(FROM VESTURDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.) Sharper in Trouble—Charge of Passing Counterfeit Money and Keeping a Baw-dy Mouse. A young man named William Mahler, a roturned soldier, appeared before Mayor Lowry to-day ard preferred a charge of passing counrfest money against Samuel T. Eddy, residing on Eim street, in the Sixth Ward. Eddy, who not unknown to the police, figured conspicucusly here as a bounty-broker, and was once under arrest for running recruits into other States. He has been regarded by the police as a regular 'sharper," and has been under surveillance for some time. When the information was made, a warrant was at once issued for his arrest, and he was picked up on Smithfield street by officers

Herron and Messenr. On the hearing the fol-lowing facts were elicited: Herron and Messenr. On the hearing the following facts were elicited:

A few days ago Eddy entered the hat alone of Mr. Means, on Wood street, and purchased a hat, tendering in payment a twinty dellar "greenback." He got his change, and left his old hat in the store, which he called for on the following day, when the clerk informed him that the bill was counterfelt, and he redeemed it. He subscincingly exhibited this bill to Mr. Dickey, at the Eldorady Saloon, remarking that it was a counterfelt and that he had just redeemed it. While in the saloon be mad, the sequalitance of young Mahler, and insisted upon his visiting Lis lecuse on Eim street. The young man wont there, in company with a friend, and was not long Inside, (to use his own language) "unit he found out what sort of a house it was." Manier had a twenty dollar United Stress bill which he wished his friend to change for him, when Eddy volunteemed to accomm date him with change. He handed the bill to Eddy, who went out to get change, but returned saying, "This is a bad bill." Mahler swore that the note was not the same which he gave to Eddy, and hence the presention. Mr. Means was called us a withces, and without having ere the rute at all described it ar urately as the one which Eddy had praced at his storegiving the caset supiner and fetter of the note, and stating that it had the name "Smith" written on the beck. Eddy was then handed over to the custody of the United States authorities, and under the less resting that the house was committed to jall by Commissioner Sproul, in default of $2,000 hail, to answer at the next term of the United States Blastrice Court. On his way to jail, Eddy made Inquries of the officers so the trends the states the court of the course of the officers as to the probable number of rash benefits.

Jalior White that "they had a sure thing on him this time."

Young Mahler, however, did not rest satisfied with the "jugging." of Erdy, but he also made as information charging Eddy and his wrife with kerping a bawdy house. Mrs. Eddy was also arrested, but appeared quite indigmant at the "harge," and defied her accusers to produce the proof. She will have a hearing this afternoon. caus munknown. The corpse was clothed in a lead-colored worden sack with releven cultar, slate-colored ineas dross, gaiter boots with integrating and white cotton stockings, the clothing being decent in appearance and rather fashionably made. She was apparently about thurty-dreyears of age, had good teeth, and dark brown hair, inclining to grey. In the pocket of the dress were a white linen handkerchief and a pair of light colored slik gloves. There was nothing upon her person to lead to her dentification.

The body had evidently been in the water for some time, and was considerably decomposed. There were marks of violence upon the throst, also about the pelvis, as thought a delivery or abortion had been produced by the use of instruments. Eaton, Macrum & Co., A Bold Thief.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Barbara Dickerhoff, residing on North alley, Allegheny, having made arrangements for visiting Quincy, Illinois, with her family, entrusted a boarder, Charles Vane, with one hundred and twenty-seven dollars with which to purchase four tickets, and pay for extra baggage, consisting of two boxes of clothextra baggage, conelating of two boxes of clothing. Yane went to the depot, but instead of purchasing the tickets as requested, and shipping the grode to Quincy, he benght a ticket for himself to Bellair, and shipped the grode thither. As Vaine did not return at the expocted time. As Vaine did not return at the expocted time. As Na, D. visited the depot and learned what had happened. She then made an information before Mayor Morrison, wno dispatched Chief of Police Eixin in pursuit of Yane. The officer overhaused him at Bellair, and took him into custody just as he was arranging to leave for Clucinnail with the goods. All the money was recovered except twenty dollars, which had been spent. Vane was committed to Jail for trial.

Noteworthy. It is but little known to the public, beyond nose immediately interested, how great the ravel is on the accommodation trains of the Pennsylvania Railroad to Wall and Penn Staions. Four trains run daily, Sunday excepted, o and from Wall Station, and one each way to to and from Wall Station, and one each way to the latter point. The company, with their usual commendable liberality, is offering every possible convenience to its numerous patrons residing all along the road for miles out of the city. The care used are of modern build and luturiously comfortable. Mr. John Routh, conductor of the Wall Station train, is a "household word" among the people along the road, and no wonder, as his genial temperament and obliging disposition entitle him to their regard. Conductor Johnson, who has charge of the Penn Station train, though net so well known, is growing in favor, and will doubtless make a popular and efficient officer.
