The following article, giving some interesting and useful statistics of the "Monongashais Navigation Company," is taken from the New York Stockholder. We call attention to this important improvement, for the reason that its revenue will probably be increased considerably by the oil developments on the Upper Monongashai and it will play an important part in affording oil men a cheap and asse means of navigation: Rye Flour quiet. There is a stronger feling manifested on the part of holders of Flour and Groceries, and as a general thing, prices are a chade, higher, but in other articles there is no change worthy of special notice.

GRAIN—Wheavis in demand and would sell resulting a stronger of the change worthy of special notice. Reported Expressly for Pittsburga Taxette. ALLEGHENE City, July 13, 1965. OATTLE—The supply of cattle on sale this week was considerably larger than for some weeks past, being variously estimated at from 120 to 1500 head, but the market was unexpectedly brisk, and while there was no marked improvement in prices, the pens were all cleared out before avening—only about 40 head remaining unsoil. The activity manifested was owing to the presence of a large number of eastern buyers, who, although anxious to buy, were unwilling to operate unless at low rates, and it is apparent that shippers have but little confidence in the stability of the castern markets. There is a continued brisk demand for food stock cattle, and all of this description offering meet with a ready sale at prices ranging from 4½0 60, as to quality. Prime fat cattle, such as our best batchers are accustomed to buying, soid at from 5½ to 7½, while common to medium grades may be quoted at 5½60%.

SHEEP AND LAADS—The demand for Sheep continues very light, and, notwithstanding the supply on sale was very light, then arket continues at 4½60. Lambs are quoted, if years and a 4½60.
