WANTED.—AGENTS FOR "THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD, THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE." BY ALLEGRY E. RICHARDSON, New York Tribune Correspondent. The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, traveling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture, his confinement for 20 months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war than any other work yet published.

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it peculiarly adapted to their condition. We have agents clearing $150 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant. Send for circulars. Address, JONES, BROS. & CO., N. E. corner Sixth and Minor streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

AUCTION SALES.

PUBLIC SALE OF

FIVE LARGE AND VALUABLE TRACTS OF

COAL LANDS,

On the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, in Washington and Allegheny Counties, Pa., and Brooke County, West Virginia.

ON MONDAY MORNING, July 17th, 1865, at 10 o'clock, will be sold in the City of Pittsburgh, at McILVAINE'S AUCTION ROOMS, 108 Smithfield street, next to Fifth street, opposite the Post Office, the following valuable Coal Tracts:

16 acres and 84 perches of land in Brooke county, West Virginia, nearly opposite Steubenville. This tract is underlaid with, and commands to the opposite shore, the same stratum of Coal now worked by about it and about Steubenville, which coal is regarded worth about $750 per acre. It has good and landing of 6a rods on the Ohio river, including the only deep water in that vicinity, and located suitably and at proper distance from the bridge and western terminus of the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, to afford sufficient room for approaches for coal cars between the railroad and river landing. This point is the only one on either side of the river, within available distance of the railroad crossing, fitted for the shipment of coal, and would afford a fine income, as a wharf or landing alone, for the shipment of coal by other parties.

118 acres and 63 perches of good farm land in Hanover, Smith, and Jefferson townships, Washington county, Pennsylvania, at west end of the Miamore Tunnel, about ten miles from Steubenville, on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad. Several public roads cross it, near the railroad station, rendering part of it valuable for town lots, and about 20 acres of good coal (of the Pittsburgh vein) are in the south side of this tract, in good position for loading on the cars, commanding also, another large body of coal.

113 acres and 118 perches prime quality limestone land in Smith township, Washington county, Pa., near east end of the Bulger Tunnel, on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad: the entire tract underlaid with first-rate coal, of the Pittsburgh vein. In addition to its coal and limestone, this tract possesses fine advantages as a point for town lots.

The undivided one-half of 98 acres and 67 perches excellent quality of well lying land, in Robinson Township, Allegheny Co., Pa., on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, a short distance west of Noblestown. About one-half this tract is underlaid with first-rate coal, and another large body of coal accessible in the immediate rear of it.

100 Acres first quality farm land in Robinson Township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, about six miles from Pittsburgh. About one-half this tract is underlaid with first-rate coal, and commands another large amount of coal, in the rear of the same. This tract is further valuable for its fine Timber and limestone.

THESE COAL TRACTS ARE OF A CHARACTER AND IN A POSITION TO AFFORD LARGER PROFITS THAN ANY OTHER COAL PROPERTY IN WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

They were early selected, with care, and judgment, as choice points to be secured on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, with special reference to the coal business; holding control of important positions, for the peculiar facility of supplying either or both of the Pittsburgh or the western markets. Besides the vast western consumption, destined to be the best of all markets for the coal trade, it is found already impossible to supply the demand for coal to ship on the lakes, making again the great advantage in position held by these tracts.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-third cash; balance in one and two years, with interest, secured by bond and mortgage on the property.

For examination of plans and title papers, inquire of W. P Baum, Esq., No. 80 St. Clair street, Pittsburgh.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

FROM SATURDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.

The Fourth Cavalry—Their Reception—Complimentary Letter and Order.

At half-past eight o'clock Saturday morning the Fourth Cavalry was formed in front of the Mayor's office and marched to City Hall, where a substantial breakfast had been prepared under the supervision of the Subsistence Committee. Mayor Lowry welcomed them to the city in a neat and appropriate speech, regretting the misunderstanding of last evening, but assured them that the entire masses of our people held them in the highest regard. They were welcome, thrice welcome, to the city, and might rest assured that their deeds of valor in defence of their country's rights were treasured up in all hearts. The Mayor closed by asking three cheers for the gallant commander of the regiment, Colonel Young, which was given as only brave soldiers can give a cheer. In response the Colonel made a neat and appropriate speech, in which he thanked the Mayor and citizens of Pittsburgh for the kind reception extended the regiment, and particularly the ladies and gentlemen of the Subsistence Committee for the splendid breakfast set before them. After the regiment had partaken of the hospitalities extended them, they left the hall preparatory to embarking for Camp Reynolds.

Following is a copy of General Gregg's letter to General Young, from which it will be seen the commanding officer holds the services of the Fourth Cavalry in high esteem:

HEADQUARTERS 4TH PENNA. CAVALRY, }
LYNCHBURG, VA., July 1, 1865. }

Officers and Soldiers 4th Penna. Cavalry:—In parting with you who have so gallantly performed your duties in the defence of the Union, your commanding officer deems it necessary to say it is with reluctance. From the organization of the Regiment, it has been identified with you in various casualties. His pastimes have been such that his acquaintance with each one as a soldier in camp, as also in the field, has been personal, creating an interest that is now about to be severed, but never forgotten. For four years your life has been his—the privations and hardships which you have suffered he has also endured, but the recompense has been a full compensation.

By your gallantry and daring on every battle field you have won the admiration of the whole country. You have wrested from the hands of arch-traitors the proud emblem of liberty. You have once more opened the doors of the free institutions of a powerful people, and firmly established the great fundamental principle that there is no such thing as secession but by hydra-headed treason, and punishable to the full extent by military law; and not only that, but you have also established the supremacy of "The Star Spangled Banner" above all the nations of the world.

Among the officers of this command your commander sees none in the same capacity in which they entered the service. You have been promoted to your present respective grades for gallant and meritorious services rendered on many fields of battle. You have by your deportment won the full confidences and esteem of your commander, and for your assistance and obedience to all orders he thanks you.

And now that your services no longer requires your services, beat your swords into plow shares, and spears into pruning-hooks, that the clanking of arms may no longer salute the ear, but be superseded with the sweet voice of industry. Let your deportment hereafter be in accordance with your military life, and prove to the world that a soldier can be a good citizen; that he who raises the arm to establish law also raises it for its maintenance.

You will soon gather around your hearthstones and recount your perils, privations, hardships and conflicts; then will you appreciate home, but your bosoms will always heave with emotions of pride in the exclamation, "I was a soldier for the Union." Your name will be revered by the loyal, the great and good.

For our comrades who have fallen, we shed a tear. Our sympathies go forth to the house of mourning, and would condole with the afflicted—their loss has been in a glorious cause—the perpetuation of freedom to you and to all posterity.

We soon shall separate, perhaps never to meet again, but your memories will be the proudest of my recollection—to be erased only by nature's exit.

S. B. M. YOUNG,
Brev. Brig. Gen. Vols. Col. Fourth Pa. Cav.

The New World Versus the Old.

There is something wonderful in the fact that European amateurs and musicians who desire a first-class piano, have to send to this country for it. Yet this is really the fact, and it is the result principally of the award of a first-class prize medal to the Steinway Pianos at the London World's Fair in 1862. The popularity in Europe of these Piano-Fortes is steadily on the increase, and in time bids fair to equal that enjoyed by them in our own country. At a great price-trial which has just taken place in Germany, between the two foremost makers of that country and the Steinways & Sons of New York, the following conclusion was arrived at, and is expressed in the Leipsic Musical Gazette in the following terms: "The Piano trial between Bluthner of Berlin, Bechstein of Leipsic, and Steinway & Son s of New York, has demonstrated that while the former two have a very agreeable and sweet tone, the instruments of Steinway & Sons surpass them in nobleness of tone and comprehensiveness of volume."

Drowned.

A young man named John Donnelly, in the employ of Cadman & Crawford, brass founders, Duquesne Way, was drowned in the Allegheny river last night, just below the Water works. He, in company with several others, went in to bathe, and it is thought he got into a hole from which he could not extricate himself. His companions made every effort to reach him in time to save him, but did not succeed. His body was shortly afterwards recovered, and an inquest held by Coroner Clawson. Deceased was about nineteen years of age, and boarded on Prospect street. He had only been in the country about one year. The jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

Sun Stroke.—An Englishman named Martin,

employed at the outer depot of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was prostrated with sun-stroke yesterday, and was so seriously affected that he had to be removed to the Mercy Hospital. He has been but a short time in this country.
