On motion adjoured. Horse Thief Arrested. Yesterday afternoon a man named Samuel McNue was arrested by S. B. Louden, Esq., Donaldson, on a charge of stealing a horse, valued at two hundred dollars, from John M'Nesl, s resident of Juniata county. Mr. M'Neal, it ppears, was absent from home one night last week, and during his absence the horse was sto week, and during his absence the horse was stolen. On his return, he lammediately started in bursoit of the thief, tracing him weatward to this city. Mr. M'Neal had suspected McNue as the thief, and accompanied by Sheriff London, arrived in this city yesterday morning. They tisted Alderman Donaldson to obtain his ondorsement of the warrant, after which, accompanied by the alderman, they started to hunt uptist supposed thief.

On making inquiries at the Temperanceville ferry, they ascertained that a man, riding a horse answering the description of the one stolen, had crossed the river at the polint, and had cone in the direction of the Washington road.
Having thus obtained a due, they kept up the pursuit, and after proceeding a distance of about dive miles, Mr. McNeal discovered his horse in a field a short distance from the road. On going to the farm house Mr. New was discovered, just in the act of "making a trade," He was at once arrested, and, securing the horse, the party returned to the city. Sheriff London left for Juniata county with his prisoner in the afternoon. Your Life is in Danger.

At this season of the year, when stomachic affections are so prevalent, and when the markets abound with "green truck," your life is in dangan it proper care be not exercised as to what you eat. We observe, by the Philadelphia papers, that the number of deaths in that city last week alone, by cholern infantum, was one hundred and twelve. In addition to this frightful list, twenty-three died from dyseniory, nineteen from diarrhosa, and twelve from inflamation of the bowels. Parents have at all times a great responsibility in the treatment of their children, but just at this time they should be doubly vigilant in regard to the matter of diet. Phousands of children die annually from sheer carclessness or neglect on the part of their parents, who never think of guarding against the attacks of sickness until the services of a physician are required—and until, in many instances, it is too late. The early apple season is just commencing, and these, with willed vegutables, solid by itherant bucksters among the poorer classes, often apered sickness broadcant. To children in their second summer the existing solstice is a period of peril. Now at the time to be careful what one cats, and to induige in no manuer of fruit or vigetable whose crispness or whose freshness has departed. ist, twenty-three died from dysentory, nineteer J. W. Lay in Your Supplies.

Prudent housewives have learned to provide in Frudent housewives have learned to provide in summer a supply of such articles of fruit as are desirable for wheter use, and not depend upon the hackster or the storekeeper. By so doing, they get a better article, and at less than one half the cost. The preservation of fruits and vegetables by canning forms a most important half the cost. The preservation of fruits and vegetables by canning forms a most important feature in domestic economy, and tends to procote health. Every family should seem re a supply of fruits and berries, in their season. They should also purchase a supply of butter, potatoes, onlone, and such like articles, between this time and the return of cool weather, and store them away for winter use. Butter, I properly packed, can be kept sweet for several months. It would be best for those who live in cities to dead directly with the farmers in obtaining these supplies, and give hockstors and midorders to deal directly with the farmers in obtaining these supplies, and give hocksters and mid-diemen a wide berth.

The past year has been a most prosperity—two hundred and twenty-one students having been in attendance. Large accessions are expected at the opening of the fall assalon, and the friends of the college are exceedingly desirous of having the endowment fund increased so as to most the increasing wants of the institution.

A respectable young gtrl, aged sixteen years, was discovered in a stable, in the Seventh ward, one o'clock this morning, by the police, i company with a young man named Richardson, who fled on the approach of the officers. On beng taken to the Mayor's office she stated hat Richardson had started with her in the when the take a walk, and between 2 and 10 clock enticed her into a static, where he outaged or person, and despite her entreattes refused to a there on home. Her father was sent for and ook her home from the Mayor's office. This took her home from the Mayor's office. This morning she appeared before the Mayor and made an information against Richardson, charging him with rapo. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

Chairs Belonging to the Continental Congress.—An antiquarian in search of corrections, and identified the chairs used by the organical arms and door keeper of the Senate of Pennsylvania, as having been once used by the antiental Congress. The gundeman who made his discovery, produced marks on the chairs this discovery, produced marks on the chairs which were fully satisfactory for identification, and, in his judgment, there is no mistake about he furniture having been used by the Continental Congress. These relics of the past are the JOS.
