DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN NEW YORK. Barnum's Musuem Destroyed. VERY LITTLE PROPERTY SAVED. Eighteen Large Buildings Destroyed. ST. PAUL'S CHURCH AND THE AS-OR HOUSE ENDANGERED.

GOVERNMENT DETECTIVE ARRESTED. New York, July 13.—A fire broke out in Bar num's Musuem at a quarter to one o'clock to-day, and by one o'clock the entire interior was consumed. The flames shot far into the air above the roof, and the whole block endangered. The wind being from the west the flames are driven towards Nassau street, on which side of the block is situated the Herald office.

SECOND DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, July 13.—A fire broke out at noon is Barnum's Buseum, and extended rapidly to the adjoining building on Broadway and Fulton streets. The Museum was totally destroyed. Numbers 13, 14, 16 and 18 Anu street, occupied by various parties, including Donahoe's store, Grant's restauarat, French, Wheat, Dick and Fitzgerald printers and others, were burned. Number 216 Broadway, occupied by A. White, batter, and Van Names restauarnt, were destroyed. Number 318 Broadway, occupied by Ragers & Raymond, clothiers, and Reeves' billiard seloon were consumed. Number 311 Broadway, occupied by Knox, hatter, and others, was destroyed. The firemen were in force and the fismes were here stayed, no one was injured. The less is said to be one million, on which there is half a million insurance. The fire originated over a boller in the Museum basement.

The flames were stopped at No. 18 Ann street, and 147 Fulion street. The property intervening on Broadway, Ann, and Fulion streets, was destroyed. Six buildings were destroyed on Broadway, eight on Ann, and five on Fulion streets. The hoat was so intense that the front of St. Pau's Church, opposite the Museum, took fire, but the firemen saved it. Among the sufferers were Thomas H. Braisted, Metzinger, Richardson, Bassfoot, Biasran & Duone, J. Wright, J. D. Phillips, flarvey & Ford, Slater & Riley, S. Bradford, Joseph B. Thompson, P. Hamilton, Sterna & Beales, Swift, Deck & Fitzgerald. Nothing but the glass steam engine was saved in the Museum. THIRD DISPATCH.

was saved in the Museum.

Owing to the rapid progress of the fire to-day at Barnum's Museum very little was saved. The enakes and wild animals were burnt. Several acteless were brought out end lost in the crowd. The policemen saved the case of valuable coins and glass engine. A large number of thieres plundered the list and shoe stores in the victury, and sold the stolen property in the crowd. Pickpockets were very active, and many arrests were made. Several persons were in jured by failing walls. A panie occurred in the crowd in consequence of excaping steam from a five engine, and several persons injured by being juried by falling walls. A panle occurred in the crowd in consequence of escaping sleam from a fire engine, and severally craoms injured by being trampled under foot. One of the attaches of Barnum's went on to the roof of the building when the free broke out, and has not since been heard from.

The City Hall, Park and all the streets in the vicility were filled with dense crowds of people. The walls of the Astor House grew very hot, but by archehing the wildows thoroughly the building was saved from the fire.

The Evening Express Offlice took fire twice on the roof, but no serious damage done; some water was thrown into the Hirad Building. The Belimont Hotel was thoroughly dreached. The Old Fire Department was out in strong force, and engines came from Brooklyn to assist this atternoon.

Developing Oil Territory SANDY CREEK, PRESTON CO., WEST VA., }
July Sth., 1865. }
EDITORS GAZETTE:—In coming from the cit find the "oil fever" manifesting itself with i usual accompaniments. Lands have been lease their tributaries, wherever there has been the slightest indication of oil, and the owners could be persuaded to do so. Across the State line, on Gibbon's Run, in the southeastern color of Wharton township, Fayette county, Pa., but a short distance from this point, I found a steam engine busy at work, with its lofty derrick, upon a well that has already reached a depth of four hundred feet. n well that has aiready rescend a depend of co-lundred feet.

The "indications" developed in boring this well areof a most oscellent character, and it control in the control in the confidence in the ultimate success of the work. This well on the tarm of Mr. Shepard, and is operated by on the farm of Mr. Shepard, and is operated to a Pittsburgh company. Others are preparing t go to work and await results. The close proximity of this section to Dunkard Creek, has in spired many with a great deal of hope. A sea cessful result to precent oil operations will d for Preston county what oil has done for Venar go and Greene—multiply its wealth a thousan fold.
