable to a charge of malicious mischief in cutting down and carrying off the tree, and that the two Nelsons should give bail for surety of the peace. The parties got together, after the decision had been rendered, and were making efforts to effect a compromise.

Accidents on the Fourth.

A boy named David Speer, residing on Middle alley, Allegheny, had his left hand terribly lacerated by the premature discharge of a pistol which he was loading. The charge passed through the palm of the hand just below the little finger, fracturing the bones and severing the sinews. Another boy, in Allegheny, whose name we did not learn, met with a singular accident on the evening of the Fourth. It appears that he was engaged in firing off "chasers," and after lighting one threw it on the ground. As it did not explode he picked it up and discovered a spark of fire on the outer edge. Just as he was in the act of blowing the "chaser" explided, the charge passing into his mouth, down his throat, bursting them in a severe although not dangerous manner.

Express Agent Killed.—Mr. M. L. Weaver who has long been engaged as Railway Transfer Agent, and Agent of Adams Express Company, at Mingo Junction, Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, was accidentally killed on the Fourth. As the special conductor of an excursion train out of Steubenville, he was standing on the top of a forward car, when a sudden violent twist of the engine caused him to lose his balance and fall upon the track. Six cars passed over his body, crushing it in a shocking manner and killing him instantly. Deceased was forty-six years of age, and leaves a wife and family, residing but a short distance from the spot where the accident occurred.

Nesbitt and Mrs. M. Dunlap, charged with retailing liquor without license, for $102.50 each. These judgments include the amount of tax, ten per cent. additional and the usual penalty provided in such cases.

Accident.—A few days ago, while Gen. Joseph Markle and a little grand-son (son of Lewis Markle), were running the saw-mill at West Newton, the latter had his right hand in some part of the machine and fractured his leg. The General, with great presence of mind, promptly stopped the mill, or the consequences might have been more serious.

Trade does not seem as yet any likelihood of a difficulty with France. Just now Louis Napoleon has quite as much on his hands as he can well manage to take care of affairs at home. From the statements of papers of Paris, you will get nothing like a fair idea of the quarrel between him and Prince Napoleon. Those papers are afraid to treat the Prince as an ordinary subject, and for the present, for instance, except as being a near relative of the Emperor. This is a false representation of the state of the case. Prince Napoleon has a strong party in France, and, besides this, there is another strong party in that country in favor of the old Bourbons. We who are few at middle age may reasonably expect to see, before we pass away, another revolution in France. The present Emperor is by no means securely seated on the throne. Secret societies are known to exist, and machinations are rife throughout the kingdom, and Prince Napoleon did not act unthinkingly when he made his famous Ajaccio speech. At present Louis Napoleon cannot afford to enter into a foreign war, especially in behalf of Mexico, for that enterprise is already condemned by a majority of the thinking people of the Empire.—Cor. Ald. Bee Journal.

An insane named Sammy Sly, incarcerated for the last ten years in the New Haven county jail, for murder, has lately fancied himself the prophet Elijah, and, for more than a week has been waiting for his translation, steadfastly refusing all food and drink, and spending his time chiefly on his callous knees in prayer. It is doubtful whether he can survive more than a day or two longer.

General Grant's father, in a speech at the Ohio State Convention, said that he "had been often asked if he did not feel proud of that boy of his. "This reminded him of an occasion when this question was asked in the presence of a Dutchman, who interrupted him by saying, "He isn't to blame; he couldn't help it."
