$\mathref{S}$ A square to be considered as the space occupied by ten lines of the ordinary advertising type of the paper. CITY AND SUBURBAN. (FROM TESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.) Case of Scandal-Attempt to Shoot, etc. The lovers of gossip in and around the quiet town of Beaver have been enjoying a now piece of scandal during the past few days. It appears that Wm. S. Barclay, a prominent resident of the town, and the head of a family, had taken under his care a young lady, who is a niece of his wife and his own second cousin, and had been superintending her education. A few days ago, while riding along the road in Brighton seco, while riding along the road in Brighton Township, in company with the young lady, the buggy was stopped at a point which was sheltered by trees, and while the movements of the occupants could be plainly seen by a resident of the neighborhood named H. Reisinger, he had the advantage, from his position, of being concealed from them. Mr. Reisinger, thinking the conduct of Barclay was deserving of exposure, let the cat out of the bag, and soon the whole neighborhood was agon in reference to the scandal. The report soon reached the ears of Mr. Barclay himself, and putting on an air of outraged innocence, he deterrained to call Reisinger to personal account. He procured a platol, with which he threatned to shoot his alleged defamer. Reisinger became alarmed, and in order to put himself right on the record, (but not with an intantion to proceemte Barclay,) went before Justice Herron, of Brighton township, and made shidavit as to what he had actually seen occur between Barclay and the young lady. It was supposed that the matter would end here, and probably it might, had it not been for Barclay himself. Meeting Reisinger in Beaver, on Thursday, he drew a piatid upon him, and attempted to shoot, but formassant with latent to kill, and he was arrested and held to answer the charge, and also to keep the peace. The other matter will probably be procecuted in the shape of adultery against Barclay, for assant with intent to kill, and he was arrested and held to answer the charge, and also to keep the peace. The other matter will probably be procecuted in the shape of adultery against Barclay, Reisinger's statement is corroborated by his brother, who was with him at the time, and as both men are reputable clitzens it will not be an easy matter to impeach their credibility or

Biothodist Church Matters. A discussion on Prevented." On Wednesder-

Methodist Church Matters.

The Ciristian Advocate, in its issue of to-day, contains an interesting article on church maters, from which we condense the following: The Manchester congregation, under the pas-toral care of Rev. Wesley Smith, are pushing forward their project with commendable zeal and hope ere long to have erected an edifice and tope the long to have erected an editice worthy of Methodism and the wants of that sturdy borough. Rev. John W. Baker, pastor of the Lawrenceville M. E. Church, is engaged in the isundable work of securing funds to erect a first class church edifice in place of the present and station of the burch edifice in place of the present call station of the burch of the charges of the congregation, and one, too, 'equally as fine as those erects' recently there for the congregations of other churches. Ress street church in this city, they one yest save one, of the charges, is being thoroughly renovated outside and holds. The improvements, painting and otherwise, when completed, will do much towards rendering the place of worship more attractive than heretofore. Under the ministrations of Rev. Joseph Horner, the congregation is mosted that Ames church, worshipping ma hall on Fourth street, are making an effort to build a church at an early day. It is reported that they have purchased, or are negotiating for the purchase of the lot formerly used by the Third Frestyterian church, corner of Third and Forry streets. Nothing is being done towards completing the church on the corner of Beaver street and North Common, Allecheny—the foundation of which has been laid for some time. The writer asks "Why should not the work go forward to completion !" dism and the wants of that asks "Why should not the work go forward to completion?"

Several other church enterprises are alluded to, and useful suggestions thrown out in regard to rendering them more efficient. On the whole, the article indicates that the Methodists, as a deuomination, are active in the matter of church extension, and are making commendable progress in this respect.

Latest Oil Intelligence. The Franklin Citizen says: "In our last issue we made mention of the increased activity in all branches of the oil business. Since the in all branches of the oil business. Since that time matters are growing liveller every day, and our streets are througed with strangers; we sgain hear the cry of lands to lesse and sell, and simest every day new dovelopments increase the demand for elegible oil sites. We learn that on Fridies less another large flowing well was struck on Pithole creek, but have been unable to obtain the names of the fortunate parties. A fine well was obtained on the Gates Farm, in Rockland formably, on the Aliegheny river, Thursday last, at less than two hundred feet, which is yielding over one hundred bards per day. In consequence of this somewhat novel development, lands on the river for fifteen miles or more below Frankin, are rapidly rasing in vatue, and leases, fee simples &c.; are easerly sought after. In short there is every indication that the business will assume greater importance in this county is a short time than over before."

To Senocis to Set. and the phane We learn from chieful sources that the number of soldiers' orphans ordered to be ad-mitted to the different schools and institutions revive monasticism in the Church of Engof the State, to June 1st, was 857, as follows: North Sewickley School, Beaver county, 78; Quakertown, Bucks county, 45; Orangeville, Columbia county, 111; McAllisterville, Junista | ted to the rigid system, which imposed ununty, 129 ; Paradise, Lancaster county, 79 ; Strasburg, Lancaster county, 63—total of the more advanced pupila, 525, Pittsburgh and Allegheny Orphans' Asylum, 41; Pittsburgh The school vacation commences on the 33th of July, and unless in special cases to fill up a school or provide for an orphan whose wants are urgent, no more admissions will be granted until after vacation. The schools will reopen on the first Monday of September, when all having orders will be admitted. In the meantime, applications will be received as usual, and it is expected that during vacation enough applications will be made to fill all the schools now in operation to the maximum of one hundred to core will be made to fill all the schools now in operation to the maximum of one hundred to one hundred and twenty pupils each. New schools will be established during vacation, in several portions of the State, not yet provided for.

Dress suits for both sexes of the orphan scholars have been selected, and most of the pupils in the schools for the more advanced will be supplied during the present month. The uniform of the boys consists of a bine jacket and gray pants, trimmed with black cord, and a blue cloth cap with a narrow gold lace band.

The larger girls have tan colored muslin delaine
dresses and dark colored straw hats, trimmed with brown ribbon, and the smaller girls a she,herd's plain delains dress, with a straw hat similar to that worn by the larger girls. The pupils, on going home at vacation, will wear their dress uniform.

60 foot street, 10 foot of a side alk; supposed Murder in Armstrong County. The body of a woman named Mary M. Kil-gore, was found on Monday last, in the woods, on the hill top, on the south side of Grooked

Creck, below Rosatoa, in Armstrong county. It is said she had been seem on the evening of the 4th liest., near the railroad bridge at that place. A chain of circumstances lead to the impression that she was murdered. The body was in such a state of decomposition—having been exposed for thirteen days—that no proper examination could be had, hence the case remails shrounded in mystery. A short distance from where the body was found her parasol, shawl, collar, earrings, and bonnet were found. Her husband appeared at the inquest and claimed the body for interment. creek, below Rosston, in Armstrong county. Florence, Washington county, on Wednesdanight last. The statement is to the effect the samuel Devore, a resident of the village, having auspected the fidelity of his wife, shot her in a quarrel, inflicting a wound which will probably prove istai. Soon after committing the deed, he left the bouse and was found dead, having blow his brains out with a pistol. We learn, on inclury, to day, that the rumor has not yet been corroborated, although it has not been authoritatively costradicted. Devore and his wife have been leading a dissolute life for some time past, and their house was a nuisance to the neighborhood.

Father Ignatius in his absurd chilit land, has attempted too much and has faller into disgrace with his own order. Those whom he had gathered about him submit natural fasts, penalties mediavil occentrici ties of garb, midnight vigils on the cold and damp pavement, barefooted walks through rain, mud or snow, and other ascetic practices, but unfortunately Father Ignatius ventured beyond this limit. In addition to praying all night on their bare knees, his ollowers were directed to trace, with their ongues, a series of large crosses in the pavement dust! This was too much. They re fused to obey-knowing "Father Ignatius" was only an elected officer, liable at any time to suspension, the obnoxious "Father" was suspended. With the exception of a few Churchmen, it is a matter of re joicing that Father Ignatius and his Protestant monks have had a falling out. - The Examiner and Chronicle, an is fluential Baptist paper, published in New York, speaking of the action of the Board of Managers of the American Bible Society c regard to celebrating the Fiftieth Year o the existence of the American Bible So cicty as a Year of Jubilee, suggests to the Managers "that no year could be so well chosen as this, the Year of Jubilee, for the removal of every hindrance to the fullest co-operation of all Christians in the work o the American Bible Society." ---In pursuance with the action of the last (O. S.) General Assembly to raise $150,000 for the Princeton Theological Seminary, it is proposed to bring the matter promptly before the churches, so that the sum may be speedly secured. It is asserted the money is positively required to make up the salaries of the Professors, fill up the scholarships, and sustain the students. -At the laying of the corner stone o seph, Mo., at which upwards of 20,000 were present, it is reported by the St. Louis Republican, that when the Archbishop raised his hand to sign himself with the sign of the cross, it acted like electricity; 20,000 hands were simultaneously raised to cross their foreheads with the sign of redemption.

——According to an article of the Morn-ing Star (Free-Will Baptist) the principles of Christian Communion are rapidly progressing in the Calvinist Baptist Churches. A few years since, acarcely a member of who did not believe in, and carnestly defend, the practice of close communion; but now, there is scarcely a church that has not nore or less members who are decidedly in favor of a more liberal, and a more Christian policy. -The Roman Catholic Oath bill, for abolishing the special oath which Roman Catholic members of Parliament have to take, has been rejec'ed by the House of Commons.

--- At the annual meeting of the Society 4,547 At the annual Transfer of the Gospel in Forabove fig- eign parts, held in London, the report shows the receipts for the year amounted to £102,997, The Society's missionary list new includes 501 clergymen maintained wholly or in part, and a large body of atechists, school-masters, and divinity tudents.

-In an article in the Lutheran Obseror, on the question "What are the baptized children of the Church, and How are they to be Treated?" These two points re discussed. 1, Baptized children of christian parents are members of the Chrisiso Church, and truly and really christians. 2. They are trained in such a manner as ever to be or think themselves anything else than true christians.

-At a meeting of lay delegates of the Synod of Pennsylvania, (Lutheran) held at Easton, Pa., recently, a resolution, was adopted, "That we believe it the duty of every congregation to hold divine service in the church on every Lord's day, that closed churches cannot properly be salled the Lord's houses."
