10 PITTSBURGH FETROLEUM MARKET SATURDAY, July 8, 1663.
The market for Petroleum, both Orude and Re-The market for Petroleum, both Orude and Refined, on the spot, as well as for future delivery, has been active all through the week which has just closed, the sales, in the aggregate, being very heavy, but there has been no particular variation in prices. Citude is firm at 21@21½, bbls turn d, and 26@26½, bbls hashuded, and these ma, be regarded as the extremes of the market. We note a sale—on Friday evening—of 1500 bbls, to arrive, at 71½—to-day there was not a single operation reported. Refined, in bond, is firm, and in the sbeance of sales may be fairly quoted at 45@35½ on the spot; 46 for all this month; and 47@45 for Au, gust—seller's and buyer's option. Free Oil is quiet, but firm, at 64@55, for prime city brands, with occasional ameliasles. Natha is quated at 18@22, in bond, and 37@42, free, according to gravity and against a rise of the same amount yester day. United States Bonds rose one-half per cent no sales during the week that we sould he our last report, were as follows NEW YORK PETROLEUM MARKET. Special Dispatch to Western Fress.

New York, July 8, 1968.

Petroleum continues dull and heavy, without any material change in prices. Sales on the spot 38334 for Orude; 53 for Redned, in bond, and 72 for free. 293/4, 229, and rumored sales at considerable low-rates than either of the above, closing price (about) 25 bid, 29 asked.
