CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(FROM SATURDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.)

The Hazlep Case.

The case of Captain Jacob Hazlep, charged with assault and battery with attempt to ravish a little daughter of Mr. Wermith, on board the steamer Empire City, was brought before Judges Barrett and Mellon, this morning, upon an application to have the bail reduced. Major Howard, it will be remembered, fixed the bail at $5,000, and the Captain was unable to procure it, and was committed for trial in default. Messrs. Howard, Brown and Fetterman appeared as counsel for the defendant, and Mr. Kirkpatrick for the commonwealth. We learned from the counsel for the defendant, counsel, that they regard his case as having been seriously prejudiced by the newspaper publications; that, contrary to representations made, his most intimate and oldest friends turned their backs upon him, and he was unable to find bail in the sum demanded. The statement of the examining magistrate, Dr. Welter, was referred to, and it was asserted that the offence consisted only in an "indecent assault." There was no attempt to ravish, as alleged, and hence the publication sent broadcast over the country that the captain has been guilty of outraging the person of a mere child had operated most seriously against him, as no man, however strong his friendship might have been, would come to his relief under such circumstances.

District Attorney Kirkpatrick remarked that the defendant had been committed for "assault and battery with intent to ravish," and the question was whether the bail required ($5000) was excessive.

Judge Stevens suggested that there was really no charge before the Court. If it was desired to make an application to have the bail reduced, the defendant could be brought before the Court on a writ of habeas corpus, and such facts developed as would warrant.

It was then agreed between the counsel that the case should be heard on Saturday next, at ten o'clock.

Recognizances Forfeited.

In the Criminal Court this morning, District Attorney Kirkpatrick certified into Court, under the act of Assembly relating to forfeited recognizances, the sum of $2,500, being the amount of bail forfeited in the case of Lee A. Lynch, and five other defendants, charged with larceny, who had failed to appear for trial. The bail in the Lynch case was $600, and that in the five cases footed up $1,700. The Court appointed E. B. Todd, Esq., as Auditor to distribute the money. It is his duty, after ascertaining the facts, to pay out only in the case, make good the losses sustained by the prosecutors, and pay over the balance into the county treasury. As the sums are not large, the greater portion of this fund will go for the benefit of tax payers of the county.

Patriotism of the Pittsburg Bar.

A gentleman has gone to the trouble to ascertain the number of lawyers belonging to our Bar who had entered the service of the country during the late rebellion, and finds it to be seventy-seven, or nearly one half of the "able-bodied" practitioners. This is certainly a very creditable showing for Young Man's Point, Box 99, the disciples of Blackstone in this community. Many of these men were distinguished for gallantry in action, not a few fell in the deadly conflict, and not one (so far as we know) returns with a tarnished reputation. The legal profession has certainly contributed a fair proportion of men for the suppression of treason and rebellion, and in this respect will not suffer in comparison with any other class, here or elsewhere.

A Johnstown Soldier Killed.

The Johnstown Tribune says: A distressing accident occurred when Capt. Lowman's company reached Blairsville Intersection on its way from Pittsburgh on the Johnstown Accommodation train. A member of the company, Conrad Gels, a brother of our townsman, Mr. John Gels, in jumping from the train, while it was in motion, fell under the wheels and had one leg horribly mangled. He was taken to Blairsville, but did not long survive. He was buried in that place, with a soldier's honors, on Sunday last. The deceased leaves a wife and seven children.

Another member of Capt. Lowman's company died on Wednesday night, of disease contracted while in the service.

Subsistence Committee's Concert.

The new and beautiful little operetta entitled the "Twin Sisters," will be performed in Masonic Hall, on Tuesday evening, 18th instant, by over thirty young ladies, under the direction of Mr. D. Shryock. The instrumental accompaniments will be of the highest order, Mr. Giles being engaged for pianist, Mr. Manning first violinist, assisted by a number of talented performers. The entertainment will be at once moral and attractive. The narrative, or argument of the representation can be had, in pamphlet form, in the hall, on the evening of the performance. Tickets twenty-five cents, are to be had at Mr. Geo. Albree's, Wood street; W. P. Weyman's, Smithfield street, and at the music stores.

Arguments Postponed.

—The argument on the motion for a new trial in the case of Dr. McDowell, convicted of procuring an abortion, was to have been heard in the Court of Quarter Sessions to-day, but was postponed owing to the absence of Judge Stowe, caused by the illness of a member of his family. For the same reason, the argument on the motion for a new trial in the case of the Oakland Passenger Railway Company, (convicted for maintaining a nuisance in the shape of a switch on Fourth street,) was also continued for the present.

Argued.

—The motion for a new trial in the case of William Burns, Superintendent and Lessee of the Pittsburgh and Brownstown Plank Road, who was convicted of keeping and maintaining a nuisance in the shape of a "bad road," was argued this morning, in the Quarter Sessions, by R. B. Carnahan, Esq., appeared for the defendant, and Messrs. John M. Kirkpatrick and E. Snowden, Esq., for the prosecution. The Court reserved their decision for the present.

Sudden Death.

—A. Hastings, proprietor of the Bryson mill property, Lawrence county, died suddenly on the 7th instant. He was in his usual health on the arrival of the morning train from this city, and on returning to his home fell from his seat a corpse.

Heavy Wheat.

—Mr. R. J. Davidson of Big Beaver township, Lawrence county, shipped this season from a Spanish bush, twenty-five pounds of wool.

The Excitement at Pit Hole.

The editor of the Oil City Register has been paying a visit to the famous Pit Hole region, in which so many of our own citizens are interested. He gives the following sketch of his visit:

Pit Hole is the present great centre of attractions for all who are interested in oil, or that are anxious to make money fast. The emigration to the different localities surrounding the United States and other Wells, is unprecedented. All the approaching roads are filled with eager horsemen, and wagons, loaded with goods, machinery, and household effects of every description. The new town of Pit Hole is being rapidly built up, and has already assumed the dimensions of a large and flourishing town. The United States Hotel, admirably kept by Robinson & Mansech, is the principal one, though another, the largest we have seen in the oil region, is being erected. Boarding and lodging houses exist by the score. The Banking house of Prather, Wadsworth & Co., has just commenced operations. This firm we recommend to the favorable consideration of the public, as in all respects responsible and worthy. Several shingles informed us that surveying, conveyancing, and legal business generally, was or would be transacted by disinterested parties, upon reasonable terms. The provision stores are numerous. The "refreshment" saloons are legion. No occasion for the wayfarer to go thirsty or "long between drinks," if he has the inclination or means. Quite a number of oil operators have opened offices at this point. Among these we may mention Fisher Bros., of this place, and Mr. J. F. Duncan, of Pittsburgh. On almost every house, post and tree, are placards, announcing leases, indentures, or lands for sale. Every one was busy and all appear to be making money. Never was seen the spirit of speculation more rife. We think the information ourself, offered to take the sixteenth of a working interest in a lease a few feet from the United States well, from a friend, who pay him for it when the well was down, or take the formal of the Holmden Farm, and the whole of Pit Hole creek for sixty days. Both offers were declined, and thinking our ideas of speculation were not properly appreciated, we quit. The United States Well still maintains it wonted flow. It is producing, we think, about 500 barrels per day. The Twin Wells immediately adjoining are producing some 600 barrels. Born have their eastern leases to. Hope the owners will keep them in until the railroad is completed from Oil City to Pit Hole, about ninety days hence. Tanks by the acres surround the three wells named, and a large amount of oil on hand is considerable. Capt. J. J. Vandegrift and Asa W. Say, (lucky men,) secured some four acres in fee, right adjoining these wells, on the Rooker farm. This they are disposing of as a profit that would send a Wall street broker into convulsions. It is a choice piece of territory, and we are glad to see our friends so fortunate. The Homestead Well, on the Hyner farm, just adjoining the Thos. Holmden, is estimated at 500 to
