Oil CREEK AND CHERRY HEN.

Those operating on Oil Creek, have not been in any way deterred by the recent operations apon Pithele. On the contrary, the denizens of the Creek and of Cherry Run have redoubted their efforts, and the resulty we predict, will be an increased production of oil in those localities. A very good well was obtained a few days ago in McChistogkville. It is called the "Greenback" well, and yields about fifty barrels a day. On Friday evening last the Cattarsurgus well, No. 1. on the Similar farm, Cherry run, owned by S. N. Delan & Co., canght fire from the other of the consumed.

A well has been struck on lot No. 1. Streeky farm, just adjoining Oil City. It is 565 feet in depth, and oil was struck in the third sand rock, willen at twenty-six fees in thickness. The well is now pumping and flowing at the rate of from 25 to 30 barrels per day, and increasing rapidly. The oil is of gravity 48. The well and fee belongs to Know & Co., and gives promise of the best on the river.

A new well, pumping twenty barrels, has just been struck at the Ricket's farm on Cherry run, about two miles above Plumer. The well shows in the constant of the propertion of the been obtained on the rine paying well which has been obtained on the rine above Plumer.

OIL CREEK AND CHERRY BUR.

The Burkhaiter well, on the Great Republic farm, three miles alone Plumer, struck on Monday, at a depth of five hundred and wenty-five feet, a very fine vein of oil, with large quantities of gas. There is considerable excitement on this part of the run, and a large number of leases have been taker by prominent operators.

On Friday last, the Ivanhoe well, owned by Cornwall & Co., on the Tarr Farir, commenced pumping at the rate of about one hundred barrals per day. The Ivanhoe is an old well, and at one time (months ago) pumped about one hundred and lifty barrels a day, bat gradually also use time (months ago) pumped about one hundred and lifty barrels a day, bat gradually also went down until she numed nothing but water. Her owners, however, thought it would "never do to give it up so, Mr. Brown," and kept working away, and have continued pumping from her water only for the last three months, until on Friday last, when new tabling was inserted with the above result. She is now pumping and flowing alternately.

An Obstinate Law-Breaker. Four second-hand Planes, in splendid order, a James O'Rourke is the proprietor of what is termed in legal parlance "a tavern." James keeps on Grant street, and holds license from keeps on Grant street, and holds licease from the Court. He makes the best possible use of his licence, since it is alleged he habitually keeps his bouse open on Sunday. He has been fined twice for selling liquor on Sunday, paid his fine like a philleopher, and "cracked ahead" as before. He pays no regard to the law whatever, and his profits from lik violation must be commons, else the could not afford to pay these fitty dellar penalties so readily. He has be paid two flues in the abbre amount, within a comparatively short time, and another charge was inade grainet him to-day, before Mayor Lowry, for selling on Sunday last, for which he was arrested and held to gapyer a hearing on Friday next.

We do not pretend to know whiether U'llourka is guilty of the latter charge or not; but we bold to the opinion that a man who sells liquor on Sunday is not aft person to be entrusted with a license. He is by no means a good citizen, and ought not to enjoy any privileges of this charge-ter from the court. We take it for granted that the same power which confers these privileges and representations of the same power which confers these privileges and representations of the latter than the same power which confers these privileges and representations of the latter of license, and we contend that seelling liquor on Sunday is a serious comme, and to contend that seeling liquor on Sunday should work an immediate foreleture of license, and we contend that seeling liquor on Sunday should work an immediate foreleture of license, and we contend that seeling liquor on sunday.
